TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY CONSECRATION OF CHURCH

Sunday will mark the twenty-fifth anniversary of the consecration of the Church of St. Philip the Deacon. The occasion will be marked by special services at 7:30 and 11:00 a. m. and 8 p. m. At the 11 o'clock service the Rev. John Albert Williams will preach a sermon reviewing the history of the congregation, of which he has been the pastor for more than a quarter of a century. All members and friends of the congregation and pastor are urged to be present. The observance of the anniversary in a social way will be held in connection with the annual parish meeting. May 1. A committee consisting of Messrs. M. F. Singleton and H. W. Black, Mesdames C. H. Hicks and James G. Jewell and the Misses Anna E. Logan and Lena M. Paul have in hand the arrangements for the social affair. At the time of the consecration of the church, the officers were W. R. Gamble, warden; T. P. Mahamitt, secretary; and George N. Johnson, treasurer. Of the large number of clergy who took part in the consecration service twenty-five years ago, there remain in the city in addition to the pastor, only two, the Rev. John Williams and the Rev. T. J. Mackay.

AN APPRECIATED BOUQUET

Dear Father Williams: I trust you will understand that I mean every word I say when I tell you that The Monitor, to my mind, is the very best of our race papers and a first-class publication any way you look at it. You are surely doing dandy work. Your editorials, especially those of the last two issues, are the finest things I have seen for a long time.

Sincerely,
GEORGE G. WALKER.
307 Riley Street, Atchison, Kan. April 15.

RANDALL DAVEY'S EXHIBITION

Randall Davey, one of America's well known artists, is exhibiting at the Montross galleries, New York, twenty-one pictures which he painted while visiting the West Indies. Sixteen of them are paintings of black and brown natives, and his canvases have elicited much comment among the eastern critics.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness and sympathy during our bereavement in the death of our mother and grandmother, and for the beautiful floral offerings.—W. A. Covington, E. A. Covington, J. A. Covington, Elizabeth Hopkins.

MORE TRUTH THAN POEM

This year I don't expect to raise A lot of blooming roses; Although they fascinate the gaze And charm the people's noses. I'll grow a lot of succotash And lima beans and barley; Such crops as these will help to smash The Kaiser Bill and Charley. — San Antonio (Tex.) Inquirer.
