

PRESS ON MIGRATION

Atlanta (Ga.) Post.

What means this emigration of Negroes to the North if not a special punishment on this section of our country? Is this God's wrath and punishment on a wicked nation? How will the ten million Negroes act when the conflict is really on?

Charleston (S. C.) Reporter.

The South may not realize it now but the day will come when it will be awakened to a realization of the fact that might never makes right, and that by its harsh and inhuman treatment of the Negro it has, by forcing him to go elsewhere, killed the goose that laid the golden egg.

Atlanta (Ga.) Independent.

There can be no doubt that the great congestion in the South has made labor cheap. It is in accordance with the great law of supply and demand. Where labor is abundant the price for it will be cheap, and this has always been so and always will be. The Independent agrees with Mr. De Berry that the Negro people should not migrate in a desultory manner. He should know where he is going and for what.

Timmonsville (S. C.) Watchman and Reporter.

The migration of Colored people to the North still continues. We certainly regret much to see them leave here, but if the proper treatment will not be accorded them here, if they are to continue to bear such burdens as they are made to bear, then we can not blame them for going. That Abbeville affair, while but little is being heard about it, yet it has fired the heart of self respecting Negroes in the State and if every self-respecting Negro has not as yet left Abbeville County, they ought to make ready and get away at the earliest possible moment.

The New York Age.

The drifting of this country into a state of war, following fast upon the inauguration of the migration movement from the South, seems destined to play an important part in the evolution of the Negro in this country. Migration has opened the eyes of the dominant race in the South to the righteous dissatisfaction existing among the Negroes with present conditions and the necessity for some change for the better.

WESTERN BEAUTIES IN
Lincoln Masterpiece.

Los Angeles, Calif., May 24.—(Special to The Monitor).—Judging from the many beautiful girls used in the new Lincoln photoplay, "Law of Nature," this, the third release of the Lincoln Motion Picture Co., Inc., will undoubtedly be a great favorite with those who admire feminine beauty.

In Miss Albertine Pickens, with her wonderful eyes, beautiful auburn hair and charming ways, the Lincoln Company has developed a new and popular star to play opposite Noble M. Johnson in this greatest of Race photoplays; and surrounded by a bevy of charming girls, one of whom is the winsome Miss of the May Crisis cover, Miss Anita Thompson. Her wonderful work in the western scenes, cabaret and cafe scenes, ball room scenes and dramatic situations, prove in a pleasing way her charming versatility.

ADVICE TO PERSONS
LEAVING THE SOUTH

Don't leave on rumors. Be sure you will find a job when reaching your destination.

Pay no money to strange labor agents for jobs and tickets. Deal only through reliable firms.

Ask every agent if he is willing to have you investigate his claims.

Married men should leave first and send for their families after they have found suitable quarters for them.

The cost of living is high in the North, but not quite as high as in the South. Clothing is much cheaper.

Find if labor agents will look out for men after they arrive. The Monitor will help you find room, reasonable board, and be at your service whenever you need any help that it can give.

Be careful of crowding into the larger cities. Many of these are already over-populated. Too much labor in one place is always worse than not enough.

Subscribe for The Monitor today and keep in touch with the labor conditions all over the country.
