NEWS OF MOUNT MORIAH BAPTIST

Sunday was delightful in every way and not only the past Sunday but the month as a whole was splendid along all lines that come under the head of church activities—the Dorcas Kensington, the Silver Leaf, the Busy Bee, the Sunday school and the Sunshine Missionary Circle. There have been large additions and many visitors. Amount of money taken in for the month, $146.72.

Sunday morning will be covenant, baptism, fellowship and communion. At night the pastor will speak by request, from the theme, "Evidence of True Love." Our revival meetings will come off some time during the latter part of this month. The exact date will be announced later.

Miss Irene Lafayette and Mrs. Fannie Goodlett have been able to be out of bed. Mr. H. D. Maxey met with a serious fall Friday week and is confined to his home, 3310 Ohio street. The public is cordially invited to worship with us.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

From the interest manifested the past two Sundays it would seem that each one was trying to find his proper place in order to be able to do his share in the special meeting mentioned in this issue. There have been twenty additions to the church.

The pulpit was occupied Sunday morning by Rev. Brother Matthews. In the evening Pastor Botts preached on "Conquest Through Sacrifice." Needless to say, he did justice to the theme.

Join the increasing crowds every Tuesday evening and come to the Bible class in the rest room of the church.

The Mission Circle met this week with Mrs. M. LaCoy on Twenty-seventh avenue. Interesting discussions are held each meeting. The topic for discussion next week is, "How Did Jesus Attract and Hold the People?" The sick of the church are Mrs. L. Davis and Mrs. Cochran.

Covenant at 10:30 Sunday and the administration of the Lord's supper from 3 to 4 in the afternoon.

Special sermon at night and good music by the choir.

Strangers are cordially invited to worship with us.

NEWS OF BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH

Twenty-ninth and T Streets, South Side; Rev. T. A. Taggart, Pastor.

The pastor is preaching a series of sermons on "The Seven Seals of Revelation," one seal each Sunday night. He preached on the second seal last Sunday night to an overflowing audience.

Sunday morning service, 10:45. The sermon topic will be, "The Unknown God." B. Y. P. V., 6 p. m. Sunday night, "The Third Seal." Preaching, 8 p. m.

The Mission Circle met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Irvin, 2808 R street.

Mrs. Bessie Johnson, who has been in the hospital for the past two weeks, is improving and hopes to be home some time this week. Mrs. Cheeka, who has been on the sick list for some time, is doing nicely.

Charlie Brown of Thirty-first and V streets fell Saturday evening and fractured his leg, and will be unable to be out for some time.

The Famous Toussaint Dramatic club is coming forth again into the limelight with their new play Thursday night, March 28, at the A. O. U. W. temple, Twenty-fifth and M streets, South Side. Title, "The Risen Lord." Composed and written by Rev. T. A. Taggart. Admission, 25 cents.—Adv.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH NOTES

Sunday was quarterly meeting day. The morning and evening sermons were preached very beautifully by Elder King. The sacramental sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Stoner of Council Bluffs. Two hundred and six persons communed. The total collection for the day was $285.26. The quarterage was $91.75. The total amount of money taken in this quarter was $2,780.25.

Don't fail to attend the musical and literary concert March 5, under the auspices of Division No. 4 of the Canadian Pacific railroad. Mrs. Lena Moore, conductor; Mrs. Jennie Duncan, superintendent.

The sick of the church are Mesdames Ewing, Williams, Mr. Hansett and little Jessie Lee Glover.

The W. W. had a very delightful George Washington celebration Friday afternoon at the church.

Watch the bulletin boards at St. John's.

Don't miss seeing Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong March 18 at St. John's.

N. W. C. A. NOTES

The George Washington luncheon given at the Old Folks' Home Wednesday, February 20, under the direction of Mrs. Florence Johnson and Mrs. R. K. Lawrie, was a decided success both socially and financially. The ladies served a most delicious lunch to nearly 100 persons during the afternoon and realized a neat sum with which to purchase linens for the home.

There will be a regular meeting at the home Wednesday, March 6, at 3 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

FRELING & STEINLE

It gives us great pleasure to call our readers' attention to the reliable firm of Freling & Steinle, who deal in trunks, traveling bags, valises and leather goods in general. This firm is one of our steady advertisers. They appreciate the patronage of our people. Look up their ad and when you want anything in their line be sure to look over their stock. Don't forget to mention The Monitor, the business-getter.
