At the Tuesday Night Forum Mr. Silas Johnson's address on "Deeds and Not Words" was treated from a very interesting viewpoint. He cited many great events that had been accomplished by a single thought put into action. The audience very much appreciated the address, also the classic piano solo by Mrs. Clarence Singleton, the contralto solo by Miss Corine Thomas and the well rendered piano solo by Mrs. Thressa Mitchell, all of whom received applause. The literary digest was indeed a literary treat. The information given his hearers on topics of interest and importance on race and national questions was valuable and instructive.
