Primaries August 20

POLITICAL PALAVER AND POINTERS

J. P. PALMER FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY

There are several capable men who are candidates for County Attorney, but our voters will make no mistake if they vote for J. P. Palmer, a splendid man for the position, and one who will be absolutely fair to all classes.

WILLIAM J. BROATCH FOR STATE SENATOR

William J. Broatch is a candidate for the State Senate. As mayor he proved himself a friend to our people. He is a good man, vote for him.

Charles Unitt deserves your vote for commissioner. Give it to him.

Mike Clark has made a good sheriff and as such deserves re-election.

If you have registered as a democrat of course you can vote at the primaries for Richard L. Metcalfe for United States Senator, and "Met" is all right; for Edward Huntley for representative, and "Ed" will make a good one; and for Isaac Konecky for State Senator, who will make himself heard. Yes, there are some good democrats and Congressman Lobeck belongs to this category, along with some others.

ALBERT W. JEFFERIS FOR CONGRESS

When you go to the polls next Tuesday to nominate the man whom you desire to represent you in Congress, vote for Albert W. Jefferis.

JULIUS S. COOLEY FOR MUNICIPAL JUDGE

Julius S. Cooley has filed as a candidate for Municipal Judge on the Republican ticket. Judge Cooley, in season and out of season, for the last thirty years has done anything and everything in his power to secure employment for and to defend and help in any way he could the Colored people. It will therefore be the proper thing for the Colored voters of this city to vote for Julius S. Cooley at the primary next Tuesday.

ROSS L. HAMMOND FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR

Voters who desire a 100 per cent American as United States Senator can make no mistake in supporting Ross L. Hammond. He is a good clean, capable broad-minded man. Here's wishing you success, Mr. Hammond.

MORE DRAFTEES TO LEAVE NEXT THURSDAY AFTERNOON

It has been announced that 170 more of our boys drawn in the selective draft will leave next Thursday afternoon and will go to Camp Pike, Ark.

Mrs. Thomas Bird, V. P. of Friendship Temple No. 347, and Mrs. W. P. White, M. E. Q. of Royal House, will leave for Moberly, Mo., Sunday, where they will meet the Grand Lodge of the U. B. F. and S. M. T. Mrs. Bird will also go on to Hannibal, Mo., and return by the way of Galesburg, Ill., where she will visit relatives and friends.

Samuel Mancuso FOR THE Legislature

Samuel Mancuso filed for the office of State Representative. He has lived in Omaha for over 28 years, and has prospered in business, having helped materially to improve several sections of the city. He rose from the ranks of the day laborer to a business man of high standing. He is a heavy tax-payer and earned his money in Omaha where it is all invested. Quite naturally he will work for laws more fully protecting the tax-payer and small home-owner. He will work for legislation calling for higher efficiency of public office-holders, and for a reduction of tax levies in state and county. Mr. Mancuso is a life-long republican and has done much service for his party. He will work for measures to improve citizenship. He believes that no man should be permitted to vote before taking out his final naturalization papers. He believes in the educational test for voters and that every voter should be required to fill out his own ballot. He is firm in the opinion that America must have but one language, one flag and one people. He is fully alive to the drift of public opinion regarding all questions relating to war work in district and state, and if elected he will exert his best efforts to keep Nebraska in the forefront of states whose people have pledged their highest endeavors to help win the war.
