LA GRANGE, TEX.
 There is great rejoicing here today over the signing of terms of the armistice by Germany, which has given vent to itself in mammoth parades and other demonstrations.
 A fine rain fell here last Friday.
 Mrs. Allene Fields Hempstead arrived in the city last Saturday night and will spend a few days as the guest of Mrs. Clementine Riley.
 Mrs. Anna Moten, an old and respected citizen of the city died here at her home last Thursday morning, after an illness of nearly two years. She was buried near Plum in the Post Oak community, Rev. S. A. Tillman officiating, under auspices of the Daughters of Tabor lodge here, of which she was an old member, also an old member of the Ebenezer Baptist church.
 Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Schermack spent a few hours in the city last Sunday on business.
 Master Clyde Smith, son of Mrs. Addie Warren, is suffering from a very painful wound on his hand.
 Mr. Gabriel Herril, who has been away some months, was seen on the streets of our town last week.
 Five young Colored boys, wearing U. S. N. A. badges, left here last week for training in the Prairie View college for government service. They were: Sherman Martin, Ollie Scott, Henry Eason, Geo. Stevens and Edgar Dobbin.
 An account of inclement weather. Rev. S. T. Floyd was not able to get a crowd to hear him last Wednesday night.
 Mrs. D. L. Sanford, El Paso, who has been the guest of Mrs. Clementine Riley for two weeks, will leave for her home Tuesday.
 Sick: Mesdames Julia King, Julia Sutton, Edith Johnson, Clementine Riley, Pauline Phearse and the family of Mr. Will Walker.
 Rev. S. A. Tillman was on hand Sunday and held the first regular service in a month. Preaching morning and night. Collection, $23.05.
 Rev. G. L. Mills preached at the St. Paul A. M. E. church Sunday morning and night.
 Rev. William White, P. C., M. E. church, preached at Ellinger Sunday.

PALESTINE, TEX.
 A. G. Howard, Agent.
 The news comes that the war is over and everybody was in full glee. The people all assembled in front of the Farmers and Citizens Savings bank and there was a good deal of speaking from some of our best talent and there was a mass of people out to hear the good news.
 Mrs. Stella Johnson died last Saturday.
 The body of Hors Elerson was shipped in from New York a few days ago. He was a soldier on his way to France.
 Everything is looking well in this country now.
 All the churches had good services Sunday.
 The Christians had an educational convention at the Fulton street church last week and they raised $6,068 for education.
 Mr. A. S. Davis was in the office on business today.
 Mr. H. L. Price was in the office today.
 Mrs. Jesse McKenzie has returned from a visit to Kilgore, where her sister was sick and she reports that her sister is much better.
 The sick list for the week is: Mrs. Smithy Thomas, Mrs. George Thomson, Chollet Williams.
 The influenza is getting some better and the people are all ready to go to their business.
 Mr. John Dixon was in the city today looking after the Reform home and he is a hustler for that place.

NEBRASKA CITY NEWS
 Nebraska City is some town since we all got interested in The Monitor.
 The "flu" ban is lifted and we are sure hungry for one of those soul-stirring sermons that Rev. Mr. Stapleton preaches.
 Mrs. Anna Jones of Moline, Ill., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hodge Ellis.
 Mr. and Mrs. Dan Smith spent Sunday in Lincoln.
 Miss Winifred Robinson is suffering with a very bad cold.
 Mrs. Arfura Stewart is in the city visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Harding Hampton, who has been very ill, but is some better.
 Mayor Smith says we should give thanks together. Sounds a little like Jim Dahman talking, doesn't it?
 Well, if we fight and die together, why not live and praise God together? If you haven't got your copy of "The Children of the Sun" you are missing something fine. Mr. Rollin Shafroth is absorbing his with interest and says it is a little book worth while.
 We will now begin to save our Christmas money.
 No, Laura, we are not going to get that wrist watch; just a pound of butter and a half-dozen eggs.
 We were very sorry to hear of Frank

Stewart's death. He was a nice, quiet gentleman.
 Four pounds of sugar and whole wheat bread—oh, boy!
 Miss Florence Smith, who has been living in Kansas City, will winter in Omaha.
NEWS FROM ATCHISON, KANSAS
 Mrs. Lannie Peterson has bought the property where she has resided for years, 418 Santa Fe street.
 William Whiteside and Mrs. E. Anderson were married in St. Joseph Monday.
 Rev. J. W. Lee went to Leavenworth Tuesday to assist Rev. Hays in a revival.
 Mrs. William Smothers and Mrs. James Brown went to Kansas City Sunday to witness the cornerstone laying of Rev. Mr. McNeal's church.
 John Scott, the popular bacheor, entertained Friday evening at his beautiful home in honor of his niece, Mrs. Charles Bratten.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Jetz are on the sick list.
 Mrs. Clara Webster writes from Danville, Ill., that she is convalescent and will be at home soon.
 Rev. Felix Pillows went to Oak City Sunday on business.
 It is said one of our choicest young men is seriously flirting with Cupid.
 Port William talent presented "An Evening in Old Kentucky," a drama, Friday night at the Ebenezer Baptist church to a good sized audience. It is a reproduction of many occurrences of Southern slavery days which history fails to impart to the young generation. The special characters were: Miss Grace Ingram as "Aunt Dinah," Rich Lyles as "Uncle Ephriam and Dinah's husband, Lincoln Buchanan, slave owner; Frank Ingram, "Mr. St. Clair," his friend. The play was well dramatized and rendered accordingly. Port William is noted for its literary attainments, as well as an abundance of agricultural success. Mrs. Blossy Buchanan was the efficient music director.

OGDEN, UTAH, NEWS
 Mr. Isaac Lowrey, who was shot accidentally here on the 11th, died on the 12th and was buried by the Colored Elks. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his loss.
 Mrs. Louise Turner and Mrs. Tutwilder are on the sick list.
 Mr. Matt Gale has returned to his job as red cap, after three weeks' vacation in Kansas City. He reports a fine trip.
 Some of the Short Line waiters were detained in Pocatello with the "flu."
 The bills are out for the Elks ball. Watch the date.
 Get The Monitor at the Star newsstand in Ogden.

COUNCIL BLUFFS
 Despite the bad weather Tabernacle Baptist church had three splendid services last Sunday, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Jackson, preaching morning and afternoon. His morning topic was, "The Limitation of Prayer"; the afternoon, "The Church Celebrating Her Freedom." In the evening Licentiate Parker preached.
 Next Sunday, November 24, will be the closing of the rallies. Men and women of other churches are coming. At 3 p. m. the Rev. Thomas A. Taggart will preach. Come and help the railroad of your choice—the Burlington, Mrs. E. W. Wade, conductor; the Rock Island, Mrs. Cora Parkins, conductor; the Union Pacific, Mrs. Emmeline Walker, conductor; the Northwestern, Mrs. Tillie Priest, conductor.
 Mr. and Mrs. Hill are reported on the sick list, also Mrs. J. Kennard and daughter.
 A pleasant surprise was tendered the Rev. J. P. Jackson by his members under the leadership of Mrs. M. Turner. The donations were generous and the larder was well supplied.

"FLU" STRIKES AFRICA HARD
The Health of Freetown
 The whole of Freetown lies at present under the shadow of a great anxiety due to the outbreak of a rather strange epidemic, and to the serious effects which have been widespread. On Saturday last the number of deaths registered in the newspapers as from Thursday, August 22 to Friday, August 30, amounted to 38; and from last Saturday, August 31, to Thursday afternoon, September 5, the number as appears in another column, has amounted to two hundred and twenty-three. It is said that nearly one hundred more have been registered up to the time of our going to press.
 Decidedly frightful as has been the number of registered deaths from all classes and conditions—white and black; agents of European firms and native clerks of government offices and mercantile establishments, unmarried young men and women as well as married—yet the seriousness of the effect of the epidemic does not fully appear in these casualties; for, apart from those who have collapsed the number of people who have been ill in bed and totally incapacitated for business of any kind is tremendous.—The Sierra Leone Weekly News.
