

South Side Notes

Mrs. Sara Mitchell of La Junta, Col., who has been here visiting her brother-in-law and family, left last Thursday for her home. Enroute home she will visit relatives and friends in Oklahoma.

Master Tommy Dooley of 4429 So. 26th street, who went to St. Joseph's hospital about three weeks ago for appendicitis, is slowly improving but is unable to leave the hospital yet.

Mrs. Anna Dederick, of 4512 J street, gave a stag party for Mr. J. Nuttingham of New York City at her home. Refreshments were served and covers laid for twelve. Those present were Messrs. J. Nuttingham, Gray, James Graves, John Holmes, Wm. Mallard, C. Riddles, J. D. Thornton, M. Thurman, S. Washington, P. White, R. L. Woodard.

Presiding Elder J. C. C. Owens held his fourth and last quarterly meeting last Sunday at Allen Chapel A. M. E. church. Rev. Mr. Owens has been a presiding elder for five successive years. Now he must leave which we regret very much. The Sunday School gave him a Bible dictionary as an appreciation of his efficient labor while with us. We were glad to make a full report.

Mrs. Pearl Combs, who was burned seriously two weeks ago, is slowly recovering although she is still unable to feed herself.

The Cecilian base ball team gave a four-course dinner party last Saturday night at the home of the president, Mr. Frank Gray, 1211 Missouri avenue. Covers were laid for forty. Three tables were beautifully decorated, one in the front parlor, one in the back parlor and one in the dining room. The ball team's colors were used in the decorations.

Mr. J. D. Thornton and a party of his friends motored to Lincoln Sunday in his machine.

The Mission Circle of Bethel Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Estella Andrews, 32nd and U streets, Thursday afternoon. The Circle is working hard to be ready with their assessment for the rally.

The Fred Douglass Literary Society meets next Tuesday night at Bethel Baptist church. The subject for discussion, "Resolved, That slavery was a blessing rather than a curse to the Negro." We expect this discussion to be very interesting. Messrs. Bowers and Mahome, late from the Nashville schools, will have the affirmative, Messrs. V. Davis and G. Long the negative. There will also be a musical number from Miss Fay Widby and a paper by Miss C. Jones.

Mrs. Nora Gray, Mr. and Mrs. R. Severe, Mr. and Mrs. G. Ashby, state officers of the Nebraska state federation of Colored women's clubs, went to Lincoln Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Bedell and her daughter, Miss Zola, which was held at A. M. E. church.

The entertainment held at the home of Mrs. Roxey Williams Wednesday night for one of the clubs of Bethel Baptist church was a success, for which she thanks her many friends.

A sunny path winds past my door, 'Tis brightened either side By flowers of peace and happiness. And nooks where songsters hide.

I planned the sunshine path myself, Its borders and its bowers; I planted little seeds of love, And God sent me the flowers.

IN MEMORIAM

"I presume you carry a memento of some kind in that locket you wear?" the inquisitive wife of the clergyman asked a parishioner.

"Yes. It's a lock of my husband's hair." "But your husband is still alive!" the lady exclaimed in considerable surprise.

"Yes, that is true, but his hair is gone." Powell Bros. Investment Co., Sheridan, Wyo., July 6, 1917. Rev. John Albert Williams, Editor The Monitor: Enclosed find money order for $1.50, subscription for The Monitor for one year. Yours truly, C. J. POWELL.

One of the saddest occasions in the history of Lincoln was that of Sunday last, when funeral services for Mrs. Anna Bedell and her fourteen year old daughter Zola were held at the A. M. E. Church. The mother who succumbed to cancer and the little girl a victim of tuberculosis, died within an hour of each other, Zola dying at 6:30 Thursday afternoon and Mrs. Bedell just fifty minutes later. Having lived in Lincoln for years, both were universally loved and respected and their absence will be felt for many days, not only in the home left so vacant and desolate but in the entire community. The heartfelt sympathy of all, even the most slight acquaintances, is extended to the bereaved relatives.

The good people of Lincoln can economize on their cleaning and pressing by calling L 5141.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lawton returned last week from Clay Center, Kansas, where they spent part of the summer visiting Mr. Lawton's relatives.

The Union Sunday School picnic given at Antelope Park last Thursday afternoon was a great success.

The day was perfect and the 125 scholars present more than enjoyed the games, swings and the lunch. Over six gallons of ice cream was provided gratis. The superintendents of the two Sunday Schools, Mesdames Shelby and Moore, were very much gratified over the appreciation shown by the young people.

Buy your clothes with care, get what you want, not what someone has to offer. Get your choice of 20,000 suits—we show 500 fabrics that can be made into forty different styles. Some Variety. W. B. Young & Co.

Gideon Band met at the Baptist Church Thursday evening. After the business meeting a very pleasant social hour was spent.

Miss Marian Hemphill of Denver is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Lester Holmes.

Rev. Riley Bell preached both Sunday morning and evening to fair sized audiences at the Baptist Church. Rev. Hilman is expected home from Chillicothe, Mo., sometime during the week.

The Senior Stewardess Board of the A. M. E. Church met Monday afternoon with its president, Mrs. O. J. Burckhardt.

Miss Manila Jewett, after two months vacation spent in St. Paul, Minn., has returned to continue her studies at the High School.

Mrs. Gertrude Ashby, Miss Oletha Russell and Mr. Ferry, of Omaha, were in the city Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. and Miss Bedell.

Mr. Major Moore, state house custodian, has thoroughly enjoyed a ten days' vacation, spent at home.

The L. L. S. Kensington gave a picnic party in honor of Mrs. Lulu Jones and Mrs. Isabelle Johnson at Antelope Park Friday afternoon. All enjoyed the lovely afternoon, the guests of honor professing themselves greatly pleased to meet old friends again.

The Optimistic Set will meet Thursday at Capital Beach.

Mrs. Laura Johnson and her daughter, Mrs. Jones and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Fred Johnson, left Sunday for a few days in Denver, Colo. They will return the first of next week.

LABOR NOTES

The labor market is quieting down towards the approach of fall. Packing houses are reducing their output in hogs and many men are not making full time. Construction work will keep up until November at which time many men will be out. Many companies are holding back to see what effect the draft will have upon their working forces. The demand for labor, however, is just as insistent and will continue for several years to come. Next spring will be a banner year for our people.

A local tobacco factory is considering putting in Colored girls as tobacco strippers.

The Orpheum theatre employed eight Colored girls this week as ushers.

The sausage factory of the Cudahy plant which will hire about thirty Colored women has not yet been completed.

The Minnesota steel Mills reports full working crews and a future prospect of many men as soon as housing conditions can be completed.

Ten laborers arrived in Omaha this week from Florida. They will be employed at the smelters.

The Navy Yard at Pensacola closed down on the 26th of August and the Navy Yard at Charleston, it is rumored has called for 3,000 men.
