Number of persons united with the church this quarter 15. With the Sunday school 18.

A large crowd was in attendance at the Tuesday Night Forum to hear the splendid program and the report made by the captains and their clubs. The ladies turned in over $157.00. The complete report and presentation of prizes will be given at the Forum Tuesday night, March 6th. The large audience enjoyed a splendid program, every number being exceptionally good. Dr. Pryor's address on "Unity" was interesting and full of good practical thought. Miss Mildred Bryant's piano solo was a real treat and very much enjoyed. Mrs. F. J. McCullough one of Omaha's brilliant young women who always pleases her hearers both in papers and recitations was at her best in the rendition of "The Fire." Misses Cordella Johnson and Birtie McRoy, two of St. John's popular misses in the musical circle, sweetly sang the duet, "Come Holy Spirit," and received rounds of applause which demanded an encore. Mrs. Fannie Russell, Omaha's favorite elocutionist of the older set, held the audience spell bound in her beautiful rendition of "The Polish Boy," and reached a pleasing climax in the encore, "I am sweet sixteen."

Mrs. W. C. Craig of Zion Baptist Church has arranged to give us a Zion Baptist Night at the Forum Tuesday evening, March 6th. Program instrumental solo, Miss Dorothy Craig.

Oration, Mrs. Anna Lee.

Vocal Solo, Miss Henrietta Steward.

Recitation, Master Wallace Thurmon.

Duet, Mesdames Lillian Perry and Ada Woodson.

Reading, Mrs. W. C. Craig.

Solo, Mrs. Mae Steward.

Closing remarks Rev. W. F. Bolls. Complete report from the clubs and presentation of prizes, Mrs. W. T. Osborne.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS.

Another month of much success and rejoicing has just closed in the history of the Mt. Moriah Baptist Church. It is true that in many instances, the weather has put in strong fights; nevertheless, the old ship has weathered it all. The spiritual tide was high, and additions two. There has been no loss by death or otherwise. Thank God for this.

We are sorry to report, that Rev. W. H. Young of Springfield, Mo., whose services were secured to take hold of our meetings, because of pressure of unavoidable cause, will not be here. Saturday night including; and beginning Sunday night, the pastor will preach every night, till Sunday the 11th. The public is cordially invited to come with the mind of Christ and help us. Sunday morning, will be the regular "old time Covenant;" don't miss it, and Communion at the close. Sunday night 4th, "Shipwreck;" Monday night 5th, "Heart Religion;" Tuesday night 6th, "Going Home;" Wednesday night 7th, "Preparation;" Thursday night 8th, "Leaving the world better than you found it;" Friday night 9th, "Sinking Peter;" Saturday night, 10th, "Run for your life;" Sunday morning 11th, "Sowing and Reaping;" Sunday night, "Feeding the sheep, lambs and goats."

A recent lecture given under the auspices of the trustees' board, met with grand success. Winner of first prize, Mrs. Sadie Simmons; second, Mrs. Crowder; Third, Mrs. H. Bid-dix. Money taken in for the month, $116.91. Mrs. W. D. Taylor entertained at dinner last Sunday, Pastor and wife, Mrs. A. Foreman and Mr. James Ware. The same was greatly enjoyed and well prepared.

CHURCH OF ST. PHILIP THE DEACON.

The Rev. Charles Carter Rollit, D. D., Secretary of the Northwest Province will speak at the five o'clock service Sunday.

The Rev. John Albert Williams preached in St. Luke's Church, Plattsmouth, Tuesday night to a large congregation and celebrated the Holy Communion at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, Wednesday being the birthday anniversary not only of Father Williams, but also of Father Leete, rector of St. Luke's, Plattsmouth.

Children's confirmation classes are held Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock and for adults, Sunday's at 6 o'clock.

The dinner given by Miss Paul, Mrs. J. C. Donley and Mrs. Joe Brown in the Guild Room, February 19, netted the neat sum of $40.00.

N. W. C. A. NOTES.

There was no meeting at the home last week owing to a bereavement in the family of the president and illness among the members.

Mrs. Pennie Harris one of the inmates of the home has been quite ill for the past few weeks.

Mrs. Irvin Gray the newly elected secretary is also on the sick list.

There will be a regular meeting at the home Wednesday, March 7th. The public is invited.
