Does The Monitor bring results? Listen to this:

"Please discontinue Mrs. White's ad. All rooms rented." The ad was in two issues.

"Please take out my ad. I ought to have told you to do so after the first insertion. Secured the help advertised for almost immediately and it takes up all my time answering the phone about that ad. Please take it out."—Dr. J. B. Hill.

Mrs. Sherwood spent the past week in Lawrence, Kan., with her grandmother. She reports a very pleasant visit.

Miss Corinne Thomas spent the week-end in Des Moines with her cousin, Lieutenant and Mrs. Bundrant.

Mrs. Selena Davis and Mr. Daniel Banks were married Tuesday evening, February 12, at the parsonage by Rev. W. C. Williams. The bride was dressed in a very handsome gown of gray taffeta. Those present were: Mesdames W. M. Page, R. C. Price, Lena Brothman, M. Gottrell and Katie Jones.

NEWS OF ST. PHILIP'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The Kensington luncheon given by the Woman's auxiliary last Monday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. J. F. Smith, 2414 Binney street, was a delightful and successful affair from every point of view. About fifty ladies were present and beautiful needlework was exhibited in abundance. The first prize for the neatest work was given to Mrs. J. C. Donley for a briar rose crochet pattern. The second prize was divided between Mrs. J. Allen and Mrs. Williamson, as they were tied on cluny lace.

It has been decided to organize a community chorus as an outcome of the singing school which was begun last Sunday afternoon at the church. The public who wish to join this community chorus are invited to come to the church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. This is not a select affair. Anybody and everybody who wants to and is able to sing at all will be made welcome. Mrs. Pinkston has volunteered her services as director. To those who know her ability it will be appreciated as a rare privilege to be under her instruction. Community chorus from 4 to 5. Choir practice of Easter music from 5 to 6. Evensong at 6 o'clock.

Ash Wednesday services were well attended.

The confirmation class has been organized.

YOU attend the Camouflage Ball given February 22 by the O. N. E. club boys at Peterson Hall.—Adv.

NEWS OF ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday was a good day for Zion. The crowds and collections were both very gratifying. The sermons, "A Proper Vision" in the morning and "Personal Victory" at night, were masterpieces of oratory and all who did not hear them indeed missed a treat.

The following out-of-town visitors worshipped with us Sunday morning: Mrs. Rachel Reed, Monmouth, Ill.; Mrs. Mabel Mills, Brant, Ala.; Mrs. Lee Williams, Kansas City, Kan.; Mrs. Hattie Womack, Jacksonville, Fla., and Mrs. A. C. Brown, Los Angeles; Master James Ogelsby and Lillie Richardson, Jacksonville, Fla.

The Mission Circle was entertained this week by Mrs. Griffin, 2209 North Twenty-seventh avenue.

The art section of the Wide-Awake Twenty-four met this week with Mrs. Reuben Moore, 2302 North Twenty-seventh avenue.

For real study of the Scriptures come to the pastor's Bible class, which meets every Tuesday night in the rest room of the church.

Lest the members of the Sunday school should forget, remember the dish towel shower for Zion.

The public is cordially invited to attend all our services.

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. W. S. Metcalfe preached a soul stirring sermon Sunday morning to a large and appreciative audience. His text was, "I am the vine, ye are the branches." Also at night Rev. W. C. Williams preached a very beautiful and didactic sermon, "Can the Ethiopian Change His Skin or the Leopard His Spots?"

Don't fail to see the big infant exhibition and play by the young ladies of the O. N. E. club, "The Great Surprise." Don't forget the date, February 18, at St. John's.

The M. K. & T. was the first railroad to report toward the big June rally, which was $45.50. Watch their bulletin board!

The Christian Endeavor will render a sacred program Sunday evening.

The Dunbar Dramatic club is preparing for its first big play. Watch for the date.

The sick of the church are Mesdames Ewing, Davis, McCullough and Mr. Bolder.

The financial report for Sunday, February 10, was as follows:

Missionary collection	$ 3.35
Papers (Kansas City Sun)	1.65
Trustees	49.06
Class dues	34.80
Sunday school	7.68
Christian Endeavor	.89
Turned into sinking fund from various clubs	59.00

Total amount received.....$156.43

WEDDING BELLS ARE RINGING

On Tuesday evening, February 5, Miss Irene F. Phillips was quietly married to Sergeant John F. Faucett. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride by Rev. W. F. Botts. There were no bridal attendants and the guests were restricted to relatives on account of the very recent death of the groom's mother. Sergeant Faucett left the same evening for Camp Funston, Kan., where he is with the 317th motor supply train of the Ninety-second Division. For the present Mrs. Faucett remains in the city, but hopes to visit her husband in the near future.

MRS. TURNER DIES AT LORD LISTER HOSPITAL

Mrs. Eva Turner of 2201 North Twenty-seventh avenue died at the Lord Lister hospital Monday, February 11. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon from Zion Baptist church, the Rev. W. F. Botts and Rev. M. H. Wilkinson officiating. Mrs. Silas Johnson by special request played for the service. Mrs. Turner leaves a husband, a daughter, Stella; a father, two sisters and a brother to mourn her loss. Interment was at Forest Lawn. Silas Johnson had charge of the funeral.

NOT READY TO ANNOUNCE PLANS

It was stated in last week's issue that a full report of the plans for raising funds for Omaha's proportion of the proposed community house for the Colored soldiers at Camp Funston would be published in this week's Monitor. A committee is being formed to push the campaign as soon as plans are perfected and it is deemed expedient to do so. Inasmuch as the personnel of the committee has not been completed it is deemed wise to postpone publication until full particulars can be given.

NEWS OF MOUNT MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

The Dorcas Kensington met at the home of Mrs. E. Smith, 2534 Hamilton street, Thursday afternoon, and for current topics Mrs. D. W. Gooden read an instructive paper on "Democracy." This was followed by a discussion. The meeting next Thursday will be at the home of Mrs. L. Taylor, 2817 Miami street.

All members of the church who have come from Kansas meet every Monday night at 2526 Lake street. J. L. Betts, president.

Regular services Sunday. Morning sermon topic, "Noise"; evening, 8 o'clock, "Four Headlights." Sunday school, 1 p. m.; Sunshine Missionary circle, 6:30 p. m.
