ADVICE TO PERSONS LEAVING THE SOUTH

Don't leave on rumors. Be sure you will find a job when reaching your destination.

Pay no money to strange labor agents for jobs and tickets. Deal only through reliable firms.

Ask every agent if he is willing to have you investigate his claims.

Married men should leave first and send for their families after they have found suitable quarters for them.

The cost of living is high in the North, but not quite as high as in the South. Clothing is much cheaper.

Find if labor agents will look out for men after they arrive. The Monitor will help you find room, reasonable board, and be at your service whenever you need any help that it can give.

Be careful of crowding into the larger cities. Many of these are already over-populated. Too much labor in one place is always worse than not enough.

Subscribe for The Monitor today and keep in touch with the labor conditions all over the country.
