South Side Notes

Lucius Milton Pool of 2515 M street has recently been called back to New York to enter the army.
 Jesse Williams of 5509 P street is slowly improving after a five weeks' illness. He was scalded at Swift's packing house.
 Mrs. Alice Young of 3016 V street, who was recently injured by falling downstairs, is able to be out again.
 John Owens of 3026 R street, who has been ill for six weeks, is improving and hopes to be able to go to work again soon.
 S. S. Stamps of Kansas City, Mo., has recently opened a first-class restaurant and rooming house at 2522 Q street and solicits the patronage of the public.
 The Methodist Episcopal church at Thirty-second and U streets, of which the Rev. G. W. Walton is pastor, is putting in new windows and there will be a cornerstone laying the first Sunday in May by the Knights of Tabor. The Ladies' Taborean band, under the leadership of Mrs. J. Alice Stewart, will furnish the music at the impressive ceremonies.
 I know you are going to "The Minister's Wife" at St. John's, May 30, under the auspices of the Canadian Pacific division.—Adv.
 Raymond Hudson, 3115 R street, is confined to his bed with the gripe.
 Miss Gertrude Pullen and Mr. Ballard Hawkins of Brownwood, Tex., arrived last Thursday and are stopping at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Cordelia Keaton, 2514 K street. Miss Pullen will visit for a few weeks, but Mr. Hawkins expects to make his home here.

BISHOP OF ZANZIBAR ON GERMAN COLONIES IN AFRICA
 "THE Black Slaves of Prussia" is the arresting title of a very important open letter addressed, by consent, to Lieutenant General the Right Hon. J. C. Smuts by the Bishop of Zanzibar, the Right Rev. Frank Weston, D. D., on the future of conquered German East Africa, and which is now obtainable, perhaps, at every bookstand in the country. The main portion of the bishop's pamphlet is devoted to a scathing indictment of how the Germans have treated the natives in East Africa under their colonial system. They are not fit, his lordship confidently declares (and there can be but few if any better judges), to rule a subject people. In the first place, their government is founded on cruelty; indeed, we are told, "cruelty is a mild term in which to describe it." They rule by fear and by fear alone.

Flogging is carried to extreme lengths, and the details the bishop gives are shocking beyond words. But their fiendish inhumanity is further evidenced by their practice of torture. Two cases are related, the victims being friends of the bishop. Forced labor, though nominally forbidden, is common enough. Examples are given from the bishop's personal observation. Worse still, "slavery is a recognized condition under the German flag." As to the future state of the natives these alternatives seem possible to the bishop's statesmanlike mind:
 "Either the colony (what has been German East Africa) may pass under the British flag and rank with British East Africa, Nyasaland, or Uganda, of it may be placed under our flag, with an international board of inspection in the background."
 The second alternative he urges with all his driving power. And his plea is made primarily on the ground of devotion to liberty. In conclusion the Bishop of Zanzibar writes in the following noble strain:
 "Since it is evidently quite impossible to hold inquiries in Africa or to refer these questions to the people (by a referendum), it behooves one who dares to champion the Africans to throw down such a stake as will carry conviction to the British mind. This letter is my stake. For if the Germans return to rule here it will cost me all I hold most dear, my work, my diocese, and my numberless relations with the people of East Africa. All this I am glad to risk that these people may be set free, and our government allowed to fulfil its pledged work and raise liberty to a universal throne."
 The Living Church is asked to say that copies of this pamphlet may be obtained gratis on application to the secretary, Universities' Mission to Central Africa, 9 Dartmouth street, Westminster, London.—The Living Church.
