ST. JOHN'S CHURCH NEWS The Rev. W. C. Williams, Pastor

Sunday was quarterly conference and very large crowds worshipped at the three services during the day.

There were five persons added to the church. The collection for the week was $200.

The sick of the church are Mesdames Mattie Lewis, Clara Jones, 1142 North 20 street; Alma Osborne, and Messrs. Charles Garrett and Thisler, 2404 North 25th street.

One of the most beautiful and artistic affairs of the season was a Valentine luncheon given on last Friday evening by the W. W. club, which is composed of young married ladies of the church. About 200 beautifully gowned ladies and handsomely dressed gentlemen entered the lecture room of the church, which had been very befittingly transformed into a banquet room. Upon entering each guest was presented with flowers by Mesdames Chas. Morris and Arthur Rafferty, whose gracious smiles were the initial incidents to the evening's enjoyment. They were then served to punch after which they were seated to the various tables amid the loops and bands of hearts and cupids which streamed from every nook and corner interspersed here and there by cloisters of flowers and ferns. The luncheon, which consisted of a most delicious menu, creamed chicken in potato baskets, spring peas, vegetable salad, hot rolls, pickles, ripe and green olives, ice cream dotted with candy red hearts, cake and black coffee, was interspersed by beautiful strains of music rendered by Mrs. Estella Douglas Mc Coy, Miss Pearl Ray, accompanied by Miss Ozelia Dunning, through the management of Mrs. Jessie Moss.
