HOME GUARDS DISSOLVED

The following is the official order for dissolving the Home Guard: State of Nebraska, Adjutant General's Department

Office of the Adjutant General Chief of Staff, Lincoln
December 31, 1918.

Home Guard General Orders No. 4

1. The emergency under which the organization of the Home Guard Companies in Nebraska was authorized by House Roll No. 6 enacted at the extraordinary session of the legislature and approved April 8, 1918, having passed, all Home Guard Companies organized under the provisions of this act are hereby mustered out of the service of the State of Nebraska.

2. At this time I wish to express my appreciation of the services rendered by the Home Guard organizations of the state. But few cases have arisen which have called for the services of the Home Guard as such, but the willingness displayed by the Guards on these occasions showed the spirit animating the organization.

By Command of
GOVERNOR NEVILLE.
H. E. Clapp, Adjutant General.

Captain E. T. Swobe, who was in command of the local Colored company expressed to The Monitor his regret at the abandonment of the Home Guard. Captain Swobe said: "I appreciate the spirit and enthusiasm which the men were putting into the company. They were responding admirably. It was a pleasure to serve with them and I feel confident that mine would have been the crack company of the regiment."

PATRICK GOES TO CHICAGO; PARKER SUCCEEDS HIM

Bert Patrick, who has been advertising solicitor for The Monitor for several months, left last Thursday afternoon for Chicago to enter the employ of the Kashmir Chemical company, a large and growing firm which is putting out a splendid line of toilet articles, unsurpassed by any firm in America. It is a mark of progress when members of the race can finance, manage and put upon the market the high class of goods manufactured by the Kashmir company. Mr. Patrick will be one of the road representatives of this firm. As his work and connection with The Monitor has helped to land him this position it is confidently believed that wherever he goes, if opportunity permit, he will not fail to put in a good word for The Monitor.

Mr. George Wells Parker has now added to his other duties on The Monitor those of advertising manager.

THE N. A. A. C. P. FORUM WELL ATTENDED

The Forum of the N. A. A. C. P. held an interesting and well attended meeting at St. John's A. M. E. church last Sunday afternoon. George Wells Parker delivered an able address on "The Basis for Permanent Peace," which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Mr. Parker gave a careful analysis of the causes leading up to the war, which might be epitomized as commercial jealousy. He emphasized the difficulties to be settled at the peace table centering around "a League of Nations" and "the Freedom of the Seas." His conclusion was that the only basis for permanent peace would be popular control of wealth and the submission of the question of the declaration of war to the vote of the people. With this policy of every nation of the world peace would be permanent.

The forum will meet at 4 o'clock next Sunday afternoon when the following program will be given:

Chorus, "Come Where the Lilies Blow;" recitation by Miss Rachel Woods; solo, by Miss Ray Middleton; recitation by Miss Ione Lewis; male quartette; paper, "Progress of a Race;" Miss Iola Brown, and a solo by Miss Darlene Duvall.

CHORAL CLUB GIVES DANCING PARTY

The Choral club, a newly organized musical association composed of several of Omaha's leading young ladies, gave an informal dancing party New Year's night at the residence of Mrs. J. E. Brown, 2883 Miami street. Several of the returned soldiers were guests.

WIFE OF BISHOP FLIPPER DIES

Atlanta, Ga.—The wife of Bishop J. P. Flipper of Morris Brown college, who is the head of the African Methodist church in Georgia, died shortly before 10 o'clock Tuesday night. She was 58 years old and is survived by two sons and one daughter.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for their many kindnesses and beautiful floral designs during the illness and death of our beloved wife and sister. JAMES HARRIS.
MRS. G. R. STEEL.
MRS. JENNIE STROTHER.
MISS NELLIE HAWKINS.

MISS VICTORIA OVERALL DIES IN KANSAS CITY

Was One of the First Colored Girls to Graduate From Omaha High School—Body Brought Here for Interment in Family Lot.

THE body of Miss Victoria Overall, daughter of the late Edwin R. Overall, accompanied by her brother, Guy, was brought to Omaha from Kansas City Sunday morning and was interred in the family lot at Prospect Hill cemetery Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, the committal being said by the Rev. John Albert Williams. Miss Overall was one of the first Colored girls to be graduated from the Omaha high school and has been one of Kansas City's most successful teachers for many years. She was active not only in educational work, but also in charitable and religious work, being a faithful communicant of and diligent worker in St. Augustine's Episcopal church. Miss Overall had been in poor health for some months and died Dec. 29. Funeral services were held Saturday morning in St. Augustine's church, the Rev. Rohring officiating, the body being brought to Omaha for interment. Between the hour of arrival and interment the casket rested in the chapel of the Silas Johnson Western Funeral home.

Her father, Edwin R. Overall, was the first Colored man to hold a clerkship in the Omaha postoffice, and at the time of his death was one of the oldest and most highly respected letter carriers in the city.

ZION BAPTIST

W. F. Botts, Pastor

Sunday morning, despite the cold weather a large crowd was present, and the fullness of each heart was poured forth in prayer, song and speech at the old time covenant service. This was followed by the Lord's supper.

At 1 p. m. Sunday school convened, and after an interesting session, the election of officers was held, with the following result: Superintendent, Mrs. Oiesia Harris; assistant superintendent, R. L. Turner; second assistant, A. F. Flannigan; secretary, Miss Aline Bentley; assistant secretary, Miss Beatrice McGowan; treasurer, G. Levitt; organist, Miss Irene Cochran. Don't fail to send your children to this able body of officers to learn of God's word. Let this be a banner year for our school.

At 6:30 came the B. Y. P. U., another interesting auxiliary of the church. The following officers have been chosen for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Lena Dallas; vice president, Mrs. Fred Clark; second vice president, Rev. M. D. Johnson; secretary, Mrs. J. Gorham; assistant secretary, Neola Jenkins; treasurer, Mrs. L. Webster; organist, Mrs. Clara Toddy Guy.

The first report on the systematic giving fund was read last Friday night, and a total of $4,000 was reported raised since May 5, aside from the current expenses of the church.

The sick of the church are Mrs. L. Smith Davis and Mrs. Cooper and daughter. We hope for their speedy recovery.

Old Cupid has been quite busy in our ranks the past few weeks. Among those who have fallen victims to his darts are Mr. J. Gorham and Miss Elizabeth Gipson, Mr. Wm. Baker and Miss Beatrice Kyle, Mr. L. Hatcher and Mrs. Hawkins and Mr. Clarence Trent and Mrs. Susie Smith. As the story goes, may they live happily ever after.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH NEWS

Rev. W. C. Williams, Pastor

Sunday services were largely attended. There were five additions to the church.

The S. S. campaign for new members closed last Sunday with the "Reds" as victors. The number of new scholars added will be given next week.

Mrs. Janie Freeman is seriously ill at the University hospital.

I desire to thank the friends for their kindness during the illness and death of my husband, Fred Williams.

MRS. FRED WILLIAMS.

BERT WILLIAMS IN VAUDEVILLE

New York, Jan. 8.—Arrangements were perfected last week between F. Ziegfeld, manager of Bert Williams, and E. F. Albee of the United Booking Offices, whereby Mr. Williams will take a flier in vaudeville for several weeks prior to going into the Midnight Frolic on top of the New Amsterdam roof.

The big comedian opened at the Palace theater, New York, this week. He has all new songs and they are beyond a doubt the best collection he has had the good fortune to possess in years.
