ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES

Rev. W. T. Osborne, Pastor.

St. John's A. M. E. Church was filled on Tuesday evening with people from every walk in life, paying honor to the sacred memories of Frederick Douglass and Abraham Lincoln. The principal addresses were made by Mr. Henry W. Black on Douglass, and Mr. S. L. Patton on Lincoln. Mr. Black filled his hearers with intense enthusiasm as he related facts of the life and works of Douglass. Mr. Patton delivered the best and most interesting address on Lincoln that has yet been listened to at St. John's. For twenty-five minutes he held his audience in complete silence, less they should lose one sentence of his splendid address. Rounds of applause were given the speakers as a demonstration of the appreciation and interest.

Mr. Daniel Desdunes, Sr., who knew Frederick Douglass, and the Rev. W. Osborne, also spoke of important facts in the history of the two great men's lives. The Missionary ladies had as honored guests, Mesdames H. C. Sumney and Burke.

Mrs. Hibbs proved herself an accomplished pianist. Mrs. Walter Brown, in her sweet solo, "There's a Rose in the World for You," and Mr. Thomas Perkins saxophone solo, "The Rosary," and the enchanting music rendered by St. John's Choir, under the direction of choir master J. C. Parker, were enthusiastically received by the large appreciative audience. The popular young people of St. John are in charge of the program Tuesday, February 20th.

Instrumental solos by the Misses Cordella Johnson and Ozelia Dunning.

Readings by Mrs. J. D. Lewis and Miss Rachel Henderson, vocal solos by the Misses Venus Cropp and Pearl Ray. The young people will also have as honored guests on program, Mrs. Hazel Turner, of Council Bluffs, a very sweet soprano soloist. Dinner at 7:30. Committee: Mesdames Anna Burton, Lulu Rountree, J. S. Turner, Mattie Jackson, Anna Banks, S. L. Bush. Refreshments: Mesdames Myrtle Moore, Ida Lindsey, Ida Baker, Alice Sheerwood, W. S. Metcalf.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Bush entertained at dinner on Saturday, Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Osborne.

Mrs. Evelyn Ray, who has been very sick at her home on North 40th street, is improving and hopes to be out soon.

Mother Ewing was called to Highland, Kas., Monday, by the death of her son, Walker Miller.

The Senior Aid will celebrate Washington's birthday, February 22.

The first report from the Missionary campaigns will be made at the Forum Tuesday evening, February 27, when 100 men and women will report not less than $1.00 each. A 31-piece breakfast set, beautiful silk waist and silk shirt will be given as prizes to the three persons reporting the largest amount over $1.00. A good concert under the management of Mrs. W. T. Osborne, will be the entertaining feature.
