

HYMENAL

Romain-Majors.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas, 2430 Lake street, was the scene of a quiet wedding Monday night, December 4, the contracting parties being Mr. Elmer Romain and Miss Viola Majors. The Rev. W. T. Osborne officiated. Dr. W. A. Scott acted as best man, and the bride's sister, Miss Beatrice Majors, was maid of honor. The little Misses Emogene Majors and Juanita Thomas were flower girls.

The house was beautifully and artistically decorated with chrysanthemums and ferns sent from California for the occasion.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weir, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cousins, Mrs. Eva Hardy and mother, Mrs. M. Reeves, Misses Sanford and Myrtle Hayden, Messrs. Bob Cross, Ed Griffin, B. Doak, and Roy King.

An elaborate menu was served, after which the happy couple left for Oakland, Cal., where they will make their future home.

Best wishes of many friends follow them to their new home.

Parker-Davis

George Wells Parker and Miss Willetta Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Davis, of 3026 Pinkney street, were married at St. John's parsonage Wednesday evening, December 6, by the Rev. W. T. Osborne, pastor of St. John's A. M. E. Church. Mr. and Mrs. Parker will reside at 941 North Twenty-seventh street. They have the best wishes of their many friends for a long and happy married life.

CHURCH OF ST. PHILIP THE DEACON

The special Advent services are being well attended. Dean Tancock of Trinity Cathedral, preached an eloquent and impressive sermon to a large and attentive congregation at the five o'clock vesper services. Miss Ruth Seay, violinist, accompanied the choir and organ and her playing added much to the musical part of the service.

Next Sunday at 11 o'clock, Fr. Williams will preach the third sermon in the series of Advent sermons on "The King and the Kingdom;" the special topic being "What Is The Kingdom of God?"

At the five o'clock vesper services the Rev. Thomas J. Collar, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, will be the preacher. Special music.

The Altar Guild will meet at the residence of Mrs. Josiah Brown, 1514 Burdette street, next Tuesday night.

As soon as they have taken care of their pledge for diocesan and general missions the Woman's Auxiliary plan to send a special offering to St. Paul's Normal and Industrial School of Lawrenceville, Va., where Archdeacon Russell is doing such splendid work.

AN EXHIBIT OF INTEREST TO US ALL

The City Planning Board has on exhibit, until December 20th, in the rotunda of the Douglas County Court House, charts showing methods employed in various cities for the economical beautifying of cities. These charts show, grading of streets, placing of electric, gas and telephone poles, in fact, treat of all matters pertaining to the constructive features of good city government and all progressive citizens should make it a point to see this exhibit.

THE OMAHA ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER COMPANY
EMPLOYS COLORED MEN

The Omaha Electric Light and Power Company has given employment to eight Colored laborers, under a Colored foreman, at their plant on lower Leavenworth street, and last week Charles Hopkins was employed as janitor at this plant. It is reported that credit for Mr. Hopkins' appointment is due to Judge Julius C. Cooley, who has always been a true and tried friend of the race. Mr. Hol-drege, general manager of the company, is authority for the statement that the company will be glad to give employment to other members of the race just as soon as it is practicable.

The Monitor's work for increased industrial opportunities for our people is bringing results. Let the men who are given employment prove themselves worthy of it.

HAD BIRTHDAY PARTY

A birthday party was given for Edward Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dunn, of Lindsey avenue, November 29. The little folks present had a delightful time with games and songs and recitations and good things to eat. In a recitation contest the first, second and third prizes, respectively, were won by Helen Redd, Maceo Farrell and James Getty. Those present were James Getty, Howard and Maceo Farrell, Earl Paulsen, Earl Jackson, Walter Anderson, Leon Woodson, Francis Parks, Theodore Williams, Edna Hickman, Helen and Inola Redd, Sidney Parks and Jessie Farrell.
