We are expecting to see you at St. John's Tuesday evening, January 1.

DEATH OF AN OLD RESIDENT

Samuel E. Harding died Thursday at his home, 944 North Twenty-seventh street. He was born in 1835 in Front Royal, Va., and has been a resident of Omaha thirty-five years. He was employed as janitor by the United States National bank for about twenty-five years. He was very energetic, a property owner and one of Omaha's most influential colored citizens. He was a member of Masonic lodge, Excelsior No. 110, and was buried December 16 from his home at 2 o'clock, under auspices of his lodge, T. P. Mahammet, worthy master. Before the Masonic rites the burial office of the Episcopal church was read by the Rev. John Albert Williams. Interment was in Forest Lawn cemetery. Silas Johnson was the undertaker in charge.

He leaves three nieces, Mrs. Julia A. Jones, Mrs. Susie Rice and Miss Sadie Nickens, and a host of friends to mourn his loss.

BARBERS WHO ARE BARBERS

Mr. W. M. Brunner, back at the old stand with P. H. Jenkins, asks the patronage of his old customers. I am here to stay. As long as I am in Omaha I will be at this old stand. Come down and look me over; I still have a good one for you.

Mr. J. T. Thompson, back from Clairmore Springs, feeling fine, back on the job with P. H. Jenkins, asks the patronage of all his customers. The shop is working now at full strength; five barbers who know their biz. No waiting. Our work stands for itself. Everything strictly first class. All the barbers are first class hair cutters; we also straighten your hair in twenty minutes.

FRED HOUSTON, W. M. BRUNNER, WILLIE BRUCE, J. T. THOMPSON, P. H. JENKINS, Proprietor, 1313 Dodge Street, Omaha.—Adv.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the many friends for their kindness, sympathy and for the beautiful floral offerings for our beloved mother, sister and cousin.—Earle Fields, Mrs. Mabel Brown, Ralph Fields, Chauncey Fields, Ada Fields, Bertha Canterbury, Mrs. Emma King, Mrs. F. J. McCullough, Mrs. Linnie McKinney.

Watch your conduct.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH NOTES

Many were in attendance Sunday. At the evening service Dr. W. C. Williams delivered one of his scholarly sermons. There were four additions and the collection for the day was $80.12.

Mr. Samuel Campbell died December 10 at the University hospital. The funeral services were held from St. John's A. M. E. church December 12. In the absence of Rev. Mr. Williams the Rev. Mr. Broadinax of South Omaha officiated. Interment was in Forest Lawn, Jones & Chiles, undertakers, in charge.

Sunday, December 23, at 11 a. m., special sermon. At 8 p. m. the following program will be rendered, with special music by the choir:

Anthem.....Choir
Paper.....Joseph Graves
Ladies' Chorus.....St. John's Choir
Recitation.....Mrs. Maude Brown
Solo.....Mr. Nathaniel Perry
Recitation.....Miss Beatrice Majors
Anthem.....Choir

The most popular service in the course of the year is the Christmas morning service. It will be held Tuesday morning, December 25, at 5:30. The choir, robed in white with lighted candles, will march in from the rear of the darkened church, much in keeping with the occasion. The new stewardess board will follow in procession with the choir. Don't miss it.

Thursday evening, December 27, the Sunday school will have the Christmas tree and a program by the Sunday school pupils.

Friday afternoon, December 21, a number of ladies will meet at the parsonage to organize an art class. Those who love art, come and join us.

Friday evening the Bible class will meet with Mrs. H. K. Hillon, 2902 North Twenty-sixth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown of 2720 Corby street entertained at 5 o'clock dinner, complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Bell and mother, on Wednesday evening, December 12.

You are invited to attend all services in this church.
