DOCTOR ASSAULTED AND EJECTED FROM PULLMAN

Memphis, Tenn.—As the result of a brutal attack by three white men, who ejected him from a Pullman sleeper on which he was riding enroute to this city from St. Louis, Dr. J. E. White was confined in a hospital here for several days, while being treated for his injuries.

Dr. White left New York on October 9, for Missouri, where he intends entering upon the practice of medicine. Intending to visit friends in Memphis, he left St. Louis on October 11, occupying a berth on the Pullman sleeper attached to the Iron Mountain train, a division of the Missouri Pacific. A few miles out of Memphis three white men, not passengers, it appeared, entered the car, evidently for that particular purpose, and after assaulting Dr. White, ejected him from the car. Incidentally they relieved him of his purse.

He has entered suit in the Federal Court for damages to the amount of $10,000, with Attorney Booth of this city as his lawyer.

ST. JOSEPH'S TAG DAY A SUCCESS

St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 5.—Up to last night $334.73 had been turned into the hands of the committee of the Woman's Auxiliary of Northwest Missouri Negro orphanage and hospital as a result of a tag day held here yesterday. The best work was done in the down town districts where there was from one to two workers on every corner. The largest amount collected by any one tagger was $28.91, Mrs. Daisy Hayes having that honor.
