

South Side Notes

Mr. W. H. Scruggs of Kansas City, formerly of Omaha, is here visiting relatives and friends. We wish for him a pleasant stay while in our city.

The turkey dinner given by the junior stewardesses of Allen Chapel, A. M. E. Church, New Year's day was quite a success in every way. They were able to add $38 to their treasury. In the evening the young people of the church rendered a splendid program to a large and appreciative audience.

Mrs. Birdie Lollis of 2628 Jefferson street underwent an operation for broken glands in her arms Wednesday, January 2, at South Side hospital. Dr. R. E. Schindel performed the operation.

J. H. Wakefield, Manager So. Side Branch of Obee-Hunter Undertaking Co.—See ad.

The Bethel Baptist Church will start revival services Sunday, January 6, to last two weeks. All this week they have been holding prayer services. The meeting will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. T. A. Taggart. Come out and help us fight sin.

Both churches on the South Side held services on Monday night and watched the old year out and the new one in.

ATCHISON, KANSAS

Miss Gertrude Taylor and Mr. E. Brown were quietly married Monday night at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Taylor, on north 7th street, Rev. D. Majors officiating. Miss Taylor is a graduate of the class of 1915 and has recently returned from Emporia, Kansas, where she completed a normal course at the state university. Her marriage was a surprise to her many friends. Mr. Brown ought to congratulate himself on winning one of Atchison's most popular girls. They left for their home in St. Joseph, Mo., Monday eve, where Mr. Brown has a neatly furnished modern cottage for his bride. We wish them much joy and happiness.

Robert Greenfield, one of Atchison's best citizens, died Friday morning, December 21, at his residence, North and 15th street, of pneumonia. He was 56 years old and came to Atchison in 1874, married Miss Pauline Jett and to them nine children were born, six of whom are living: Miss Etta, Samuel, Bob and Frank Greenfield, Mrs. John Williams of Des Moines, Iowa, and Mrs. William Stone of Atchison, all of whom were present at his bedside when he died. The funeral was held at the A. M. E. Church, Rev. Mr. Billions officiating. Besides his relatives he leaves a host of friends to mourn his loss.

Miss Sarah Lewis of St. Joe visited her brother Alfred Sunday and left for Omaha Sunday night.

Miss Evadner Hoy, teacher in the public schools in St. Louis, spent Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Martha Hoy, North and 6th street.

Mrs. Arlene Jones, of Lexington, Mo., spent a few hours in the city with her aunt, Mrs. K. Peterson, Monday. She left Monday night for Omaha to visit relatives.

The cantata given at the K. B. church under the management of Mrs. W. E. Gray was a grand success.

Miss Goldie Cunningham, who is taking a business course in Omaha, spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Cunningham.

Mrs. Jessie Miller and daughter, Mrs. Irene Moon, is visiting relatives in Omaha.

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Lett, of Emporia, Kansas, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Porter Christmas.

James, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Doyle, was taken seriously sick Thursday, the 27th, and was taken to the hospital. He is better at this writing.

Joe Alexander, James Bell, George Bradford are on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clay Wiley of St. Joe spent Christmas with Mr. Wiley's grandmother, Mrs. Henry Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Potter of Kansas City, Kansas, are visiting Mrs. Potter's mother, Mrs. John Dysert.

MADE CHAPLAIN OF FIELD ARTILLERY

Springfield, Mo.—The Rev. Arthur E. Rankin, pastor of Gibson Chapel Presbyterian church, has been appointed chaplain in the national army and assigned to the 349th field artillery at Camp Dix, New Jersey. Chaplain Rankin was given a big send-off by his fellow citizens of all denominations and by both races.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPH MEN

Washington, D. C.—Howard university has organized a class for the instruction of men who wish to become wireless telegraph operators. The work is being undertaken at the solicitation of the Federal Board of Vocational Education. Instructors and equipment are being furnished free. Prof. Harold D. Hatfield, director of School of Applied Science, is in charge of the course.

COMFORT COMMITTEE SENDS PLEDGE CARDS

Washington, D. C.—Colored people throughout the country are being given an opportunity to show how deep is their regret over the tragic hanging of thirteen Colored soldiers and life imprisonment of forty-one others at Fort Houston, and how deep is their sympathy for their bereaved and needy families, for the National Colored Soldiers' Comfort Committee is sending out 100,000 pledge cards with an urgent appeal to respond with contributions. Relief for these sorrowing and needy families is urgent. They need sympathy now in the form of financial help, and need it quick. The National Colored Soldiers' Comfort Committee has secured the resident address of these dependents of the thirteen hung and forty-one imprisoned for life in order to reach them with relief.

NEBRASKA FIRST STATE TO SHOW FOODS SAVING

Nebraska was the first state in the union to make its report of sugar, meat and wheat saved under the meatless and wheatless day program. As a result Gurdon W. Wattles, federal food administrator, and John F. Letton, chairman state committee, were the recipients of commendatory letters from Washington. The saving in Nebraska was: Wheat flour, 294,419 pounds; meats, 422,822 pounds; sugar, 198,441 pounds.

GETS $14,000 DAMAGES

Paanma, R. P.—Recently in the Cristobal court the jury awarded damages in the sum of $14,000 to John Toppin, a native of the Island of Barbados and also a resident of the city of Colon, for damages he suffered when knocked from a horse he was riding by an engine belonging to the Panama Railroad company.

CELEBRATE EMANCIPATION DAY

(Special to The Monitor.) Wichita, Kan., Jan. 1.—The workers of the Y. M. C. A. prepared a very elaborate program for the first day of the year and the people enjoyed it, as it was something new in the history of the Colored people of Wichita.

The program was given in St. Paul's A. M. E. Church, which was packed at every service. Three services were held. At the morning service the Rev. J. C. Rogers of Hutchinson, Kan., preached an interesting emancipation sermon. The afternoon service was held for the benefit of the old slaves. At the evening service the music given by the Wichita Choral Union were the selections written by Mr. Mundy and Mr. Taylor. The opening selection, "Ethiopia," written by Mr. Mundy, made the hit of the evening. Prof. J. P. King gave the emancipation address.

WHEN THE WAR WILL END

Absolute knowledge I have none, But my aunt's washerwoman's sister's son Heard a policeman on his beat

Say to a laborer on the street That he had a letter just last week, Written in the finest Greek, From a Chinese coolie in Timbuctoo, Who said the Negroes in Cuba knew Of a Colored man in a Texas town, Who got in straight from a circus clown

That a man in Klondike heard the news

From a gang of South American Jews About somebody in Borneo, Who heard a man who claimed to know

Of a swell society female fake, Whose mother-in-law will undertake To prove that her seventh husband's sister's niece

Has stated in a printed piece That she has a son who has a friend That knows when the war is going to end. —Exchange.
