PLEASANT GREEN BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. John Costello, Pastor

There was a large attendance all day Sunday and enthusiastic services following the return of the pastor from St. Louis, where he went on a ten-day visit.

The Rev. J. P. Jackson preached Sunday night.

The church is conducting a revival all this month. The Rev. J. K. Parker of St. Louis will be here Sunday to participate.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

W. F. Botts, Pastor

Services were well attended both morning and evening last Sunday.
Many souls were uplifted by the gospel feast at Zion. In the morning the pastor's subject was "Co-operation with God," and in the evening he spoke on "Obedience." Both were nothing less than spiritual treats.

The event of last week was the lecture by Lieut. Edward Turner, just from over there. He was welcomed by Commissioner Dean Ringer, Omaha Red Cross chapter, a body of returned soldiers and a vast and enthusiastic audience; it being necessary to utilize the dining room as well as the main part of the building to accommodate the crowd. Music was furnished by the famous Desdunes band and Zion Baptist choir. Lieut. Turner appeared under the auspices of the Matron's club.

The sick list of the church includes:
Mother Rose, Mrs. Stearns, Bro. Pope, Sister Susie Scott and Sister Minnie Cole.

All auxiliaries are meeting regularly each week.

Watch for the "Men Laymen" for March 17; "Progressiveness" is our slogan.

Regular services next Lord's day.
Strangers invited.

AN INTERESTING OCCASION

By Ailey W. Lewis, L. L. B.

At St. John's A. M. E. church there was held on the evening of March 9 what the writer elects to call a sacred concert.

It is called sacred because it admitted of super-natural and divine guidance, and is called a concert because of the dominance of the concord of sweet music.

The program consisted of musical selections of the beautiful voiced choir of the church, two papers read by two young men and an address delivered by Lieutenant Edward Turner entitled, "The Customs of France."

The aspect of the neatly uniformed lieutenant was that of nobleness and patriotism. The air of the lieutenant was that of becoming dignity and most pleasant withal. His discussion of his subject was clear and concise, and bespoke his knowledge of good English. In telling of the customs of France he betrayed his happy faculty of observation and his gift of great common sense to convey his observations understandingly to them who were to hear him. His discussions must be considered as a rare treat to the Colored people of Omaha, and they determine conclusively that for once in the history of this country the historical facts concerning the valor of the Negro patriot in war will be told if not written.

Two young men, Messrs. M. H. Randall and Russel Reese read papers, one upon the subject, "The Negro as a Soldier;" the other, "The Negro Soldier." The papers were quite scholarly. Their rendition evidenced much effort and a laudible degree of sincerity of purpose together with excellent ability of delivery. Their spirit were that of inspiration and their ideals of race pride.

While I regard it as an arch idea in giving the laity a chance to sermonize and the opportunity of expression of its "pent up" and latent talent—including every rendition of this splendid program—yet I admit that I am and we all ought to be greatly enthusiastic over the worthy efforts of the young men—and in fact all young people. For it is upon our young people that shall fall the mantle of the race's future—with them our destiny must some day rest until it is transmitted to their successors.
They are the future exponents of race expression. Their efforts shall not go without great praise, and they should be encouraged to greater effort and bade to still pursue and still achieve.
I am inclined to take it that we are rather neglectful of the latent talent of our young people. We should never forget them, not even for a moment.
The least we can do for them is to encourage them and we ought to give them actual physical help. If we fail to do for them the things we ought we shall realize the racial tree withering and shedding its blooms to be fruitless and then it will be sadly recalled that we struck the ax at the root.

The occasion was a veritable sermon, not a literal sermon—but a sermon by example. The greatest poets said there are tongues in trees, books, in running brooks, and sermons in stones. So how much more evident shall it be said to be that there are sermons in human action.

Shakespeare says in "The Merchant of Venice" that the quality of mercy is twice blessed, blessing him that gave and him who received. But this occasion was thrice blessed, blessing the participants, blessing them who made the occasion possible, and blessing those who witnessed it. I think the Rev. W. C. Williams and his church are to be congratulated for their liberality of view in this occasion.

May the laity be given many such opportunities, for by them it shall advance, and the advancement of the laity is no hindrance to the church.

WILL SPEAK FOR BENEFIT OF OLD FOLKS HOME

The N. W. C. A. home, the only charity conducted by our people in this city, is in dire need of funds.
This is an institution that ought to be supported. Small monthly contributions from a goodly number of our race in this city would give it ample funds. This, however, is not done. Therefore the management of the home needs funds and needs them badly. Lieut. Andrew T. Reed, who has just returned from France, has cheerfully consented to give an address Thursday night March 13, at Zion Baptist church, which has been offered for that purpose, for the benefit of the home. The entire proceeds of the evening are to be given to the home. A brief program will be rendered. The people ought to turn out in large numbers Thursday night to help the N. W. C. A. home.

MOVEMENT FOR A Y. M. C. A.

A meeting was held at the residence of Mr. Barker, 2706 Parker street, Sunday afternoon to take steps for securing a branch of the Y. M. C. A. which it is felt is a much-needed institution for our young men and boys in this city. Nate Hunter was chosen chairman of the meeting and J. L.
Jones, secretary. It was the unanimous opinion that an effort should be made to secure a branch "Y." A committee was named to obtain names of prospective members and also to plan for a mass meeting at which the subject will be fully presented and discussed. Dr. P. W. Sawyer is chairman of the committee.

South Side Notes

Mrs. Matt Hilton of 5710 South Thirty-third street has been quite sick for more than a week with an attack of lagrippe. She is some better.

Mr. A. Hill of Oklahoma, who has been here for about five weeks, visiting his daughters, Mrs. Charles Cage and Mrs. Louise Redd, and grandchildren, returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. Millie Carr of 1508 Y street is agent for Madam Walker's hair grower on South Side. She also treats and cares for the hair and scalp.

Mrs. Alice Nelson, who underwent an operation three weeks ago, is doing nicely. She is able to sit up.

Mrs. Myrtle Garner, who has been quite sick with influenza, took suddenly worse last Sunday, but is reported to be a little better at this writing.

The entertainment given at the A.
M. E. church by Mrs. William Carter, Wednesday evening, March 5, was quite a success. The evening being pleasant there was a large number present. The concert was good and was enjoyed by every one. Prizes were awarded as follows: A beautiful cut glass vase was carried off by Miss Elsie Carter as a reward for selling the largest number of door tickets; a large three-layer angel food cake was won by Mr. Jones, who held the lucky No. 8, which was drawn by little Miss Jeanette Blackston; a beautiful silk ribbon handbag was carried off by Mrs. Hollow, who guessed the nearest number of beans in a jar. There was a clearance of $32, for which Mrs. Carter was very proud, it being her first attempt at giving a concert. She wishes to thank each and every one who took a part in the concert, also the many patrons who helped to make the evening a success.

THE N. A. A. C. P. FORUM

The N. A. A. C. P. forum held an interesting meeting at St. John's A.
M. E. church last Sunday afternoon.
There was an excellent attendance.
Mrs. McCoy sang a solo which was most enthusiastically received. Mr.
Ailey W. Lewis, L. L. B., delivered a most scholarly and able address on the character, principles and work of the association. His clear and forcible presentation of the dangers of the undemocratic evils, basic and fundamental, which the association has been organized to fight, gave a new viewpoint to his audience. The Rev. W.
F. Botts, pastor of Zion Baptist church, made a brief address and extended a cordial invitation to the forum to meet at his church. His invitation was accepted and the forum will meet at the Zion Baptist church, 22d and Grant streets, next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Public invited to attend.
