

South Side Notes

Mrs. R. Hilton was very agreeably surprised last Friday by a visit from her brother, Mr. Richard Hooker of Chicago, whom she has not seen since 1912. Mr. Hooker brought Mr. Johnson, a friend of his, with him.

Mrs. Sarah Gray of 422 South Twenty-fourth street, was quite sick last week, but is better at this writing.

Mrs. Birdie Ellis of 2628 Jefferson street, who had an operation on her arm a few weeks ago, is again having trouble with her arm and it is thought she may have to undergo another operation.

Mrs. Bettie Wiggins, who has been sick, is much better.

Mrs. Bessie Johnson, who underwent an operation last week at University hospital, is getting along fine.

Mrs. Elizabeth Clark took seriously ill last Saturday evening with a nervous attack and heart trouble at her home, 2612 N street. She is a little better now. We hope to see her out again soon.

The Allen chapel, A. M. E. church, second quarterly meeting, held last Sunday, was one of the best held. Nearly all the senior and junior stewardestes from St. John's, with Pastor Williams, attended in a body. Council Bluffs was also represented with pastor and six stewardestes, and other members were present. The sermon by Rev. Mr. Stoner, "Individual Responsibility," was one well fitted for the time. Presiding Elder H. King preached at 8 o'clock.

Mr. J. Edwards of Thirty-fifth and U streets, who has been sick for some time, is still on the sick list.

The family of Mr. Robert Severe, who has been quarantined for three weeks, is out again.

Mrs. Mary Jordan of Anaconda, Mont., arrived here Saturday night and is stopping at the home of her father, 6617 South Twenty-seventh street. Mr. Jordan will join her here in the near future.

Lincoln Department

The race may be proud of one young man, Mr. C. E. Rice, who received his A. B. degree from the College of Arts and Sciences at the mid-winter commencement. Mr. Rice has attended Nebraska university for over two years and has been a very progressive citizen and builder of the race.

The valentine social was a grand success. Many exchanged themselves by exchanging valentines. Over $14 was cleared on the supper alone.

The Rev. Mrs. Brooks of Kansas City, Mo., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Roy, who resides in University Place.

Mrs. Anna Lawton has returned home from Des Moines, where she visited her mother.

Mrs. Henry Crews is leaving Wednesday for Junction City, Kan., where she will visit relatives.

The L. L. S. Kensington met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Adam Loving. The usual business was carried on. The next meeting will be with Mrs. O'Donnell at Seventh and C streets.

March 3 is set aside for Women's Day Rally. There will be a program both afternoon and evening and the reports of the rally.

The Optimistic Set will hold its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Louis Holmes, 910 U street.

Mrs. Burden is a visitor at the home of her son, Mr. Joe Burden, on North Twenty-fifth street.

The churches have been donated service flags. Each flag contains six stars, one for each boy in service of Uncle Sam. Several more have qualified for service. They are: Mr. Guy Jackson, Mr. Jewell Kelly, Mr. Sol Nelson and Mr. McSwain all will be missed if taken.

The Colored women of Lincoln are doing their share of Red Cross work. Several women help make bandages every week at the headquarters (white).

Mr. James Cowdin left Monday night for Kansas City on a short business trip.

Mr. George Falling, who enlisted in the army during Thanksgiving holidays, is now on his way across the water. His destination is unknown.

The Davis club met at the home of Mr. J. Cooley last Tuesday. Money was raised to make payment on the home. The next meeting will be at the residence of Mrs. R. H. Young. The club will give a George Washington supper at the home of Mrs. Sellars, 1942 Y street, Friday evening.

The Gideon Band had a large meeting at the home of Mrs. Major Moore. The standing committees were elected. The new officers are: President, Mrs.

Rosie Adair; vice president, Mrs. Wade Smith; treasurer, Mrs. Lulu Moore; secretary, Mrs. M. Gamet; chaplain, Mr. Ben Hampton; critic, Mr. Adair. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Patterson.

Mrs. H. H. Turner and Mrs. Ethel Price spent Sunday, February 10, in Omaha. After spending four weeks in Omaha she returned to this city to resume her former position.

Miss Lillian Cavers had a minor operation last week. She is improving.

The Mission Circle will hold its next meeting with Mrs. Van Bowdery, 333 South Twenty-fourth street. The official board of the Baptist church was re-elected with one exception.

Because of their faithful service the officers of the Sunday school were re-elected. Few changes were made. Mr. W. Moseley was made treasurer, while Mr. Corneal, the outgoing treasurer, was elected treasurer of the church.

Rev. Mr. Brooks of Kansas City will preach at Mount Zion Sunday, February 24.

ATCHISON, KANSAS

Mrs. Matilda Marshall returned from Des Moines, Ia., Sunday, where she has been visiting her daughter.

John Jackson is leading prayer meetings held at the residence of Will Metchum and Frank McKiser.

ACQUITTED OF KILLING BROWN

George Fuller, charged with the murder of John Brown, a barber, was acquitted by the jury in district court Monday. Fuller was charged with stabbing Brown in a quarrel. The plea was self-defense. Fuller was defended by E. F. Morearty, who took the case without one dollar for his services or expectation of reward because he was appealed to by Fuller's aged mother, of Columbia, Mo., for God's sake to help her dear boy. Mr. Morearty gladly responded to her appeal. He is to be commended not only for his success in the case, but also for his Christian charity in coming to this young man's assistance.

THE VEILED LADY

SHE wore a veil. I could not see what tint, or hue, her skin might be, But, oh, she was so trim, and neat, Her voice was music, low and sweet, And while I watched her, to my eyes, She seemed an angel from the skies.

It was just then she turned toward me, Lifted her veil so daintily, And smiled—my brain was in a whirl, Seeing such eyes and teeth o' pearl— And Cupid laughed, the little clown, For, oh, thank God—her face was brown!

—Roscoe C. Jamison.

ST. PHILIP'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH The Woman's Auxiliary met at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Bell Thursday afternoon. The next meeting will be at the residence of Mrs. A. Gregory, 2622 North 25th street.

A study class for the Altar Guild is being conducted by Mrs. T. S. Riggs and for the Auxiliary by Mrs. R. T. Walker.

OFFICERS TRAINING AT CAMP STANLEY

SUNDAY in La Grange was a day of quiet and peace, so Monday morning found me much refreshed and on my way to Smithville, a division on the M. K. & T. railway, where is also located the repair shops and roundhouse, employing about 400 race men. The pay roll is quite large. The earnings of this class is spent among the business and professional men, which is a large amount. Fifty per cent of the population is claimed by the race.

A day here was sufficient for my business. I boarded the evening train for Lockhart, just thirty-five miles away, the county seat of Colwell county, one of the richest in the state. I met here Prof. Atkinson, a prominent educator, principal of the high school for eighteen years, who has labored continually and untiringly among his people, and his record here shows that his efforts have not been in vain. He welcomed The Monitor and its representative, who after a busy day, which brought little results, decided to go on to San Antonio, but not until Prof. Atkinson promised that The Monitor would receive proper recognition in Lockhart if he had to put it into every one's hands himself.

Back in San Antonio on wheatless day. Say, they certainly do make good corn muffins here! I enjoyed two days of exceptionally fine weather and then came the first of the winter rains, but not before I was able to visit Camp Stanley, the officers' training camp, where forty-one non-commissioned officers of the four regiments of the regular army are being trained for commissions in the army.

The camp is located twenty-two miles southwest, situated on the banks of Leon river, on the site of the old regular army rifle range, an ideal spot. The men are very much pleased with the treatment accorded them. Though segregated as to quarters, class rooms, mess halls, drills and hospitals, they are accorded equal accommodations and advantages in teaching.

On my way from Camp Stanley I stopped and viewed the ruins of missions—St. Ferdinand, San Jose and Conception, generally known in this section as Nos. 1, 2 and 3, the last known as No. 1. They are interesting old buildings, each having a history of its own, being built just 200 years ago, and they are well worth a trip this far South to see.

On into the city by way of Flores street, I passed the old Arsenal, where enough ammunition is stored to blow Kaiser Bill to kingdom come, and all of it is handled and guarded by race men.

To day is cold and rainy. But if the sunshine peeps out tomorrow I expect to be in Austin, the capital, and if my expected interview with the governor is effected I will give you the details next week. Until then I am correspondingly yours,

FRED C. WILLIAMS, Traveling Representative of The Monitor.

REPUBLICAN AT LOUISVILLE UNDER FIRE WITHDRAWS JIM-CROW STREET CAR ORDINANCE

Louisville, Ky.—Alderman W. H. Zeiser, who stirred up a hornet's nest by his ordinance to take over the city street railway system, which contained a proviso for Jim-crow cars, arose at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen recently and withdrew the measure. The leading Colored citizens had a committee present ready for a fight on the ordinance.
