Our New Bartolo!

THE TRIUMPHAL NOTE IN BEAUTIFUL MUSIC

Monday night marked the most pleasant achievement of good things which the Alhambra theatre is offering its patrons. A crowded house listened with wonder to our new pipe organ, the finest of its kind in the city of Omaha. To hear it is the only way to appreciate it. Music appropriate to the pictures shown is always a fine feature of the movies, but the full effect cannot be understood and felt until you hear the Alhambra Bartolo. Come out and bring your friends and have a delightful musical treat. Triangle, as well as Mutual films, are added to the list of weekly programs, and the Alhambra now takes first rank among the moving picture houses of growing Omaha. An evening spent here is an evening worth while.

RAILWAYS AND HOTELS

(By W. J. Shields)

The prospective effects of prohibition are already apparent. It is reported that the Henshaw will close up January 1, when the lease expires; while the Rome will discontinue May 1, 1916.

Your sweetheart, wife or sister, wants a box of O'Brien's Candy. Ask her and see.

Waiters report that travel is very light, but the U. P. headquarters expect a general improvement soon.

Lester Robinson and Lewis Porter are on the Lake Shore out of Chicago.

Leo Furst, George Hall, John Price and Ray Parker, Omaha men, are on the Michigan Central. Doc. Lewis is working with the Milwaukee people.

The manner in which the machine demanded Colored voters to cut the republican ticket was a revelation to everyone. Everybody balked, even to the workers hired by the machine itself. Wake up, boys. The Monitor is going to have something to say about it next week.

James Hieronymous is back from the Metz ranch where he has been for the last three months.

A banquet without guests was the novelty at the Omaha Club Tuesday night. The boys were paid, however, and had plenty of a la king, etc., so who should worry?

Watch for The Monitor next week. There's going to be some stuff hot off the griddle, believe me, little Eva.

Atkisson, the home of the famous Nettleton Shoe, has favored us with a fine ad. Look it up, boys, and give him a play.

Help our advertisers, boys and then we will live long enough to help you. It must be a square deal for everyone, or else.

STUDYING INDUSTRIAL CONDITIONS OF NEGRO

in any one part of the country and a lack of supply in another.

"The class of Negroes, as a body, is better off now than they have ever been before and the policy of the present administration is to improve the condition of the class.

"Ninety-five per cent or nearly all of the Negroes of the United States belong to the working class and it is with the idea of improving the conditions of the majority that the United States Bureau of Immigration is sending out representatives to look after conditions of the Negro."

The unprecedented influx of Negroes from the southern states is attributed to the fact that foreign immigration is almost at a standstill and it has been necessary to fill the depleted ranks of unskilled labor from somewhere and the southern Negro offered the best inducements to the seeker for laborers.

These gentlemen visited the packing plants of South Omaha where they found the usual normal supply of Colored laborers. There has as yet been no unusual influx.

Coming to Omaha from Kansas City, the two investigators spent Friday and Saturday in the city. They left Saturday night for Duluth, Minn., to carry on their work.
