WIRE PRESIDENT THANKS

Executive Committee of Recent Liberty Congress Expresses Its Joy Over Anti-Lynching Letter.

Boston, Mass., July 27.—The anti-lynching letter of President Wilson aroused much interest among Negroes. The executive committee of the Colored Liberty Congress held in Washington last month sent the following telegram of appreciation:

Boston, Mass., July 26, 1918 To the President, White House, Washington, D. C.

Sir: The National Colored Liberty Congress, which laid before the government the petition of Colored Americans for abolition of lynching and race proscription in presence of world democracy war, through its executive committee, expresses to you its joy that the appeal of our Liberty Congress has thus soon begun to be realized by your patriotic appeal to the American people to wipe out the inconsistency and disgrace of lynchings. Your anti-lynching letter will partly lift the load from the heart of every Colored soldier in the hope that your words will tend to protect their families at home as they go abroad to fight for democracy.

WILLIAM MONROE TROTTER, Chairman. ALLEN W. WHALEY, Organizer.

BE A MAN

It's a mighty good thing, while you're running life's race Just to pause, as you go, and to come face to face

With your conscience, and ask it a question or two; For it's right you should know what your life means to you.

Have you done things worth while, have you drifted along, Have you filled it with sighs, have you filled it with song, Have you helped when you should, have you tried to do right, Have you struggled for good, or just fought for might?

Have you given your hand to some fellow in need, Have you sneered at a man who was not of your creed, Have you been open-hearted and ready to do, Have you tried to be just, have you tried to be true?

In your judgment of men, have you always been fair, Have you learned to forgive in the face of despair, Have you fought against greed, or succumbed to its lust, Have you learned what it means to protect and to trust?

Oh, it's easy to preach and it's easy to tell Of the other chap's faults—but our own faults, oh, well! We are cowards at times, and the truth you will find Is a thing we dislike, for its rather unkind.

But the Past, let it rest. Give a thought to Today And Tomorrow as well, for the Time's growing gray; Do the things that you should, do the best that you can, Crown your life with your deed—be a red-blooded man! W. Dayton Wegfarth, in the Book News Monthly.
