MRS. CHARLOTTE DETT AN OMAHA VISITOR

Mrs. James G. Jewell returned Tuesday from Denver, where she has been attending the National Association of Colored Women. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Charlotte Dett of Niagara Falls, N. Y., who stopped over as her guest, to see Mrs. Robert T. Walker. Mrs. Dett, one of New York's most representative women, is the mother of Prof. R. Nathaniel Dett, the eminent composer of Hampton Institute, whose choral works are now being widely used in all of the leading white universities and colleges of the country. Mrs. Dett is also the newly elected chairman of the ways and means committee of the National Association of Colored Women.

UNITT FILES FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER

Charles Unitt, who has filed for the republican nomination for county commissioner in the Fifth commissioner district (which embraces that part of the city from the north side of Dodge from the city limits east to 36th street on the west, then north to Charles street, east on Charles to 30th, north on 30th to Lake, east on Lake to city limits), has resided at 32d and Hamilton streets for the past 36 years. He has always taken an active interest in politics and in improvement club work. Was chairman of the committee of the Prospect Hill Improvement club, which secured the opening of 33d from California to Burt street, personally presenting the matter to the city council, thereby securing the extension of the Harney car line from California and 25th street to its present terminus, 33d and Parker streets. As presiding officer of the Knights of Labor, he had the honor to appoint the committee and worked with them to secure the free text books in the schools of Omaha, thereby enabling thousands of children in this city to secure a high school education, who otherwise would be denied that privilege on account of the cost of books. Mr. Unitt has been fairly successful in business and should be able to look after the affairs of Douglas county with the same degree of success he has done for himself.

HAS FILED FOR COUNTY TREASURER

William G. Shriver has filed for the nomination for county treasurer on the republican ticket. He is a good man for the place. No better could be chosen. He is being backed by a strong organization of Shriver boosters.

Messrs. A. J. Davis, H. F. McClure and A. P. Scruggs are the members of a new real estate firm, known as A. J. Davis & Co., with offices at Thirteenth and Farnam streets. Those well-known gentlemen deserve to succeed.

Many are giving their lives; you are asked only to loan your money.

FROM COTTAGE TO PALACE

Madame J. C. Walker, who a few years ago was a washerwoman and is not ashamed of it, and is now reputed to be the richest Colored woman in the United States, with a quarter of a million mansion at Tarrytown on the Hudson, spoke in Omaha Monday night. We heard her and we were profoundly impressed by her sound, common sense advice, her simplicity and unostentatious manner and her race pride which is manifesting itself in such a practical way. Wealth has not turned Madame Walker's head a bit. She dresses modestly and in good taste. She is a most approachable and democratic. She has come up through a hard school. She is a living demonstration of what persistent, patient hard work will do. She acquired her wealth honestly. She testifies that she owes her success to advertising her goods in race newspapers.

Madame Walker's career should be an inspiration to all our people to cultivate pluck, patience and perseverance. Few of course may attain to her great wealth, but many more can and should embark in some business enterprise and stick at it until success is attained. Madame Walker's career also bears witness to the opportunities before our people in these United States despite certain limitations and handicaps which we can overcome and which instead of being obstacles may be made stepping stones.

From humble cottage to a palace sounds like a fairy tale; but it is a fairy tale that has come true in the case of this woman of our race.
