

Lincoln Department

Joseph B. LaCour, Editor and Business Manager.
821 S Street
Mrs. Wyatt Williams Reporter.

Mrs. A. Moss entertained a number of friends Monday afternoon complimentary to her mother, Mrs. Fields, of Iola, Kansas.

About $40.00 was cleared at the Thanksgiving day dinner given at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church. An excellent program was rendered in the evening.

Mrs. Thomas, of Fremont, Nebr., spent Monday in Lincoln, visiting her son, Cecil, who is attending the university.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Lindsay have gone to Scotts Bluff, Nebraska, to spend the winter.

Mrs. James Garfield spent Thanksgiving in Sioux City, Ia., with her sister.

Several Colored men have been appointed to state positions by the democrats so far.

A lively social session is predicted for the holidays.

IF PARTICULAR

HAVE YOUR CLOTHES

Made, Cleaned and Pressed

BY

V. B. YOUNG

THE BEST AND MOST REASONABLE PLACE IN THE CITY
219 North 9th Street. Lincoln, Neb.

Heffley's Tailors

For Nifty Up-to-Date
CLOTHING

Oliver Theatre Bldg. 149 N. 13th

The CHAPMAN Drug Store

934 P St., Lincoln
Opposite Main Door Post Office
Cameras and Films, Magazines,
Cigars, Candies and a full line
of Druggist Sundries

BRITISH UNIONS PROTEST

Object to Employment of Colored Laborers on the Docks.

London, Nov. 25.—Trade unionism, which has been growing informally at the prospect of the introduction of Colored labor in Great Britain since the proposition was first mooted, has now made a formal protest. The National Transport Workers' Federation, one of the largest unions, has passed a long resolution condemning certain proposals of the Government affecting labor. The resolution says in part:

"The federation's executive hopes that the authorities will not be so ill advised as to attempt the introduction of any class of Colored labor on the docks or other waterside places of employment. In the existing crisis to think of employing Colored labor would mean the recrudescence of all the trouble and discontent experienced by the increased employment of Chinese in the mercantile marine."

IF I HAD KNOWN

If I had known what trouble you were bearing,
What griefs were in the silence of your face,
I would have been more gentle and more caring,
And tried to give you gladness for a space,
I would have brought more warmth into the place—
If I had known.

If I had known what thought despair-drew you—
Why do we never understand?—
I would have lent a little friendship to you,
And slipped my hand within your lily hand,
And made you stay more pleasant in the land—
If I had known.

THE LIFE AND ACHIEVEMENTS OF BISHOP ALEXANDER WALTERS TO APPEAR SOON

One of the most interesting and inspiring books to appear sometime during the holidays, will be The Life and Achievements of Bishop Alexander Walters which is being published by Fleming H. Revel, one of the largest publishing houses in New York, and which has been spoken of by that house as a book that will furnish a thrilling story of achievements. The book will contain an introduction by John E. Bruce, the noted writer, and will contain 350 pages, will illustrations. The book is written by the bishop himself and covers the space of his activities in public life dating forty years.

JAPAN FLOATS BRITISH LOAN

The London Times reports that the British treasury has agreed with Kengo Mori, the financial commissioner of the Japanese Government, for a public issue of a British loan of 100,000,000 yen ($50,000,000) in Japan.

In July last the Japanese Government undertook to furnish the British treasury with $50,000,000 in exchange for British treasury bills, but in the present case it is not the Japanese Government, but the Japanese people who are providing the funds.

AFRICAN SULTAN MAKES GREAT SPLURGE

The Sultan of Morocco, Moulay Youssef, recently performed, for the first time in his reign, the state journey to Fez, which is the holy city of Morocco. In his retinue were 8,000 horsemen, bedizened and decorated with all the glorious colors of the Orient. Great honor was paid him by Europeans and his pilgrimage is reported to have been one of the grandest ever seen.

NEWS OF OUR LOCAL CHURCHES

Grove Methodist Episcopal Church

The Rev. G. G. Logan, D.D., Pastor.
The Woman's Home Missionary Society, of which Mrs. R. D. Allen is president and Miss Elretta Smith, secretary, has done a great deal of excellent work for the church and the community since its organization.

Last month clothes were made and given to several destitute children. The society has also placed an old and worthy sister in the N. W. C. A. Home for the Aged and purpose to keep her there for a year.

The women of this society are devout Christian women who are struggling to help the poor and needy of the community and are doing all they can for the love of Christ and in His name.

Mt. Moriah Baptist Church.

The Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, Pastor.

We are very much elated to report that very triumphantly the Lord has brought us through another month. No serious storm has molested our march. We have lost nothing, but gained much.

The "Old Maids' Club" repeated the drama and met with much success. The Dorcas Kensington is quite alive and helping the church right along. An additional $30.00 has been given to help paint the ceiling of the church and to buy material for needed repairs.

On the night of December 14 a "box social" and bazaar will be held in the church basement.

A missionary tea was recently given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Anderson, 2914 Lake street, for the purpose of securing linen for communion services. A fine program was rendered and the whole affair was a grand success.

During the month thirteen members were added. Our new furnace has been installed at a cost of $130.00 cash.

Some of our faithful men are still giving their time to beautifying the church basement.

The money raised for the month from all sources was $149.23.

Please, don't forget the night of the 14th. Any lady can bring a lunch box, which will be auctioned off. Make it as nice as may be desired both on the inside and on the outside and put your card inside the box.

Zion Baptist Church.

The Rev. W. F. Botts, Pastor.

The services were well attended all day Sunday. In the morning covenant meeting was held from 10:30 to 12 o'clock. In the evening the pastor preached on "The Wages of Sin."

Those who worshipped for the first time in this church were Mrs. L. A. Brown, of Chicago, and the Rev. L. F. Nichols, of Manassa, Va.

Sunday, December 24, will be "Rally Day." Each member is earnestly requested and urged to pay in $5.00 to help clear the indebtedness on the church by the first of the year.

Church of St. Philip the Deacon. Episcopal.

The Rev. John Albert Williams, Rector
On Thanksgiving eve representatives from the Woman's Auxiliary and the Altar Guild brought most generous donations of groceries and provisions to the rectory, as the loving gift of parishioners, which was greatly appreciated by the priest and his family.

The early service on Thanksgiving Day was the most largely attended in the history of the congregation. At 11 o'clock several of St. Philip's attended the Union services at Trinity Cathedral where the rector took part in the services, reading the first lesson.

Last Sunday afternoon Bishop Williams preached an eloquent sermon to a large congregation.

Next Sunday morning Fr. Williams will preach the second of the special Advent sermons on "The King and His kingdom." At 5 o'clock the Very Rev. James A. Tancock, dean of Trinity Cathedral, will preach. Miss Ruth Seay will play a violin solo.

LOS ANGELES NEWS

By W. D. Sandifor.

Mr. Howard Morris has sold his cafe on Central avenue and moved to his beautiful orange grove near Ontario. He expects to reap a large harvest of fine fruit this season.

Sam's Dairy Lunch Rooms service has improved under the management of Mr. Lee C. Allen.

George Elerbery has one of the most popular barber shops in the city. A good corps of barbers who know their business look after his well pleased patrons.

Mr. F. D. Rogers is considering an offer from Mr. Watts which will connect him with the new Cadillac Cafe.

We sometimes wonder where are the old friends we used to know. Looking around Los Angeles we frequently run across them.

Old patrons of the Waldorf were astonished to see new faces among the entertainers recently; but they were satisfied with the entertainment.

The Japanese question seems to be quite an important one in California. One of the local dailies recently said that Californians need not be surprised to wake up some fine morning and find themselves with an emperor.

One need not feel lonely in Los Angeles as long as the Cadillac keeps open for Mr. Watts is always on the job.

The Monitor is eagerly read in this city of the Angeles and many compliments are paid it on its literary character and makeup.

The Hotel Rock Island at 1123 Central avenue, under the efficient management of Anna Moore Foster, gives good accommodations to guests.

PHILADELPHIA'S COLORED POPULATION, 100,000

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 8.—Between 3,000 and 5,000 Negro laborers have come to Philadelphia from the south within the last six months, according to a tentative census made recently by officials from the department of labor and commerce at Washington. Since this was an industrial census, no figures are available as to the women and children that have come with these workmen, but a conservative estimate, according to A. L. Manly, field secretary of the Armstrong Association, which does work among the Negroes, would place the Negro population of Philadelphia and its suburbs at not less than 100,000. These figures allow for the normal increase since the census of 1910, which gave 90,000 as the Negro population, as well as for the recent influx from the southern states.

Mrs. Alice H. Acree and her daughter, Mrs. Charles Jenkins, left for their home in Atlanta, Ga., Sunday. While here they spent a very pleasant time as the guests of their niece and cousin, Mrs. James Kirby, 2809 Cuming street.