PARKER-CROPP NUPTIALS

On Wednesday evening at eight o'clock, one of the largest and prettiest weddings of the season, the marriage of Miss Venus Beatrice Cropp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Cropp, to Mr. Laurence Albert Parker, took place at St. John's A. M. E. church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. T. Osborne. The bride was dressed in a beautiful georgette crepe over white messaline, trimmed with pearls. The bridal attendants wore white gowns and carried various shades of pink roses. The groom, best man and ushers wore the conventional full dress. The church was decorated in white against a background of ferns and palms.

A reception at the home of Mrs. A. W. Parker followed the wedding. The house was decorated with ferns, palms, smilax and pink peonies. The wedding march was played by Miss Otis Watson, pianist, Miss Ruth Seay, violinist, and Mr. Theodore Adams, saxophonist. Miss Minnie Wright sang a solo, "O Promise Me," just before the procession. Mr. Lloyd Marshall, of Gallatin, Mo., acted as best man, Miss Alice Dobson, of Okalona, Miss., as maid of honor, and Mrs. Wilmoth Harrold as matron of honor. The ushers and bridal attendants were: Charles Hill, Richard Harris, Hubert Glover, Ralph Jones, Clarence Gordon, Henry Webster, Corinne Thomas, Madeline Roberts, Pearl Ray, Ozelia Dunning, Bertha McRoy, Cordella Johnson; flower girls, Miss Helen Stevenson, Miss Elaine Smith; rign bearer, Master Billie Peebles.

The bride and groom were served from two plates which were used to serve the groom's great grandfather and great grandmother at their wedding sixty-two years ago. Six hundred guests attended the function.

Many handsome presents were received, the groom's present to the bride being a beautiful six-piece American walnut bedroom suite.

NEWS OF MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

The month of June has been in every way encouraging in regard to our church activities. We are glad to report that eight new members have been added to the list, and that church attendance has somewhat made the mark. Money taken in during the month from all sources $133.04. The Sunday School has been doing its part of the work very nicely. Through the auspices of Mrs. M. H. Wilkinson and Mrs. L. Lewis the Sunday School has raised $40.00 to help meet the demand of the S. S. Convention, in Davenport, Iowa, to which the pastor and Brother H. L. Anderson were delegates. This amount from the Sunday School is not included in church's finance. Brother Anderson made a splendid report of the convention last Sunday night.

Next Sunday will be covenant in the morning, hand of fellowship to those entitled to the same, and Communion. At night, preaching by the pastor, "The Stick-to-itiveness of Christs to the Individual."

Miss Ella Watson was married Monday night to Mr. Geo. Smith by Rev. Mr. Wilkinson, at 2534 Hamilton St. Those present, Mrs. M. H. Wilkinson, Mrs. A. L. Foreman, Mrs. M. E. Bosby, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Hoard, Mr. Nelson, Misses Geo. Gosby and Nelson. Those present sat down to table and enjoyed a bountiful refreshment.

Repainting of the church will start in a short time.
