ATTORNEY AILEY W. LEWIS TO DELIVER LECTURE

Ailey W. Lewis, L. L. B., formerly of Denver, Colo., who made such a favorable impression by his scholarly address recently delivered before the N. A. A. C. P. forum, is to give a lecture entitled "The Democracy of Patriotism" at the Grove Methodist Episcopal church next Tuesday night.
Mr. Lewis is a pleasing speaker, with a logical, well furnished mind and an attractive personality. He has had excellent educational opportunities of which he has taken good advantage, being a graduate of the high school of Carnegie, Pa., and of the University of Colorado; having also been a student of Muskingum college, New Concord, Ohio. He has a worth-while message for the people and knows how to deliver it.

Parker will be here all this week.

Rev. J. A. Broadnax of Allen Chapel
A. M. E. church, South Side, preached an excellent sermon at 3:30.

LIEUT. ANDREW REED SPEAKS FOR N. W. C. A. HOME

Last Thursday night an appreciative audience assembled in Zion Baptist church and listened to an interesting address by Lieutenant Andrew T.
Reed, who was with the 368th infantry in the famous September drive in the Argonne forest. He told his interesting story simply and plainly and made a most favorable impression.

The lecture was given for the benefit of the N. W. C. A. old folks' home.
The Crispus Attucks chapter of the Red Cross attended in a body. An opening number, "America," led by Zion's splendid choir, was joined in by the entire audience.

Mrs. John Smith, on behalf of the Red Cross, gave a fitting welcome in well chosen words. The Rev. W. F.
Botts gave a brief but effective address on the need of supporting this worthy charity. The Rev. John Albert Williams introduced Lieutenant Reed, whom he had known from his infancy.

Mrs. Martha Smith, president of the home, graciously thanked the lecturer and the audience for their assistance to this institution, for the maintenance of which a few women had worked most faithfully.

ENTERTAINS ON HER BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. General Scott was hostess at a beautiful informal luncheon at her residence Wednesday, March 12, from 2 to 6 o'clock, in honor of her birthday anniversary. The house was decorated with pink and green. A cutglass vase with ferns and pink carnations was used as a centerpiece for the dining room table, and tiny blue and yellow birds marked the places of nine guests.
The six-course menu consisted of chicken bouillon, cheese, wafers, pickles and olives, chicken patties, French peas, candied sweet potatoes, hot rolls, Waldorf salad, mayonnaise, cream cheese, ice cream and cake, punch, coffee and after dinner mints.
The guests included Mesdames E.
Scott, Umphry, Nevins, Carr, Miller, Winston, Hickman, Richardson and Jackson. The luncheon was served by Mr. A. Miles of the University club.
