The Barber

Omaha's Most Successful Barber.

This is what my shop offers you
Five barbers who know their business.

We are now in our new location at Twenty-fourth and Burdette streets, where we will have plenty of room. Everything strictly sanitary and up-to-date with all modern conveniences. My shop stands on its merits for what is right, and what the people demand. A first class place, up-to-date methods, with latest improvements. No pool hall in connection with my business. My shop is open to ladies as well as gentlemen, with 'due courtesy' and respect to all young boys as well. The Colored people are growing and improving and we must meet their demands. They want the best and we must deliver. I have it for you, so come. I solicit your patronage.

I have all guaranteed salary barbers, first class hair cutters and all round workmen. We will try to treat our patrons with due courtesy. Drop in and look the bunch over in the old stand of Mrs. S. R. Jackson's cafe, 24th and Burdette streets.

On The Way To Kaiserland

By Private M. Jordan

Camp Funston, Kas.

Early Monday morning, August 5, relatives, friends and sweethearts gathered at the Union station and, amid "roaring cheers" and "screaming yells" bade au revoir to the most enthusiastic group of young men Omaha has ever sent off to the training camps.

Soon after the men arrived at the station they were comfortably seated, and their iron horse with black mane thrown to the wind sped away. After the last street had been crossed and the last house had been passed and the last bystander had waved adieu, the men who were tottering under the mental excitement fell asleep. Their sleep was of short duration for it was not long before they were wide awake and amusing themselves; some were enjoying the country breezes, some were watching the beautiful landscapes, some were praising the large farms or counting the mile posts, some were waving at the toiling farmer, while others were enjoying or praising their gifts, but all were enthusiastic and happy.

Such were the comments on their gifts: "God bless the Red Cross," "I am glad I am a member," "The Red Cross is the soldier's mother," "Three cheers for the Commercial club," "The Commercial club is on the square."

One young man who was reading a beautiful little bible held it high in the air and cried "Long live my church."

In many of the little towns along the way the boys were given a great reception. They left the train and mingled with the astonished citizens. Some went to nearby stores and bought cakes and pies. One young fellow went into a hotel and found a slice of watermelon. He was almost lynched. Another youngster went so far away the train started away; he met a fellow with a bicycle and over took it, mid great applause. A member of division 5 delivered an ultimatum to a member of division 3 for kissing his girl. War was declared. After a hard struggle No. 5 was flanked on the left and at the same time his front line defense (trench mouth), was smashed and a heavy bomb was dropped on his head. No. 5 retreated in confusion.

We ate dinner at noon. Some of the boys who were not used to eating on a moving train fed their nose about as often as their mouth. We arrived in Kansas City at 5 p. m. and left at 11 p. m. Many friends awaited us there. During our stay a large troop train crowded with white soldiers stopped beside us and many of the boys were from Omaha; great war meetings. About an hour after the white soldiers left a 16-coach train arrived from St. Louis with Colored boys for Camp Funston. We were switched onto the rear of their train and we arrived at Camp Funston at 5:30 Tuesday morning, just in time for "breakfast. From that hour we began to breathe the atmosphere of the army. We were marched to a rest room where we dropped our baggage and went for breakfast. One of our boys called for a face wash. He was told to eat first and wash afterward. After breakfast we had to wash our plates and clean off the places where we ate.

The beginning of army life was a little exciting, but it was funny. After the plates were inspected many of the boys were sent back to wash theirs over again. We returned for our baggage and started on the fastest and most systematic examination we ever witnessed. Seemingly we were examined by a thousand physicians. We did not know a fellow had so many places for examination.

All but two or three passed that examination, and now we are in the detention camp undergoing the real examination. We are supposed to stay here about three weeks, then we will be allowed to enter the main camps.

I wish it was so all Omaha could take a peep at our present home. A little city made to order with about 5,000 boys from all over the country. We are situated in a typical western country, where the blue clear sky and the dry air are nature's remedy for the weak. We are surrounded on three sides by beautiful green hills and on the other by a winding stream.

I wish you could see our sanitary streets, without even a match stub or a cigar butt laying around. Our church grounds on the hill side, our Y. M. C. A., our dance hall, our gymnasium hall and our athletic fields and our drill grounds. I wish you could see the different companies on a march or hard at work on the drill ground, and see the boys on the athletic fields at their sports or hear the boys sing.

Our natural surrounding is beautiful, our boys are happy and our Uncle Sammie is making soldiers out of us.

If you are desirous of a good trade, call and see Poro Jones.

MOB BURNS PROPERTY IN OKLAHOMA TOWN

According to press dispatches from Dewey, Okla., a mob of more than five hundred white people set fire to and burned every Negro home in a section of that city Monday night, August 21. Just how many persons were burned alive could not be learned, but sufficient to say that a large number lost their lives or perished in the flames. Only one Negro home was spared, that of an old woman.

Bad feeling had been brewing for several days, due to labor trouble and strikes are said to be the principal cause of the trouble, but the direct cause was precipitated when a Negro, Ned Widlow, shot the chief of police and another man, who attempted to arrest Widlow for disturbing the peace.

Feeling against all Negroes was high, and it is feared that many innocent persons have been murdered.

EXPRESS GRATITUDE TO PRESIDENT WILSON

Atlanta, Ga.—A letter has been sent to President Wilson from representative Atlanta Negroes with an endorsement and expressing deep gratitude for the president's recent address denouncing mob law as a "disgraceful evil." Many prominent Negroes of Georgia and Alabama signed the letter, which said in part:

"We regard your address as the most significant expression emanating from the White House since Lincoln wrote his emancipation proclamation.

"We thank you, praise God and take courage."

THREE MEN NOMINATED FOR THE LEGISLATURE

Charleston, W. Va.—In the state wide primary held here last Tuesday, three Colored men were nominated on the republican ticket in as many counties, for members of the house of delegates, the lower branch of the legislature. The nominees were: J. V. Coleman, Kimberly, Fayette county; Harry J. Capehart, Keystone, McDowell county; and T. G. Nutter, Charleston, Kanawha county.

WALKER HAIR CULTURERS' CONVENTION

Chicago, Ill.—The second annual convention of the Mme. C. J. Walker Hair Culturists' Union was held at Olivet Baptist church, 27th and Dearborn streets, August 1-3. Nearly 300 delegates were represented by every state in the union.
