Growing, Thank You!

THE MONITOR

A National Weekly Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of Colored Americans

THE REV. JOHN ALBERT WILLIAMS, Editor

OMAHA, NEBRASKA, NOVMEBER 3, 1917

$1.50 a Year. 5c a Copy

Spring Surprise on Secretary McAdoo

The Mosaic Templars of America, Negro Fraternal Order, Purchase Liberty Bonds.

Secretary of Treasury Deeply Touched by Evidence of Patriotism Given by Race.

Little Rock, Ark .-- On Monday afternoon, October 22, when Hon. W. G. disposition, had scores of friends, was McAdoo, Secretary of the U.S. Treasury, appeared at the Palace Theatre death is sincerely mourned by all who to deliver an address on the purchas- knew him. His parents, wife and ing of Liberty Bonds, he met with a very pleasing and welcome surprise sisting of high officials of the Mosaic Houston Hurrahs from a delegation of Negroes, con-Templars of America who were seated on the platform, when the delegation presented the Secretary with a check for $50,000 as a subscription to Lib- Chicago's Famous Eighth Regiment in erty Bonds for the organization. The committee consisted of Messrs. A. E. Bush, chairman, who is secretarytreasurer of the Monument Depart- COL. DENNISON IN COMMAND hang around here until that train Mr. Pryor sprang a surprise in havment: S. J. Elliott, National Grand Master; C. E. Bush, National Grand Scribe and Treasurer; S. A. Jones, Attorney-General, and J. H. McConico, National Auditor.

This organization is a purely Negro order-was founded in the city of Little Rock, Ark., in May, 1882, by iday has been granted at the army J. E. Bush and C. W. Keatts. It has a membership of more than sixty thou- to do something to stimulate interest sand, owns its own home building in in the purchase of bonds and thereby Little Rock, Ark., which is valued at bring victory nearer for Uncle Sam more than sixty thousand dollars, and has total assets to the amount of more than $200,000.00.

Secretary McAdoo arose to speak and then something happened.

A committee of five leaders of the Negro race were on the stage, and remarks, presented the distinguished visitor with a check for $50,000, the far below the leaders. The per capita contribution of the Mosaic Templars of America, with headquarters in Little Rock, to the Liberty Loan campaign.

"And if you need $100,000.00 more. you'll get it, Mr. Secretary," Jones the Colored units are leading all othconcluded.

touched by this evidence of the pat- presence near the city of Houston is riotism of the Negroes of Little Rock, heard. The population, apparently, Turning to the committee, he said: is astounded by their patriotism. They "In the presence of this distinguished participated recently in something CHARLEY BIRD DROWNED Commercial Club Dines WHILE HUNTING Charley Bird, who was duck hunting with a party of friends, broke through the ice at Hyannis, Nebraska, Tuesday at noon, and was-drowned before assistance could reach him.

The body was brought home Thurs-PRESENT CHECK FOR $50,000.00 day. The funeral will be held from Grove Methodist Church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The other members of the hunting party were F. L. Barnett, William Jackson and nephew, and Otto Mason.

Charley, who, because of his genial thirty years old, and his untimely several relatives survive him.

Great Liberty Loan Parade Leads in Contributions.

By C. B. Rourke.

Camp Logan, Houston, Tex .--- Twendifferent ways are putting forth their right."

best efforts at Camp Logan today to boost the second liberty loan. A holpost and every soldier is being urged in his struggle to "get" the kaiser. As far as individual subscriptions are concerned, the 33d division boys have done themselves proud for Illinois. The total subscriptions at the start were $638,650, with Chicago's 8th regiment leading with $133,200. their spokesman, Scipio A. Jones, The 131st, formerly the "Dandy came forward and in a few chosen First," came next with $119,700. The others came up nobly, but with totals contribution to the loan at the camp is approximated at $32.

the

Chicago's Colored Men Lead.

It has been well advertised here that ers in Liberty Loan subscriptions and Secretary McAdoo seemed deeply no further criticism concerning their House fence.-Arkansas Gazette.

Omaha Gives Great Send-off to Men Drafted for National Army-Banqueted and Honored-Hundreds Cheer Them as They Entrain for Camp Funston.

"Say, but there is class to this! | melody arose from those splendid Omaha's certainly doing herself voices it was felt that every one had proud in the way she's sending off said his grace. her Colored boys. And they are going off with a pep and spirit which steward of this famous club, and his means business. It's simply great, able assistants had provided the fol-I'm going to tell the folks in my town lowing menu, to which the men did how Omaha does things." justice:

It was a Kansas City man who said this, as he listened to the band and for Race Soldiers saw the cheering crowds at the Union station last Saturday morning, as Duchess potatoes.

Omaha's fine body of Colored youth were leaving for Camp Funston.

The Kansas Cityian added: "I had business uptown, but I just had to ing for the individual ice cream busts pulled out. This kind of business warms a fellow's heart and makes his patriotism strong. Yes, sir, I must While the dinner

While the dinner was in progress ty thousand Illinois soldiers in 20,000 give it to you; Omaha does things a splendid program, prepared under the direction of Mr. Dan Desdunes This splendid send-off, which so and Mr. Will Lewis, was given. It pleased the Kansas Cityian, was but consisted of vocal solos by Miss Pearl culmination of events which Ray, Mr. Levi Broomfield and Mrs.

Assorted cake.

Olives.

Ellsworth W. Pryor, the famous

Cream of tomato.

Fried spring chicken.

Individual ice cream.

Cigars and cigarettes.

With his usual artistic ingenuity

Ripe olives.

Small coffee.

Corn fritters.

proves that Omaha does things. If James G. Jewell; a saxaphone solo this gentleman had known that only by Mrs. L. L. Gaines; a singing and the night before the magnificent din- dancing specialty by Mr. W. H. ing room of the Commercial Club, Perry, better known as "Mr. Jazz where only a few months ago Presi- Himself"; a number by the Capital dent Wilson was a guest, witnessed a Quartet; a piano solo by Mrs. Florgathering, unprecedented and un- entine F. Pinkston and selections by paralleled anywhere else in the the Desdunes - Adams orchestra. United States, he could have under- Every number was enthusiastically stood the spirit and enthusiasm of encored.

ON THE WAY TO WHIP THE KAISER

sent forth as they were with the bless- Finds Leavenworth ing of the city they would comport themselves with honor as Christian soldiers and gentlemen. the Colored Conscripts The "Star Spangled Banner," sung with patriotic fervor, closed this never-to-be-forgotten event at the Commercial Club.

Vol. III.

A reception followed at the beautiful Dreamland hall.

Early Saturday morning the men with many friends assembled at the court house. At 8 o'clock, headed by hundreds had preceded them. Here farewells were said. The men boardwith large American flags. Some one had chalked on each car above the "Goob-bye to the kaiser." While the Missouri Pacific train was being held band played patriotic airs. At nine o'clock the train pulled out while the band played "America" and the crowd cheered and waived good-bye. And so with mingled tears and fervent "Good-bye, boys, God bless you!" offering of her sons of color, loyalhearted, brave and true, to help win and save democracy for the world.

Reception and Dance

Friday, October 26, 1917, will long stand out in the memory of Omaha people as one of the saddest, and yet one of the most pleasant days of their received by all three of the gentlelives. Sad, because of the departure men. Mr. Botkin, secretary of state, of the first contingent of conscripted Negroes, and pleasant, because of the whole-souled and unstinted enthusi- liberal spirited and genial type of asm and good cheer given to the departing men.

Two events stand out as particularly worthy of mention on this day. One was the banquet given by the paper man, being the editor of the Commercial Club (which is described in another part of this issue), and ital. the other was the reception and dance given by Dr. Craig Morris, now Lieutenant Morris, of the Dental Reserve race representation there: Mr. John Corps, and his sister, Mrs. Grace Hut- Wright, deputy county treasurer; Mr. ten. This reception was given in honor C. C. Lytle, deputy marshal, and J. J.

of Mr. Elmer Morris, brother of the Holman, deputy sheriff. Left Sathost and hostess, the newly commis- urday morning for Manhattan, Camp

Interesting Town

Lifting

Lift, Too!

(Whole No. 122)

Atchison Also Attractive. Topeka Alert and Progressive. State Officials are Courteous.

IMPRESSED BY CAMP FUNSTON

To the Readers of The Monitor: Left Kansas City Monday the 22nd, the First Regimental Band, Dan Des- for Leavenworth on the interurban. dunes leader, and accompanied by Found it to be a very quiet, yet imfriends on foot and in automobiles, the posing little town; imposing because parade to the Union depot started. of the institutions surrounding it; Early as it was, hundreds applauded the great federal prison and fort at as they marched to the station, where Leavenworth which is now quite a lively place, the war college being established there, a detachment from ed two special cars each decorated the 9th and 19 cavalry is stationed there doing striker duty.

Leavenworth has a number of proflag the words: "To Berlin or Bust;" fessional and business men who were quite pleasant to meet and chat with. Stayed the day and night and on the for eastern connections, the splendid next morning I went to Atchison where the bad weather overtook me, causing a delay of two days in my schedule.

Atchison is a good field for a good newspaper, and I was fortunate in establishing an agency there in charge Omaha proudly sent forth her first of W. A. Covington, a very prominent race man and capable worker.

Arrived in Topeka 10:10 Thursday night and found lodging in a very comfortable rooming house on 3rd and Kansas Ave. Was out early the next morning shaking hands and getting acquainted and pushing the Mon-At Dreamland Hall itor, which met with some favor among the professional and business men. I also visited the capitol, interviewed the governor, secretary of state, and state auditor. Was well impressed me most, being of that large, agreeable, broad minded and westerner that we read about so much. Governor Capper, of course, is a very sedate and courteous gentleman, able executive and also a capable newsleading local daily, The Topeka Cap-

> Spent the afternoon in the county court house. Well pleased with the H. I. Monroe, deputy county clerk; company of American citizens I wish new in the life of this leading town to thank you and your association, of the south, Col. Franklin Dennison, and to tell you that I feel proud of with his regiment of 2,100 men, made the Colored men of America. They up a little more than one-third of a have in this practical manner given "Liberty Loan" parade which marched evidence of their patriotism and have through the streets of Houston. It proven that they are worthy of cit- was the first real parade held since izenship in this great republic. The all of the boys of the Illinois national Colored men are doing their part in guard came to Camp Logan and it is this great war. They are showing said to be the first time in the histheir loyalty to the country just as tory of this city that Colored men the white people are. The deserve paraded in its streets. the highest commendation for the The parade was led by Brig.-Gen. work they are doing and for the Henry R. Hill, commanding the 65th creditable part they are taking in this brigade, to which the 8th regiment is great fight for America's rights and attached. By order of Brig.-Gen. H. for Liberty throughout the world. I D. Todd, Jr., acting commandant of beg you to express to the members the division, the regiments moved in accordance to seniority of colonels. of your association my deep appreciation of their patriotic action in sub- This placed Col. Charles H. Green of scribing $50,000.00 of United States the 129th infantry, formerly the old Liberty Bonds. They have set an ex- third, at the head. Next came Col. ample which all patriotic citizens Denison leading the "Liberty Bond" eighth and here came one of the most would do well to emulate."

paradoxical scenes ever witnessed in The organization has a campaign on now with its membership whereby the south. each member is to contribute one day's income to a fund with which to look after the endowment of its members who are called to the colors and assist the Government in the prosecution of this great war. Mr. A. E. Bush, who is chairman, and S. A. Jones, who is campaign manager, together with the other members of the committee are putting forth every effort to raise $100,000 for this purpose. The campaign will close Thursday, November 27, 1917.

MAKES GOOD OMAHA 1

Harvey Saunde, an Omaha boy made good in Chicago. Mr. Saunders owns one of the finest and best equip- chasing "Liberty Bonds" by the uni-His pharmacy is located at 4750 State street and its front is conspicuous be- it could have been. cause of the beautiful blue and white signs on display. The cost alone of these was over two hundred dollars. our wives and children at home to Dr. Logan and the Rev. John Albert enhearten the men who had been call- that last dance at home. Mr. Saunders employs four clerks and help you; why not help us?"-Chicago Williams were also present, but seat- ed to the colors as nothing else could is doing an excellent, strictly legiti- Daily News, October 24.

mate business. It is his ambition to have the finest drug store in Chicago and from present conditions his dream may be rapidly realized.

the spirit of true democracy.

men who entrai

Friday night, October 26, the Col- "Comrades, my comrades, it is a honor.

lation of a single privilege.

Houston Pays High Tribute. High honors were paid to the Chicago Colored men if cheering may be marched to the places reserved for war. Your departure for the traincounted as such. Looking neither to them to the stirring music of the ing camp to be groomed into Amerithe left nor the right, but keeping Desdunes-Adams orchestra, which can soldiers means that you are going step to music of their celebrated band, had volunteered its services for the to defend the noblest principles known the Colored men convinced the people of Houston then and there that they large corps of waiters and other help your race at the battle of Nashville, were not trouble makers but soldiers. who provided for the wants of the we know that when the colors are en-Following the 8th came Lieut.-Col. guests. A temporary platform was trusted to you, you will be able to say, H. B. Clayton of the 130th regiment, erected in the center of the spacious "The old flag never touched the formerly the old 4th Illinois. The room, upon which the orchestra was ground." May God bless you." three units made up the parade, with seated and from which the excellent Lieutenant H. J. Pinkett gave a fitapproximately 6,000 men in line. It program was given.

was strictly a military affair. There, was not a civilian in line. The boys and a graduate of the Omaha High who did not march came with mega- other distinguished guests. Seated every conflict in the past, so now they School and Creighton Pharmacy, has phones and if there was anything left at this table were General John C. would do their part to drive autocracy unsaid about the importance of pur-Cowin, a veteran of the civil war and from the world. one of Nebraska's most eminent citied at other tables.

the pickets away from the White

ed for Funston | General John C. Cowin, a distin and the seething patriotism of the guished civil war veteran, was introhundreds who had come to wish them duced and stirred his sympathetic Godspeed. It is the Omaha spirit, audience to enthusiasm by his earnest words. He said in part:

ored men of Omaha, ninety in num- pleasure for me to be with you and ber, who had been chosen by the se- break bread with you tonight. I lective draft for the national army, asked for the privilege of being with with the commissioned officers from you for I know the worth of the Col-Des Moines, who were then in the ored soldier. In the days of the civil city; the Colored clergy and officials war we stood side by side. We ate of the exemption board, were the together; we fought together. Our special guests of the Commercial blood mingled on the battle field all Club at a banquet given in their one color, red blood, not a drop of yellow in it. You couldn't find a

Upon their arrival the men were streak of yellow in it with a telescope graciously met by Robert H. Manley, or a microscope. We were all comthe commissioner, and Mr. Ellis, the rades without distinction of race assistant commissioner of the club, or color. And so it should be today. and placed at their ease. The beauti- You are to be American soldiers, susfully appointed rooms, without re- taining the traditions of American striction, were placed at their dis- soldiers, and you are going to do it. posal and they were told to make I will place the conduct of the Colthemselves at home, which they did ored soldier beside that of the white without the slightest hint at the vio- soldier any day and it will not suffer by the comparison. You are going

At the appointed hour each detach- to help silence the slacker and pacifist. ment entered the .dining hall and Their breed will be extinct after this occasion. This is also true of the to man and like the gallant soldier of ting response to General Cowin, in served for the officers, clergy and had borne themselves valorously in All Blessings Flow," and as the massed to sustain them. He knew that our people in the city.

sioned officers from Camp Des Funston and Junction City. Moines, and the other drafted men From a military standpoint, Camp from Omaha. It was indeed a pretty Funston is one of the most impresclimax to the banquet given at the sive spots in America. As a man Commercial Club. The beautiful stands upon the station platform and Dreamland Hall with its polished floor watches train load after train load of and exquisite decorations, was an ideal young men in the prime of early manbackground for the charming fem- hood unload from numerous incoming ininity and stalwart manhood as- trains and watches them as they in sembled there. The sturdy khaki uni- their different ways cross the staforms of the officers were in distinct tion platform and crowd toward the contrast to the dainty costumes of the entrance gate, some with boistrous, ladies, yet neither one cast its shadow noisy manner, some in a slow moving upon the other, but each served to regretful way, you wonder just what moderate the other, so that both be- each one's thoughts are; but the mocame as parts of an harmonious whole. ment they arrive in the vicinity of During the festivities, the conscript- the gate and that commanding voice ed men were addressed by Mr. Howard rings out, "halt," you can see each H. Baldridge, a prominent attorney one straighten and you can recognize and chairman of the Commercial Club that they are all thinking of the same committee on military affairs, and thing: the beginning of their life as Adjutant General Clapp, both of whom a soldier in the service of their counwere unfortunately detained from at- troy. As they are ordered to advance tending the banquet at the Commercial to the office, there to be received in Club. Mr. Baldridge gave the men due form, the boistrousness is gone. a most encouraging talk and in the the loud talking is gone, the careless name of the business men of Omaha, manner of walk and speech is gone bade them God-speed and good luck. and also the slow, regretful step and Adjutant General Clapp extended a look has disappeared, and only that most sincere and hearty welcome to bright, intensified gaze that comes to Uncle Sam's most dependable allies the eyes of the true patriot is apparent: and then you realize how easy -the drafted Negroes.

Music was furnished by Green's or- it is for Uncle Sam to raise an army chestra, and during intermission the of either one million or ten million Capitol Quartette rendered several ex- men.

I find it is time to leave. The cellent vocal numbers. The three hundred guests present train is going back to Topeka. No acwere lavish in their praises of the commodations at Junction City, they capable management of the details of are overcrowded already, so back to the reception. Truly, too many con- Topeka I come, failing to be able to gratulations could not be given Dr. wait and welcome the boys from my Opposite this there was a table re- which he said that as Colored soldiers Morris and his sister, for their home town.

thoughtfulness and generosity in un- I spent Sunday in Topeka, attending dertaking, at their own expense, to church services in the morning and entertain their brother and all other as the guest of the civic forum in men who were called to the colors. the afternoon, a body of representa-The Rev. John Albert Williams was The happiness of that evening will al- tive race men of Topeka who are doped drug stores on the south side. formed men on the side lines, the zens; Captain Thomas Rucker; Lieu- the last speaker. He complimented ways be a source of pleasure when ing a great thing in that city. Made people of Houston are wondering what tenants Barrows, Pinkett, Peebles, the Commercial Club on the patriotic these men sit around the camp-fire my headquarters at the office of the Madison, Turner and Bundrant, and and democratic stand it had taken in and dream of the days "back home," Topeka Plaindealer and was cordially "We have bought Liberty Bonds, the Rev. Messrs. Botts, Bradford, an historic, unprecedented and unpar- and many a sigh of thanks will be welcomed and received by Mr. Ira why don't you?" "We are leaving Taggart and Wilkinson. The Rev. alleled event; and said that it would drawn for the host and hostess of Smith, foreman of the press department, and Miss Edna Greene, sten-

In point of numbers, beauty and ographer and business manager. have done. He assured the men that genuine pelasure, it was the most suc- Thanks to them both.

Father Williams was asked to say the love and interest and prayers of cessful and most brilliant function of Leaving for Newton, Kansas, bright Washington police are still tearing grace. He asked the men to stand the community would follow them and the year; and will long hold its place and early Monday morning. Until and sing "Praise God From Whom that money and means were being as an inspiration to the social life of next week, I am

FRED C. WILLIAMS,