COUNCIL BLUFFS NEWS

At the Bethel A. M. E. church, March 12, the young people of the church gave a grand entertainment for the boys from overseas. The speakers of the evening were Attorneys John Tinley and A. W. Lewis, after which the boys were introduced. Corporal John Russell and Corporal Clyde Ashford made excellent talks of their experiences. Other guests were E. H. Allen, Malice Davis, Oscar Parks, Aldwin Lambert. The house was crowded and filled with joy. As the boys were brought to the front Mrs. H. V. Besse played "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," all standing, after which Rev. M. R. Rhonenece offered invocation. Solos were sung by Misses Hazel Stewart and Hazel Turner. Then the guests were invited to the guest table. Mr. Chas. Davis was master of ceremonies.

Friday night, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rodrugez, 1230 Seventh avenue, the Bethel A. M. E. church Christian Endeavor society gave an outing for the people. Ice cream and cake were served and all were very happy.

Bethel church Pastor's Aid society gave a mock wedding, one of the grandest entertainments ever known in the history of the church, all the characters being young men, except little Charles M. Rhonenece, who acted as ring bearer. This play was gotten up by the young ladies of the Church Aid. They cleared $45. Mrs. Minnie Herndon, president; Mrs. Corinne White, secretary.

Rev. M. R. Rhonenece, pastor of the Bethel church, and his people are making ready to put on their rally for the new building. Hour of services Sunday, 11 a. m.; Sunday school, 1 p. m.; Christian Endeavor, 6:30 p. m.; preaching, 8 p. m.; prayer meeting and preaching every Wednesday evening.

At this writing Mrs. Rhonenece is ill; Miss Ethel Richardson, 808 Fourteenth avenue, is able to be up again; Mrs. Hall is getting along very nicely; R. V. Robertson, 2425 Fifth avenue, seems to be better.

We are glad to say everything is working nicely.

Economy Tailor

C. M. SIMMONS, Proprietor

Goods Called for and Delivered. Cleaning and Repairing.
Suits Made to Order $38 Up. 1313 Dodge Street.

Our new location at 1313 Dodge street makes us a daylight shop. Plenty of sale room. No time lost trying to please my customers. All we ask of you is to give us a chance to make your clothes, and to be convinced in your own mind. We cut, trim, make a suit with extra trousers, $45.00. It is true old Solomon says: "There is nothing new under the sun," but the economy tailor always finds a way of improving his work. We accomplish what others promise. The smartness that satisfies cannot be pressed on a suit with a tailor's iron—it must be built into the suit from the first clip-clip of the cutter's shears. The canvas is the structure that the front shoulders of a coat depend on—it is unseen to you from the way it is molded. The qualities of leadership remain under all conditions, so call and see our new store.
