COLORED SOLDIERS URGED TO INSURE

trouble on his part.

It is dangerous to procrastinate. The Government is making a liberal and unprecedented offer to its fighting forces, but the offer is open only for a limited time—April 12th, 1918, being the last date for those in the service on or before December 14, 1917.

Now is the time to act. The United States Government is back of this contract of insurance. Nothing is safer than our Country's guarantee.

In case of the soldier's death, each $1,000 of Government insurance will pay to his beneficiary (wife, child, brother, sister, parent, etc.) the sum of $5.75 a month for 240 months (20 years), less any payments made to the insured for total and permanent disability. Any losses in excess of premiums received will be borne by the United States Government. Insurance protection is not limited by any provision as to line of duty. Thirty-one days' grace are allowed for payment of overdue premiums. If insurance lapses it can be revived or reinstated within six months.

Government War Risk Insurance holds good after the war and even though the soldier leaves the service, provided it is changed in form within five years after the close of the war. No medical examination will be required for this change. This insurance cannot be attached, assigned or otherwise taken by creditors. Can you think of a better investment? A soldier can take out any amount of insurance he desires from $1,000 to $10,000 (in multiples of $500). A $10,000 policy will yield his family or dependents $57.50 a month for 240 months (20 years), thus absolutely guaranteeing them against want for many years after his death, and avoiding the temptation to wastefully spend a large amount of money suddenly received.

Not only soldiers with families, but even those with no dependents should eagerly grasp this opportunity to take out War Risk (or Government) Insurance. Why? (1) Because the insurance is payable to the soldier in monthly installments of $5.75 for each $1,000 of insurance should he become totally and permanently disabled. (2) Because he may at some later date acquire, by marriage, a dependent whom he would be glad to make his beneficiary (the name of the beneficiary can be changed at any time within certain prescribed limits), and (3) when the war is over and he comes out of the army, he may not be able to pass a physical examination for life insurance in a regular company.

Many Colored Soldiers Already Insured.

It is highly encouraging to note that, out of a total strength of 2,212 commissioned and enlisted men, the 372nd Infantry (colored), now stationed at Camp Stuart, Newport News, Virginia, has written $17,277,500 of War Risk Insurance, and that after a canvass of the entire regiment only forty men, with no dependents, declined to insure. It is likewise gratifying to note that the 350th Field Artillery at Camp Dix, New Jersey, consisting entirely of colored men, is 99% among a number of regiments where every officer and man in the regiment is protected by Government insurance.

Think of what this will mean to the Negro race after the war is over! Think of the economic strength and measure of respect it will bring to this great group of loyal Americans, enabling them to buy homes, go into business, and to become self-supporting citizens.

Colored soldiers and sailors, let me urge you to take immediate advantage of the generous provision that has been made by our Government in the matter of War Risk Insurance.

Friends and Relatives of colored soldiers and sailors, let me urge that you write and tell our men in the Army and Navy to insure at once, before it is too late. Urge them to insure heavily at cheap Government rates, perhaps cheaper than they can get anywhere in the world, under a contract backed by the United States Government, thereby obtaining insurance and creating an estate that cannot be attached, assigned or otherwise taken by creditors, and thus providing their families and dependents against want for at least twenty years to come.

Tell them to act now, for April 12th, 1918, is their last chance.

Editors, ministers, teachers, physicians, business men and all reading classes among the Negro people are urged to spread information with respect to this Government War Risk Insurance among the families and, as far as possible, among the colored soldiers, pointing them to this great opportunity.

Application blanks and full information concerning Government insurance may be procured by any soldier from the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, Washington, D. C.; from his commanding officer, or from the insurance officer at the camp or cantonment where he is stationed. All other persons desiring information or help in this connection should address the 589 Waters Barnhart—Mar 14 — Director of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, New National Museum, Washington, D. C.

(Signed) EMMETT J. SCOTT, Special Assistant to the Sec'y of War.
