Little Ruth Adams is spending this week in the country, south of Ralston.

The Bethel Baptist Mission Circle met last Thursday with Miss Thomas, Thirty-second and U streets.

DEATH OF ALBERT N. WADE

After an illness of six months, Albert N. Wade, one of Omaha's oldest and most highly respected citizens, died at his late residence, 2501 Patrick avenue, late Tuesday night. Mr. Wade was a native of Philadelphia. For a number of years he worked at his trade, that of barbering, in Cleveland, Ohio, among his patrons being Mark Hanna and other distinguished men of that city. About thirty years ago he came to Omaha where he followed his trade until four years ago when he gave it up for employment at the Court House. Among his customers and friends were many of Omaha's most prominent citizens. A true gentleman always, he had the faculty of making friends. He was one of the oldest and most devoted members of the Church of St. Philip the Deacon, from which he was buried Friday afternoon, interment being in Forest Lawn, the Rev. John Albert Williams officiating. The Western Undertaking Company had charge of the funeral. Mr. Wade is survived by his widow.

PAXTON BOYS WIN OUT

About ten days ago the Colored waiters at the Paxton hotel came to work at noon and found that white waitresses had taken their places. The boys took the affair as a matter of course, having expected it for some time, but what nettled them was that the girls were paid more, given board and a nice dressing room on the first floor. But the girls didn't last long. The guests issued an ultimatum that if the Colored boys didn't come back they would leave. The manager called the boys to make noon the next day, but he found the boys were not so anxious to work as he thought. Their answer was that they would be at the hotel at 3 o'clock and talk over terms, and they made their own terms. They demanded $35 per month, board, a remodeled dressing room, increased pay for captains and the hiring back of their own headwaiter, George Watson. The only reason the boys didn't ask anything more was that they couldn't think of anything more. The chances are that the Paxton will not try to "hand" the Colored boys anything soon again.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

The usual interest has been manifested during July. We have had addition and subtraction, one sent away by letter and several added. Last Sunday night a special sermon was preached by the pastor with a view of bringing the people's minds to the support of the Negro Civic Industrial League, and a mass meeting, which is in the air. Mrs. G. G. Hill has reported favorable success on her lawn social last Saturday night. Church and Sunday school picnic on Thursday at Elmwood park. Amount taken during the month, $126.17. All bills have been paid. The church has undergone repair work in carpentry and two coats of painting, which makes it look practically new. There are no bills due on same; cash to the amount of $115.48 covered the situation as soon as the work was completed; this figure includes workmanship and buying materials.

Next Sunday (the 5th) will be covenant in the morning, fellowship and communion at night, preceded by a short sermon, subject "Divine Possession."

On the 10th inst. the Sunshine Missionary Circle will give an entertainment entitled, "Scenes in Mission Fields," under the management of Mesdames M. H. Wilkinson and L. Lewis; Mrs. A. L. Foreman, vice president.

Don't forget the 28th of August, when Prof. King, from Leavenworth, Kan., will present a glass blowing exhibition in said church, at which time local talent will assist on a well prepared program. Mrs. S. Simmons, manager.
