Sergeant Frank Mason, Tenth cavalry, U. S. A., who has spent ten years in his country's service and who was in several skirmishes in Mexico, is in Omaha on a furlough. Sergeant Mason claims some ability as a writer and contributes the following sketch and poem to The Monitor, having written it in memory of a comrade whose life was lost in Mexico:

CONSIDERED HIS SOUL LOST
Strange are the humors of the dying. Today a young United States soldier, badly wounded, was lying in his cot. Little hope for him. He came of a good family, was brought up by pious parents. The doctor, nurse and I stood watching by his cot. The boy was restless and it was not the restlessness of pain alone. He muttered to himself, "I have missed it—missed it at the last."

"What?" asked the doctor.
"Missed—missed—missed!"
"But what?"
"Doctor," the boy spoke solemnly and wide-eyed, "I have missed the salvation of my soul."

"Oh, no," the doctor and I spoke together. "Do you remember the thief on the cross?"
"Yes, but the thief never said to the Holy Ghost, go your way, but I did. And now he is saying to me, 'Go your way.'"

He lay a while, looking up with staring eyes. "A little time ago," he said, "I was anxious, but I did not want to be saved then. I am young. I wanted to live my life as other young men. I heeded not my mother or my father. I did not trouble then about my soul. There was something then that seemed to say to me, 'Don't put it off; ah, don't postpone it.' But no, no, no. Later I would take up the subject at a more convenient time. And now it is too late and I have missed."

I told him there were some who came at the eleventh hour. "My eleventh hour," he answered gravely, "came when my conscious awoke. I let it pass."

There was infinite despair and loneliness in the poor voice. We knelt and prayed for him. That night he died. Taps!

The darkness falls and clouds hang low,
Goodbye, old pal, goodbye;
The Reaper reaped, nor stopped to sow,
Goodbye, old pal, goodbye.

A pall of gloom now hovers o'er,
Goodbye, old pal, goodbye;
A host of hearts are sad and sore,
Goodbye, old pal, goodbye.

You've journeyed down the Long,
Long Lane,
Goodbye, old pal, goodbye;
All eyes are filled and blurred with pain,
Goodbye, old pal, goodbye.

Thy soul hath flown to realms above,
Goodbye, old pal, goodbye;
Rest in arms of wondrous love,
Goodbye, old pal, goodbye!

WHEELER-TIPPS WEDDING

Thursday evening Miss Geraldine Tipps, daughter of Mrs. G. W. Mack, and Mr. George C. Wheeler were married at the home of the bride's mother. Rev. W. T. Osborne performed the ceremony. Miss Martha Hodges of Memphis, Tenn., was the bridesmaid and Mr. J. C. Clark of Kansas City was best man. The ring was carried in a white rose by little Dorothy Wright. The bride wore white silk net trimmed in crystal lace and pearls, and carried a bouquet of white bride's roses and swansonia. The bridesmaid was in shadow lace and carried pink carnations. Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Miss Irene Cochran.

A reception followed the ceremony. The house was beautifully decorated and the bride received many useful gifts. The out-of-town guests were the mother, sister and sister-in-law of the groom, and Mrs. Hodges and daughter.

On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wheeler, 2702 Erskine street, entertained the wedding party at a 6 o'clock dinner. The table was decorated with white sweet peas and pink bride's roses. The pink and white color scheme was carried out throughout the entire courses.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mack, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Thomas, Mrs. A. Wilkerson, Miss Geraldine Tipp, Miss Martha Hodges, Mr. G. C. Wheeler, Mr. J. W. Clark.

The Farmers Oil & Gas Co.

A Home Company
612-613 Paxton Block, Omaha, Neb.

To Protect the People

The State of Nebraska has permitted the FARMERS OIL & GAS COMPANY to sell NOT SO MANY SHARES OF STOCK, which are merely so many pieces of paper promising profits if there are profits, but SO MANY LOTS OF LAND, at TEN DOLLARS A LOT, to which title and deed is granted upon payment of price, the company reserves the right of drilling for oil, and in case of oil production, to divide that production proportionately among all LOT-OWNERS.

The Farmers Oil and Gas Company owns 160 acres of land in Pittsburg County, Oklahoma. It also owns Lease on 40 acres in Butler County, Kansas, and lease on 600 acres in Wilson County, Kansas. There are large producing Oil and Gas Wells close to our holdings. 800 acres, all in the great Mid-Continent Oil fields. Our plan is to sell these lots, out of this 160 acres which is blocked into lots 400 square feet each, giving a Warranty Deed and an absolute Title forever to the purchaser of any lot or lots of which the deed participates in all wells drilled by the said Farmers Oil and Gas Company, on any of their lands or leases. Our holdings are in the heart of rich production.

Positively never since the beginning of the present greatness of the Kansas Oil Field has the public ever been offered an opportunity like this. The Company cannot undertake to do drilling unassisted by outside capital, and we will not ask people to invest their cash in stock certificates only. Instead we will give each investor an actual deed to a piece of the land. The Company will drill (10) ten or more wells with the money received from sale of lots and every lot owner will share in the profits from the wells pro rata.

BUY THESE LOTS NOW AT $10 PER LOT, AS THE PRICE WILL BE ADVANCED IN A SHORT TIME TO $20 OR MORE.
