PROF. CHARLES STEWART DELIVERS LECTURE

Charles Stewart of Chicago delivered a most telling, forceful and instructive lecture last Saturday night in the lecture room of St. John's church on Uncle Ned and His Son. Prof. Stewart is a brilliant speaker, with a large fund of well-digested knowledge, and a keen sense of humor. He told how Uncle Ned played his part and played it well under the old regime and was loved by those who knew him. For thirty years from 1865 to 1895 the south mourned his demise. When Booker T. Washington made his famous speech at Atlanta, the south said Uncle Ned has risen again; but they found that it was Uncle Ned's son. He then showed how Uncle Ned's son, the forceful, industrious, ambitious Negro is everywhere forging to the front and helping to make the history of America. He told of the impetus the war has given to Uncle Ned's son. He showed how conditions are improving despite apparent evidence to the contrary in many quarters. He wittily but forcefully called attention to many racial weaknesses which it is our duty to overcome.

The speaker was introduced by the Rev. Dr. Logan, pastor of Grove M. E. church.

FORTY-FOUR MORE DRAFTES LEAVE FOR CAMP

Wednesday afternoon and night forty-four more of our Omaha boys left for training camp; thirty-four leaving for Camp Lewis and ten for Camp Pike. The men were dined at the Chamber of Commerce at noon and at 3:30 the usual program was given by Desdunes band at the court house. Speeches were made on behalf of the city by Mayor Smith and the Rev. M. H. Wilkeinson, pastor of Mt. Moriah Baptist church, bade them God-speed on behalf of their friends. Both though brief were excellent. Headed by the band and accompanied by Red Cross workers and citizens the boys were accompanied to the train and sent on their way with cheers and good wishes.

EDITOR CHILES OF TOPEKA PLAINDEALER HERE

Nick Chiles, the manly editor of the Topeka Plaindealer, was here in attendance upon the Methodist conference. Nick Chiles is a man who has the courage of his convictions and is never afraid to express them. He is now at work to secure a review of the case of the members of the Twenty-fifth infantry implicated in the Houston riot and who are now imprisoned at Fort Leavenworth. He believes that there should have been given an opportunity for a review of the evidence in the case of these men and for that he is contending.

Every minister and delegate expressed their many thanks to the members and friends of St. John's for their royal treatment while in the city. This was said to be the most enjoyable conference in thirty years.
