The Allen chapel, A. M. E. Church Aid, will hold a bazaar, beginning September 19 to 22, inclusive. The ladies hope to make this a success, as it is their effort to help the pastor with his conference claims. Each evening during the bazaar they will have on sale many useful articles, as well as all the delicacies of the season. On September 19, the opening night, we will have our opening address. On September 20 there will be held a feast in the wilderness. On Friday, September 21, the young people of the church will give a program. On Saturday, September 22, the men of the church will give a comic drama. Every one is invited to come out and spend at least one evening with them. Rev. Mr. Wilson asks those who have not given their dollar to please give it by September 23.

LABOR NOTES

The packing house strike at South Omaha which threw more than 500 Colored men out of work, has been settled. The packing companies asked them to return and remain at the plant until the matter should be adjusted, but many of them feared that such an act would result in trouble.

Out of ten men brought from the south last week to work at the Smelters, three absolutely refused to go to work. The result is that the company will not send for any more men this year.

The Monitor has brought more than 500 men from the South this year and intends to set the mark at 5,000 for the next season.

The time of the year is coming when it will be wise for our people in the south to remain there until next spring. Chilly weather is setting in and unless acclimated to it, there would likely be a great deal of discomfort and sickness among a large number of persons coming north.

Out of sixty men placed at one plant by The Monitor, nineteen have broken their promises to repay the company their transportation. They are making it very hard for the thousands of others who are in the south and want to leave, but they seem to be the class of shiftless Negroes who do not care.

Henry Owens, of Florida, who has suffered about two years from a gunshot wound in the leg, was sent to the hospital by the American Smelting and Refining Company. He is now fully recovered and able to work. The operation cost him nothing.

See Hawaiian dancers at Mecca hall next Wednesday night, under management of Mrs. Lizzie Buford. Everybody's going and you cannot afford to miss it. Desdune's full orchestra.—Adv.
