GOES TO ST. LOUIS, SPEAKER AT CONFERENCE

The Rev. Jno. Albert Williams leaves Tuesday for St. Louis, Mo., where he will be a visitor to the General Convention of the Episcopal church. On October 12 he is to be one of the appointed speakers at the Conference on Theological Education held in connection with the Convention on the topic, "The Present Necessity for a Learned Ministry and a Place for a Less Learned Ministry in the Church."

The other speakers on this subject will be the Rt. Rev. W. T. Faber, D. D., bishop of Montana; the Rev. G. G. Bartlett, D. D., dean of the Philadelphia Divinity School and the Rev. C. B. Wilmer, D. D., of Atlanta, Ga.

The appointed speakers and writers at this conference, which will occupy three days includes some of the ablest men in the Episcopal church and it is therefore considered quite a distinction and honor to have a place on the program.

On October 18th Father Williams, Bishop Matthews and the Rev. Dr. Irving P. Johnson, bishop-coadjutor-elect of Colorado, who were all ordained together here in St. Matthias church, expect to celebrate the silver anniversary of their ordination to the priesthood as they will be all in St. Louis at that time.

OLD FOLKS HOME RECEIVES DONATION.

The Negro Women's Christian Association Home has received a donation of $200 from the Charity Fund of $10,000 which was left by the late Arthur D. Brandeis for distribution among various Omaha Charities. Mrs. James G. Jewel, president of the association received the check Tuesday.

DOUGLAS REPUBLICAN LEAGUE.

The Douglas Republican League will hold a public meeting next Thursday night at the Mecca Hall, Twenty-fourth and Grant streets. Good speakers. Desdune's Band will furnish the music.

Intemperance in drink is not a prevalent or dominant vice among our race. Our intemperance lies along the line of over-eating and over-dressing.

An Amiable Arrangement

THIS is how Andrew Carnegie tells the story, and it is one of his real favorites:

"I canna leave ye thus, Nancy," a good old Scotsman wailed. "Ye're ower ould to work, an' ye couldna live in the almshouses. Gin I die, ye maun marry anither man who'll keep ye in comfort in yer auld age."

"Nay, nay, Andy," answered the good spouse; "I couldna marry anither man, for what wull I do wi' two husbands in heaven?"

"Andy pondered over this, but suddenly his face brightened.

"I ha'e it, Nancy!" he cried. "Ye ken auld John Clemmens? He's a kind man, but he is no' a member of the kirk. He likes ye, Nancy, an' gin ye'll marry him 'twill be all the same in heaven. John's no' a Christian, an' he's no' likely to get there."

"I ha'e it, Nancy!" he cried.
