AN APPRECIATION OF DAN DESDUNES' BAND

Miles Greenleaf contributes a bright column of miscellany daily to the World-Herald under the heading of "Frenzied Romance." If you don't read it you are missing a genuine treat. It deals generally with Omaha men and affairs. In last Saturday's issue Miles pulled off the following pleasing and deserved jingle complimentary to one of Omaha's most patriotic and appreciated musical organizations:

Ode to Dan Desdunes

When Dan Desdunes goes marching by
He makes us laugh and makes us cry.
His russet-colored band has stuff
To make a rabbit fierce and tough
When he goes marching by.

When drafted men are off to fight,
If they be black, or if they're white,
They hit a firm and martial step
And demonstrate a lot of pep—
If Dan Desdunes is right.

But if Desdunes is sorrowful
And for a funeral must pull
A dirge he'll smile upon his fate
And every measure syncopate
With melancholy bull.

He'll ever be as cheerful as
The joyous days of gin and razz,
And as his band goes blaring by
You'd scarcely think the state is dry—
So giddy is his jazz!

When I am drafted let his tunes—
Let all the merriment that croons
From all his reeds my service greet
As I go prancing down the street
Preceded by Desdunes!

VARDAMAN DEFEATED FOR SENATE NOMINATION

Jackson, Miss.—In answer to the plea sent out by President Wilson a few days ago, Mississippi voters concerted their efforts and dealt an overwhelming defeat to Senator James Vardaman in the democratic senatorial primaries held throughout the state. He was snowed under by Congressman Patrick Harrison, whose final majority will probably reach 20,000.

LIBERTY LOAN CONFERENCE

The fourteen district managers of the Nebraska liberty loan committee met in Omaha Friday and completed plans for the campaign which opens September 28. State Chairman T. C. Byrne, who recently returned from an interstate conference at Kansas City, passed on the ideas brought out there. One county in Nebraska is so well organized it has already $100,000 pledged for the fourth liberty loan.

PLEASANT WAY ALWAYS BEST

Nothing Ever Lost by Effort to Take
Sting Out of Request That Must Be Refused.

Do you know how to take the sting out of anything unpleasant you have to do? It is a good plan to learn how to do this.

"She said she couldn't do it, but you know how Effie would say such a thing. She tries so hard to make everybody feel pleasant. Now, when I say no, people understand that I mean no."

Marcia looked as well pleased with herself as if she had announced a more amiable characteristic. She was a girl with a peculiarly blunt and uncompromising manner. If she refused a request, her refusal was as downright as a blow. It was never softened by any little phrase suggesting regret. And Marcia was so well satisfied with herself that she felt something like contempt for the way Effie took the sting out of saying no, and made the people to whom she refused a favor as grateful as if she had granted it.

The girl who starts to go through life with her elbows out is going to find the road hard to travel. If she prides herself on being blunt and outspoken, she may need to use that as consolation for her sore heart many a time. It pays to make even a refusal pleasant. It pays to take out the sting whenever possible, and drop in the honey. One who starts out as Marcia did, priding herself on being blunt, and contemptuous of the little courtesies, is likely to come to old age friendless and embittered. Learn to be pleasant and take out the sting.—Exchange.

ADD COLOR TO THE GARDEN

Goldfinches, Always Attracted by Sunflowers, Make Beauty Spot Especially Attractive.

A very familiar bird in our gardens, especially when there are sunflowers growing there, is the beautiful little American goldfinch.

Their deep black-wings and tail and little cap form a striking, though pleasing, contrast to their bright yellow bodies.

Because of their sweet, canary-like notes they are often called wild canaries.

They are very sociable little birds, being found usually in small flocks; they even build their nests in small communities.

When winter approaches the male changes his bright yellow coat for one of a soberer color closely resembling that of the female.

Numbers of them feed upon the sunflowers in my garden every year, and it is a pleasing sight to go in there and see their bright yellow bodies flashing in the sun.

They are hardy little fellows, spending the entire winter with us.—New York Sun.

Moving Pictures for the Home.

A comparatively inexpensive combination moving-picture camera and projector for amateur use is illustrated in Popular Mechanics Magazine. It bears about the same relation to the costly and heavy professional machines as a cumbersome apparatus employed by portrait photographers. Exclusive of its tripod, the new movie camera weighs less than three and a half pounds. It uses standard film and is operated as easily as any simple "still" instrument. The capacity of its magazines, designed for daylight loading, is twenty feet, which, because eight instead of sixteen pictures are taken per second, records as much action as forty feet of film in a professional machine. Sharp, clear pictures capable of reasonable enlargement for "stills" are obtained. By changing the lens attaching a light frame with reels of 200-foot capacity, and mounting a small, cylindrical lamp-house, the camera is converted into a projector.

Serbian Great Walkers.

All Serbian peasants are great walkers. A servant, given a short leave, will think nothing of footing it to his home, five and twenty miles off, and walking back after a short day spent with his family.

It is quite in the ordinary way of their business for both men and women to be two days on the road to market. Owing to their remarkable marching powers Serbian troops are mobilized and moved with surprising rapidity, in spite of the great lack of railway communication. And then they march high.

With little in the bread-bag that hangs at his belt the Serbian soldier is quite content if only he can roll himself a cigarette now and then and look forward perhaps to a tot of plum-cognac.

He Knew.

The Fat Customer—I want half a dozen collars, please.

The Clerk—What size?

The F. C.—Thirteen and a half.

The Clerk—Surely you must take a larger collar than that. What size shirt do you wear?

The F. C.—Sixteen.

The Clerk—Then why do you wish such a small collar?

The F. C.—Why, confound ye, I'm buying them for my boy!

Uplift of Coyote.

The despised coyote has lived to see the day when his pelt is sought in the fur markets of the world as one of the prizes of the trapper's pack. The skin of the prairie wolf today brings a price up to $15, according to the quotations in the fur buyer's list. Up till last year this fur was a drug on the market.—Dawson News.
