

South Side Notes

(Mrs. Lulu Thornton, Correspondent)

Miss Leona Gray was given a birthday party last Monday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gray, at 1211 Missouri avenue. There were forty young people present from both North and South Side. The evening was spent with music and games. The young people expressed themselves as having a delightful time and are always glad and anxious to be entertained at this home.

Mrs. Vivian is very sick at her home at 29th and R streets.

On Sunday, May 13, the Cecilian base ball team defeated the Bellevue team by a score of 29 to 15. The Cecilian team was just organized this spring. They will play again Sunday with the same team May 20 at Bellevue.

Little Amy Fisher, who has been seriously ill for about two months, is thought to be a little better.

The third Quarterly meeting for Allen Chapel A. M. E. Church will be held Sunday, May 20. The Rev. J. C. C. Owens will be present and have charge of the services at 3:10 o'clock. Everybody invited to be present.

Mrs. Goney Wiggins, who has been sick, is much better.

The revival at the Bethel Baptist Church is still in progress. Four have already been added to the Church and we hope to see many more coming into the fold.

The Women's Clelens Club met Friday, May 18, at the home of Mrs. Geo. Ashby, at 2111 Poppleton avenue. They, with other clubs, entertained Mrs. Jennie Sellers, the State Organizer of the State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs. Mrs. Sellers wanted to meet the ladies of the Club and talk with them. A short program was rendered among them an instrumental solo from Mrs. Hibbs and a recital from Mrs. Fanny Russell. Mrs. Sellers hopes to meet all the clubs while in our city.

The A. M. Herold Temple No. 2 and Golden Rule Tabernacle No. 35 will give a grand joint public installation Saturday evening, May 19 at A. O. U. W. Temple, at 25th and M streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Lot Pegram, of 2627 Y street, gave a very pleasant surprise party Tuesday eve for her cousin Miss Nora Kelley, who is visiting them from St. Paul, Minn. Prior to the arrival of the guest Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Thornton took Miss Kelley for an automobile drive out to Ralston.

Mrs. Sarah Severe, of 4422 South 26th street, entertained Mrs. Jennie Sellers, State Organizer of Lincoln, Nebraska, during her stay in Omaha.

Mrs. Eva Gray, who has been sick nearly all winter, is somewhat better.

The Bethel Baptist Circle met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Nettie Andrews, 2412 P street. It was entertained by Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. Hibbs.

The Allen Chapel Aid Society met at the Church Friday, May 18, and was entertained by Mrs. J. D. Thornton. The Aid decided in its last meeting to meet at the church while the ladies are sewing and working, preparing for their spring bazaar.

Come out one and all, encourage our local young people and do your part for the Old Folks' Home.—Adv.

When you need a good clean shave, see P. H. Jenkins, 1813 Dodge street.—Adv.

NEGROES DENIED WORK IN CHARLESTON NAVY YARD

The announcement from officials in charge of the clothing factory at the Charleston navy yard that only white women would be employed as operators, in spite of the insistent demand of Colored women in the last two days that they be employed, was published in the daily papers in this city, and has met with instant protest from the Negroes of the community. The statement, made recently by representatives of the Negroes, was that demands had been made on the recorder of the labor board at the navy yard for application blanks for employment, and at the postoffice and the office of the director of labor in the custom house, but that the response has been that no Negroes would be employed at the clothing factory. The reasons given, it was said, were those advanced already by officials at the yard, that there could be no mingling of the races, and there was no provision for segregation.—The Charleston American.
