B. Y. P. U. — President, Sister Odessa Harris; vice president, E. Robins; secretary, Sister Luvenia Lewis; assistant secretary, Sister Sadie Long; corresponding secretary, Sister Luvenia Rose; treasurer, Sister S. A. Botts.

The first official meeting of these bodies will be held June 18 to 23, at Mount Moriah Baptist church, Twenty-sixth and Seward streets.

Dr. Devine, edifice expert of the Home Mission society of New York was with Rev. W. F. Botts April 12, 13, and 14, to assist in a financial drive for the purpose of erecting the main auditorium. All members and friends of our church feel blessed and especially thankful for the efficient and consecrated efforts of Dr. Devine who seemed to inspire every one present with a mind to work. We were graced with the presence of Dr. York superintendent of the missions; Dr. Proper, Deacon A. C. Busk of Calvary Baptist church, and last, but not least, Dr. Pilot, who arrived late, but still in time to see the mercury go over the top, when $30,000 was pledged by members and friends that the good work may grow.

Sunday, April 21, will be general clearance day, when all members and friends are asked to give $1 that all minor expenses may be cleared away that the greater undertaking may not be hampered.

Sunday, April 21, a meeting of all the churches will be held at Zion, the speaker of honor to be Rev. Dr. Will-

ATCHISON, KANSAS

Death has again visited the home of another of Atchison's popular young ladies. Miss Ethel Carson, whose illness has been frequently mentioned in this column, died at 1 p. m. Monday at her home, 301 North G street. She was educated here and was a refined, cultured, industrious woman. Her presence at home will be missed, as also the circle in which she was so honorably identified. She leaves to mourn her loss father and mother, one brother in Omaha, two sisters, Mrs. John Jackson and Mrs. Anna Booker of Atchison, and a host of friends. She was a member of Zion Baptist church. The funeral was on Wednesday at 2 p. m. from Ebenezer Baptist church, Rev. Mr. Hill officiating.

William Sullivan, one of Atchison's highly respected citizens, died Saturday evening at his residence, 817 Division street. He has been sick for a year, but was up and around. He took to his bed three months ago. Leakage of the heart is said to have been the cause of his death. He leaves to survive him a loving wife, two sons,—George of Atchison and Blaine of Evansville, Ind.—two sisters,—Mrs. Susie Penn of Omaha and Mrs. Chas. Robertson of Atchison,—some grandchildren and many friends to mourn his demise. He was buried under the auspices of the Odd Fellows' lodge, of which he was a member. Funeral was held at the A. M. E. church, Rev. Mr. Billions officiating.

The lecture given by Miss Grace Eaton at Ebenezer Baptist church, Monday night, was a rare treat to those that heard her. Subject, "The Life of Christ and His Followers." She lectures to ladies only Tuesday at the same church.

Mark Brown, Dan Wheeler, Mrs. Cal Coker, Mrs. John Jordan and Will Huston are on the sick list.

Miss Marie D. Parker of Liberty, Mo., is visiting with her cousin, Mrs. W. H. Hill.

Mrs. Ellen Carr took suddenly sick Sunday at the Ebenezer church and was taken home. She is much better at this writing.

Tony Taylor, W. Metchum and Prince Shook left for Excelsior Springs Wednesday in search of health.

son, state evangelist of Texas. Come and hear him.

The pastor's eighth anniversary occurs on the 28th inst. Watch for further announcements.

The Wide Awake Twenty-Four met this week with Mrs. E. Howfid 2518 Ohio street.

The Mission Circle was entertained by Mrs. Martha Turner, 2764 Lake street.

Regular services next Lord's day. Strangers welcome.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH NEWS

Sunday was the greatest day ever witnessed by the oldest members of St. John's. Pentecostal showers came down and baptized thirty-six souls who were taken into the church. The wonderful sermon preached by the evangelist, Rev. L. T. Scott, "Your God shall be my God, and your people shall be my people," moved every one, saint and sinner.

The collection for the day was $112.49.

The Ladies' Aid are making very elaborate preparations for their bazaar, to be given on the 24th, 25th and 26th.

Get your tickets for the Victory luncheon now.

Every one is welcome to our services.

CORNERSTONE LAYING

The cornerstone of the new Tabernacle Baptist church, Council Bluffs was laid Sunday afternoon, April 14 with appropriate and impressive ceremonies. Mr. A. W. Lewis was master of ceremonies. Able addresses were given by the Rev. T. H. Stoner, pastor of the A. M. E. church, and Mr. A. W. Williams. Rev. W. F. Bostick preached an instructive sermon on "The Baptist's Contribution to Religious Liberty." The contributions amounted to $126. The Rev. J. P. Jackson, pastor is doing good work and is recognized as a forceful religious leader in the city. The church will hold a jubilee rally some time next month.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Rev. T. A. Taggart, Pastor. The pastor preached to a large and appreciative audience last Sunday night, with some additions to the church.

Sunday morning service, 10:45. B. Y. P. U., 6 p. m. Sunday night preaching at 8 o'clock. The Mission Circle met Thursday night at Bethel Baptist church, being entertained by the Mission ladies.

Mrs. Mary Malone and Mr. Charlie Brown are still on the sick list.

Mrs. Mary Stone of Forest Lawn is very sick.

Mrs. Ella Dysert left for Omaha Tuesday to visit her sick son, Eugene Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Moseby are on the sick list.

Stanton Roy left Tuesday evening for St. Paul, Minn. He was here to attend the funeral of his father. Miss Tanner Donahue, who has been sick for several weeks, died Sunday morning. Funeral Tuesday at Ebenezer Baptist church, Rev. Mr. Hill officiating.

Mrs. Sadie Pointer, sister of Mrs. Halm of Leavenworth, came up to attend the funeral of Mrs. R. Corrington.

We thank the many friends for services rendered and floral offerings to our deceased mother.—Children and Grandchildren of Mrs. Rachel Covington.

Mr. Covington has the profound sympathy of his many friends during his recent bereavement.

Whenever he thinks of her so dear He feels her angel spirit near; A voice comes stealing on the air, Reminding him of his mother's prayer.

AUSTIN DOTS

Austin, Tex., April 11, 1918. Mrs. Mamie Collie, wife of William Collie, has gone to California for several months.

The Parent Teachers' club of the West Austin Public Schools was well attended last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Tobe Berry, who was so badly burned when his house burned, is up out of hospital, but not at all well.

The white and colored citizens are asking for the repetition of the play, "The Story of the American Flag," which was so beautifully rendered by the Blind, Deaf and Dumb Colored students.

The meeting of the Wesley Chapel W. H. M. Auxiliaries was a very business-like one at the residence of Sister S. J. Woods.

The annual temperance contest held in Samuel Huston College Chapel April 8, was a decided success. Miss Uldine Person received the first honor and was escorted to the decorated chair. The young ladies all did nicely and each class presented lovely bouquets of white carnations and ferns.

A large and appreciative audience greeted them.

The program was as follows: Music; A Winning Crusade, Frances F. Ellis; A Prohibition Nation in 1920, Louise Brown; The Decree of the Century, Bertha Storey; Who Killed Joe's Baby? Bessie Westbrooks; Music; In the Shadow of the Mountain, Sopra Bowen; To Every Patriotic Citizen a Challenge, Zelma Kerr; A Moderate Plan, Uldine Person; Music; The Greater Slavery, Lucille Lewis; The Ship Went Down, Stella Brewer; The Man of the Hour, Beulah Lovingood; Music; Decision of Judges; A Silver Offering, M. C. Minue, Manager; M. S. Davage, President.

The mock wedding at the A. M. E. Church was quite a success. A large and lively audience greeted the wedding ceremony.

Mrs. Emma A. Armstrong of our city writes that she has gone from Los Angeles, Cal., to So. Pasadena.

The can corn rally at S. H. College was a success, 613 cans were gathered by Simpson Tabernacle, Miss Pinkie Moore 239, Miss Josie Pankey 373. The Simpson choir rendered a short musical and literary program. Miss Pankey was crowned can corn queen by Vice President J. W. Frazier. L. M. Mitchell, chairman of the Austin District, presided in his usual lively manner.

The mid winter musicale at Tillotson College was well rendered and much enjoyed. Miss P. B. Parsons, assisted by Madame Clarice L. Jackson Brown, had charge of the program.

The Gregory School has planned to buy a Liberty bond.

The Olive Street 2 B Grade, who were in the spelling contest last Friday, were entertained by the Gregory 2 B the following Friday afternoon.

The Gregory Parent Club also held a very interesting meeting.

The girls of Gregory are much elated over their new tennis court.

The Ladies Aid of Wesley Chapel held their first regular meeting at the residence of Mrs. L. J. Johnson Lee, 2106 East 12th St. The committee to wait on pastor, program and decoration were appointed. A three-course light luncheon was served.

President M. S. Davage is in New York City attending the annual meeting of the Missionary board of M. E. Church.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA

The Rev. Mr. Curry of Omaha preached for the Rev. Mr. Jordan Sunday morning.

Rev. T. H. Stoner, pastor of the Methodist church, and his wife were dinner guests of the Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Jackson Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Arthur Watts of Kewanee, Ill. has been the guest of the Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Jackson, 1531 Avenue A.

Among those reported on the sick list this week are: Mrs. Eva Givens Mrs. Lee, Mrs. E. Wade, Mrs. C. Perkins, Mrs. W. Nixon and Mrs. D. Bottoms.

GREENVILLE, TEXAS

Greenville is one of the richest farming districts in the state and has about 19,000 inhabitants, one-third of whom are Colored.

All the churches had excellent services and large congregations Sunday. The Rev. Mr. Means is still working at the erection of his new church.

Dr. L. W. Taylor has recently located his office at 3004 South Johnson street and has with him Dr. L. M. Mitchell, the dentist, formerly of Austin, Tex.

W. D. Pratt is still leading with the best of pictures at the Pastime theater.

For tailor-made suits, cleaning and pressing and tonsorial work don't fail to see M. S. Durham.—Adv.

Mrs. W. M. McDaniel left Wednesday to attend the funeral of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sanders are rejoicing over the birth of a fine boy, who came last week to gladden their hearts and home.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Moss are also the proud parents of a fine boy.

Our parents in Greenville, it will be seen, are doing their bit in helping to raise a future army for Uncle Sam.

Mr. Zack Durham and W. C. Ward have returned to their farm, where they will be engaged in agriculture this year.

Read The Monitor for the news. Those who read one copy are always anxious to get another. It shows that the people of Greenville appreciate a good thing.

COMMUNITY CHORUS

More voices, and especially basses and tenors, are needed for the Community Chorus which will rehearse Sunday afternoon at 5:30 at St. Philip's Church. Come out and join the chorus. Everybody welcome.
