LARGE RECEPTION TENDERED LINCOLN SELECTMEN

About 300 people were present at the A. M. E. church to the reception tendered the boys who will leave for the training camps Thursday morning, August 1. A very enthusiastic and yet patriotic program was rendered giving the boys much encouragement. The program opened by the singing of "America." A solo by Mrs. Isetta Malone; an address by Mr. Ray man. A reading, "When the Colored Poole; a solo by Mrs. Pearl Chris-Soldiers Enlisted," was delivered in a pleasing manner by Mrs. Smith. An address of "Encouragement" was given by Mrs. Lulu Colley, who has a son somewhere in France.

Rev. I. B. Smith gave an interesting talk telling the boys that they would undergo an experience that would be long remembered. To remember to conquer by the sign of the cross. Rev. Mr. Smith in turn introduced to the audience, one of his old acquaintances, the Hon. Chas. H. Sloan; who made some very complimentary remarks in favor of the boys, saying in part:

There will be a world of equality when this war is over. There will be less of class in America than ever known before. The span that now separates the rich from the poor, the dark race from the light race, will be merely a vision hardly perceptible. This mighty war will be a leavening process that will be filled with merit, rather than manifestation of the soul. After the conclusion of the program the audience retired to the basement of the church, where refreshments were served.

DUNBAR BOOSTERS ENTERTAIN DRAFTEES

An elaborate banquet was given Tuesday evening at the Dunbar cafe, by the "Dunbar Boosters" in honor of the boys who will leave Thursday, morning for the training camps. The boosters were assisted in entertaining the boys by their young lady friends, who were garbed as Red Cross nurses. A splendid program was given, the principal speakers were: Messrs. Richard Young, Trage McWilliams, Clyde Malone and Henry Cruse, who acted as toastmaster. The audience was favored with two excellent solos, one by Miss Opal Ashford and the other by Mr. Henry Nelson. A large crowd was present and a delightful evening was enjoyed. The officers of the "Dunbar Boosters Club" are the following:

President—William Robinson.
Vice President—Monroe Williams.
Treasurer—Henry Nelson.
Secretary—Andrew Moseby.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

One of the largest republican conventions held in a number of years was held Tuesday in the auditorium. The convention was attended by Mr. J. E. Jeltz, Mr. J. H. Gibson and Mrs. Sarah Walker.

The convention was called to order by State Chairman Beach about 12:45, the G. A. R. quartette rendering "The Star Spangled Banner," the audience joining in the chorus.

Rev. J. H. Clemmons, pastor of Grace Methodist church, Lincoln, delivered the invocation. He prayed that the leaders in the state and nation, the officers and men of the army and navy, might be given courage, faith and endurance in the war. The convention dispensed with the reading of the call and accepted as members of the convention verbatim, all accredited delegates whose credentials were in the hands of the state committee. Mr. Devore of Lincoln was temporary chairman.

A SPECIAL ARTICLE

We expect soon to publish a special article on Lincoln, with illustrations of some of our homes and citizens. You will hear about it later.

A very inspiring recital was given last Wednesday evening by two of our noted women, Madame Jean Hodges of New Zealand and Miss Hallie Q. Brown, formerly of Wilberforce college, at Walsh's hall. Though the attendance was small, the recital was one of marked eloquence. Madame Hodges is a woman of high ideals and unusual personality, exceptional musical ability and perseverance. Miss Brown is a woman of unusual talent, having gained her eminence as an elocutionist, not only through the possession of natural talents that unquestionably are hers, but because she has an unbounded capacity for thorough work and the intelligence necessary to make that work effective and appreciative. Madame Hodges and Miss Brown left on the following morning for Omaha, where another excellent recital was promised.

A lawn social was given by the members of the choir on the A. M. church grounds Friday evening. A very pleasant evening was reported. Mrs. Hattie Burch entertained Friday evening in honor of Ms. Cora Price and son of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Jackson of Kansas City, Kas. A delightful evening was enjoyed.

Mrs. Mabel Williams and children returned home Sunday from Sheridan, Wyo., where she had spent several months visiting at the home of her parents and other relatives.

Mrs. J. W. Cooley entertained Wednesday afternoon at dinner in honor of Mr. Leonard Forbes, one of the drafted boys.

Madame Jean Hodges and Miss Hallie Q. Brown, during their short stay in Lincoln, were house guests of Mrs. Charles Haynes.

Mrs. Laura Johnson entertained Saturday evening in honor of Mrs.

Cora Price of Chicago. It is reported that an evening of much merriment was surpassed.

Mrs. Streeter-Williams entertained Mrs. Cora Price last Wednesday evening, by giving her a delightful automobile ride throughout the city.

Mrs. Robert Johnson had as dinner guests Sunday Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Niles and daughter, Lottie, of East Chicago, Ind.

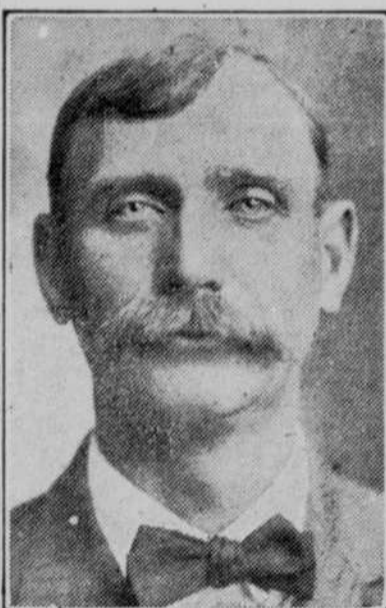

Rev. E. W. Niles delivered two eloquent sermons Sunday, July 28, on "Race Ideals." Morning service at the A. M. E. church, and evening service at the Zion Baptist church.

Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Niles have traveled extensively throughout the United States, Canada and Cuba. They have been away from their home in East Chicago since last September and are now on the return trip. During their short stay in Lincoln they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Corneal. They left Monday morning for Omaha.

H. S. LOWER FOR County Attorney

H. S. Lower, well known lawyer in Lincoln, is a candidate on the Republican ticket for County Attorney. Mr. Lower is a graduate of the State University, has been practicing law in Lincoln for over eight years. He was Deputy County Attorney in 1915-16 and made a splendid record for himself in that position. His qualifications are the best and should be the choice of the voters in the coming primaries.

BREAKS POLE WITH HEAD

Soldier From Here Is Still After the Kaiser.

Joseph McKinley Walker, Company C, Eighteenth infantry, First battalion, Camp Grant, en route with colored troops East, while dreaming of the Huns jumped from his berth, which was No. 13, in nightmare, and struck an iron signal pole with his head, breaking the pole. He was taken to the hospital at Hammond, Ind., apparently dying. Recently he appeared at the depot and begged the agent to get him East so he could rejoin his comrades, who, he said, were bad actors and liable to catch the kaiser before he could get there if he didn't hurry.

MOTOR COP MAKES GOOD

Joins Tank Squad After Completing Task Set Self.

"If I get the fellows that stole that car I'll feel that I am a good man and will enlist in the 'tank' service," declared Leo Hays, a motorcycle policeman of Omaha, to his fellow workers at the police station. Then he left the building in search of two men who had stolen a car from A. L. Gilinsky. Half an hour later he returned with the car and two men.

Hays, who is an expert gas engine mechanic, is now in the tank service.
