

Lincoln News

Kindly report your news for The Monitor each week not later than Tuesday, so that we may receive it at our office Wednesday. Report all news to either of the following persons: Mr. Gene Nichols, Mrs. Major Moore or Mrs. Eva Crews.

Mrs. Major Moore has been confined to her home the past week from a severe case of tonsillitis.

Mr. Ed Griffin has returned to the city from the Antioch potash works and resumed his position at the Lincoln hotel.

Mr. Nelson and Mr. Burris are back to our city seeking new employment.

Mrs. Julius Miller was summoned by telegram to Phoenix, Ariz., on account of her husband's illness. She left last Saturday night.

Mrs. Mary Tyler, an evangelist, arrived in the city Saturday morning from Denver and preached at the Baptist church all day Sunday. She is a splendid speaker and will preach Sunday, May 5. She comes highly recommended, as she placed her letter with this church, and will probably remain some time.

The members of the Baptist church feel rejoiced over the fact that Rev. E. R. Powers of El Reno, Okla., has officially notified the church and friends that he accepts the call tendered him as pastor, and will preach his introductory sermon Sunday, May 12, if Providence permits.

Mr. N. Ross and Mr. Ed Griffin united with the Baptist church last Sunday morning. The former is a candidate for baptism.

Mr. and Mrs. McDaniels entertained the Gideon Band Thursday night, serving red, white and blue cake and plenty of ice cream. A large number were out and much business was transacted.

Don't fail to attend the grand musical and patriotic quilt social at the Baptist church May 16, given by the Gideon Band.

A beautiful gold cameo breastpin was presented to Mrs. Mary L. Williams at the tabernacle meeting for her energetic, fair and impartial rulings as preceptress the past year. The gift was thankfully received in a neat speech. Committee on gift, Mrs. L. Johnson, Mrs. Lulu B. Moore and Mrs. Ollie Colley.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Patrick and daughter Edna May of Aurora motored to Lincoln Saturday morning in their new Oldsmobile and were the guests of their brother and sister, James and Flossie Patrick, 2410 Holdrege street, over Sunday, returning Monday afternoon, accompanied by the Misses Flossie Patrick and Miss Mary Burdon, who will spend a few days visiting in their beautiful country home.

Mr. Willis Mosely has recovered from an attack of la grippe.

ATCHISON, KANSAS

An event in the best social circle occurred when Miss Estella Black became the bride of Mr. Guy Glee of Trout Creek, Wyo. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Black and never looked lovelier than she did in her wedding suit of steel grey, worn with shoes and hat to match, while the groom was attired in conventional black. The ceremony was performed by the pastor of the A. M. E. church, Dr. G. P. Billups. The guests were relatives and immediate friends. After the reception the bridal couple left on a bridal tour for the west. They will live in Atchison until the complete recovery of Mrs. Black, who has been ill for some time.

A particularly sad death was that of Miss Clara Belle Lee, an orphan girl of 20 years, who silently passed into the great beyond, accompanied by her heavenly saviour. She leaves to mourn her demise a stepfather, three aunts, two brothers and a host of friends. She is not dead, but sleeping. Sleep on, Clara, and take thy rest; lay your head gently on the Saviour's breast and on that morning when the angels shall sing, awake, dear Clara, for I shall see you again.

Mr. Harold Carr will leave next week for Omaha. Mrs. Carr will remain with her grandmother until Mr. Carr is permanently located, then she will join him, where they will remain until Mr. Carr is summoned to the colors. Mrs. Carrie Kupod accompanied the family of Miss Lee to Hiawatha, where the burial took place.

First Class Private Will Highbaugh spent Sunday at home.

Mr. George Irving, who has been very poorly, is on the mend.

AUSTIN, TEXAS

The secret and social societies are taking out Liberty bonds rapidly.

The stores and all business houses closed Liberty day and the auto parade was headed by the Ben Hur temple band and Shriners.

Thrift stamps purchases were plentiful this week.

Mrs. Mollie Freeman, a former Austin citizen, but now of Fort Worth, is spending a few days with Mrs. Minnie Buckner, 707 East Seventeenth street.

Master Ellis Buckner has been on the sick list.

Miss Cummings, department of S. H. C., will render the operetta, "A Merry Time."

Mr. Hale was buried from the First Baptist church Thursday afternoon. His body was shipped here from Dallas, Tex.

The drama, "Joan of Arc," was well rendered to a big audience.

Quite a number of the S. H. C. boys left for Camp Travis.

Miss T. E. Hardwell, the West Austin teacher, who was sick, is up and able to be at her post of duty again.

Boys' day and a general good time at Wesley church Sunday.

The city-wide revival at the City tabernacle is well attended by white and Colored. Evangelist Wilbanks is doing his bit to have the unsaved saved. Pastor Pfus is the chorister.

The rally at the A. M. E. church was a grand success. Rev. Mr. Walker and members are feeling proud.

A number of white men left to join Camp Bowie at Fort Worth, Tex.

Prof. Lee, principal of the Burdette Prairie school, has secured the services of Madame I. V. N. Simpson to conduct the musical part of the program to be rendered at his closing exercises this week.

More than $10,000 has been subscribed for Liberty bonds by the Colored men of Travis county and its county seat, Austin.

Austin admires classical music, both vocal and instrumental, and dramatic readers always have good houses.

The Monitor is growing popular in this, the capital city.

The weather continues cool here and very frequent showers are causing some damage to vegetables.

Call for copies of The Monitor at 1705 East avenue.

PALESTINE, TEXAS

Palestine is sending off a good crowd of boys to the training camps. Rev. I. W. Watters was a welcome caller at the office recently.

Rev. J. E. Wilson passed through the city, enroute home from Jacksonville, Monday.

Mrs. Cora Dary was in the office last Saturday.

The South Union Baptist church had a rally on Sunday, April 14, and raised $416.25 and took the pie.

West Union Baptist church last Sunday raised $1,000. You know that was good. We can deliver the goods.

We have some rain and hail every night.

A. G. Howard went to Oakwood last Saturday on business.

Rev. M. W. Dogan and Rev. Mr. Haywood were in town Sunday, and the Rev. Mr. Haywood preached at St. Paul's Methodist church. The Wiley Jubilee Singers were with them and they will sing at the city hall on Tuesday night.

The Monitor goes like hot cakes.

St. Paul's church is preparing to pull off a $300 rally on the fourth Sunday in May. Look for the report.

Leroy Ingram shot Tommie Anderson last Monday. Anderson is improving and Ingram has left the city.

Howard & Thomas have moved their insurance office down near the bank.

Mr. Turner has a nice cafe.

Mr. F. E. Fuller is in town looking after business.

Mr. H. L. Price is in town from Cuney, the Negro town.

Among those on the sick list are: Mrs. Charity Brooks, Miss Mary Forney and Mrs. Annie Callia.

BALLOU ORDER STILL OPPOSED

Washington.—Protests continue to come to the war department against the recent order of Major General Ballo, commanding the Ninety-second division, in which Colored troopers are advised to stay away from places of public resort where whites objected, even though such opposition is a violation of civil rights laws. The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Board of Church Extension and the Financial Board of the A. M. E. church are among the bodies that have registered disapproval. The order is said to have been resented at various cantonments and the report comes from Camp Upton, Yaphank, N. Y., that it was torn down.
