ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES

Sunday is the closing of Rev. W. T. Osborne's administration at St. John. He will preach his final sermon Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Sunday evening special program and reports from every department of the Church showing what has been paid, what is yet due, and the amounts Rev. Osborne is leaving in every treasury. Members and friends are urged to be present at these services.

The most elaborate affair of the season was the banquet given at St. John's Tuesday evening by the Willing Workers Club, with Rev. and Mrs. Osborne and the husbands of the members of the Club as honored guests. The brilliant lights in the lecture room of the church displayed a large table beautifully decorated with cut flowers and ferns, with covers for twenty-five. Mrs. Edward King, president of the Club, was toastmistress. Timely addresses were made by ex-presidents Madams F. J. McCullough and J. N. Thomas, also by Rev. and Mrs. Osborne. Mrs. B. Ford gave a beautiful poem on "Contentment."

The entertainment committee, Mesdames J. E. Davis, A. Rafferty, B. Napier, W. Stevens, E. Morris, M. Reeves, E. L. Jackson and H. Lewis, spared no pains in making the affair a grand success from every viewpoint. Mrs. W. J. Payne, of St. Louis, and Miss Ethel Hughes were among the invited guests. The menu was very elaborate. The W. W. Club presented Rev. Mr. Osborne a fine hat. He also presented each member of the club a souvenir dish. The club was organized by Elder Osborne and has held its own throughout his administration and is the only club of the Church that has given aid to every department of the Church.

The Union meeting at St. John's on Friday evening was a great spiritual uplift, though mingled with sadness in the fact that Rev. and Mrs. Osborne are to soon leave Omaha, yet the addresses by Dr. Logan, Mr. Hibbler, Mr. Bradley, Rev. W. A. Metcalf and Mrs. F. J. McCullough were full of interest and words of commendation on the great work accomplished for the Church and community at large by Rev. and Mrs. Osborne.

On Sunday night the waiters' association did credit to themselves in the most splendid addresses, music and contribution. Mr. Jordan, president, in his address, told the object of the association, and in pointing out the great good being done made many friends for the association. Head-waiter, Mr. Clark, one of Omaha's brilliant young men, gave a strong talk on the issues of the day in connection with his work and carried his audience with the earnest enthusiasm he displayed in his delivery. Mr. James Hill, tenor, proved a trained artist in his rendition. Rev. W. S. Metcalf, master of ceremonies, also gave an interesting talk and sanctioned head waiter Clark, who said, not only St. John's, but the public at large would feel the loss of Rev. and Mrs. Osborne.

Everything strictly clean, sanitary and up-to-the-minute. Have your wife come down and your child and enjoy a quiet stay while you are being shaved. Omaha's Most Successful Barber, P. H. JENKINS. 1313 Dodge St. —Adv.

The topic for that evening will be the West Indies. Mr. Theophilus Cameron, who is a native of the Islands, will give the opening talk, and the members are to read up and be in a position to discuss the subject. The club has a membership of twenty.

OMAHA BOY DIES AT ALGIERS

David Allen has received a letter from A. C. Frost, American Consul at Algiers, Algeria, advising him of the death of his youngest son, Raymond Allen, who died in the hospital there August 6, as a result of an accident while in swimming. Evidently in diving young Allen struck his head, for the advice read from shock on head while in swimming. Raymond was born in Omaha, but a few months ago he went to Baltimore, where he took a berth on a vessel. This accounts for his presence in Algeria. He was 18 years old.
