

Lincoln News

MRS. SARAH WALKER.

Mrs. Teal, who has successfully conducted the various Camp Fire Girls clubs of Lincoln, has organized a club of the same nature among the younger girls at the A. M. E. church at 9th and C streets, with Mrs. Isetta Malone as their guardian. All girls above twelve are eligible for membership. At the present, however, they have been holding their meetings every Thursday at 4 p. m. at the above place. At the last meeting the larger girls were divided from the smaller girls, but their place for holding meetings has not as yet been decided upon.

The lecture given last Wednesday evening at the A. M. E. church by Mrs. Waumbach on home economics and methods of beautifying the home, was received with much appreciation by all present. The lecture this week will be upon home nursing.

Mrs. Allen of Enid, Okla., who spent several days as the guest of her son, Luther Allen and daughter Lottie Hale, departed for her home last week, intending to spend a few days with a son in Atchison, Kas., and also one in Wichita, Kas., before going home.

Mrs. Richard G. Houston of 131 South 21st street, entertained a few ladies at her home on St. Patrick's day. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion and a delightful time was reported by all present.

At the meeting held by the members of the N. A. A. C. P., last Thursday at the A. M. E. church, a committee was appointed by lay out plans of the campaign for the new membership drive, which will be started in a short time. Lincoln is endeavoring to raise her membership to 400 members in the drive. Those appointed on this committee were as follows: O. J. Burkhardt, chairman; Monroe Williams, Clyde Malone, William Woods, T. T. Williams.

Mrs. Jennie Fleming returned to Lincoln Sunday, after a short visit in Omaha.

A surprise party was given Monday evening upon Mr. George Saunders, 2226 R street. Mrs. Lillian Richards of Toronto, Canada, who is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sarah McWilliams, was guest of honor. A very enjoyable time was reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Williams gave a reception at their home last Friday evening complimentary to Mr. Williams, brother, Joe Williams, who has just returned from France. Mr. Williams has among the many relics that he brought back, the Croix de Guerre, which he received for bravery shown while rescuing a comrade. He also favored his many listeners with a synopsis of his exploits while "over there," which met with the appreciation of all present. A delightful time was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Clara Shipman, who has been very ill for several months is showing very little improvement this week.

Mr. Nelson and Mr. Elleck Venable, who have been on the sick list for some time, are both feeling very badly this week.

Mr. Paul Moore is convalescing slowly.

The Woman's Davis club will meet Tuesday, April 1, at the home of Mrs. Stella Crews, 910 U street.

The Refuge Missionary Baptist church, near Twentieth and N streets, held splendid services all day Sunday, March 23. The night service began at 8:15, accompanied by a three-piece orchestra, which was enjoyed by all. Rev. Mr. Gumm rendered a splendid solo. Preaching by Rev. R. R. Powers. Subject, "Christ the Doer." Revival meetings will be continued throughout the week. All are cordially invited to attend these meetings. Rev. R. R. Powers, pastor; Minnie Blackburn, reporter.

MOCK TRIAL TO BE GIVEN AT A. M. E. CHURCH

A mock trial will be given at the A. M. E. church, Ninth and C streets, April 3. It will be the case of Mr. James A. Patrick against Mr. Wyatt Williams, a suit for damages in the sum of $10,000.

COURT OFFICIALS.

SOUTH OMAHA

Master Ronald Holmes, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Holmes of 2410 N street, fell from a stairway while playing and broke his shoulder. The attending physician says he is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Effie Moore of Leavenworth, Kan., died last week in that city, where she has lived since leaving Omaha. Mrs. Moore, with her mother, Mrs. Reed, lived quite a number of years here and their many friends sympathize deeply with the bereaved mother.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Alston of 2312 Madison street, a baby girl, March 17, St. Patrick's day.

Mr. William Mayberry, for many years a resident of this city, died last Tuesday in Sheridan, Wyo. Mr. Mayberry leaves a wife and son in Wyoming and a daughter, Mrs. Etta Farmer of this city, and many dear friends to mourn his demise.

Lieutenant Andrew Reed made an instructive and interesting lecture Monday evening, March 23, at Bethel Baptist church.

Mr. Samuel Andrews, who has been seriously ill, is better at this writing.

Mr. Marlow, who has been down with rheumatism for six months, is now able to go back to work; but his little son Bracie, who is suffering with the same malady, does not improve any.

Rev. Mr. Walton, pastor of the M. E. church, left last week to attend his annual conference, which convenes in Kansas.

Miss Rosie Pitts, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pitts of Sixteenth and Castellar streets, left last week for her home in Texas.

Economy Tailor

C. M. SIMMONS, Proprietor

Goods Called for and Delivered. Cleaning and Repairing.
Suits Made to Order $38 Up. 1313 Dodge Street.

Our new location at 1313 Dodge street makes us a daylight shop. Plenty of sale room. No time lost trying to please my customers. All we ask of you is to give us a chance to make your clothes, and to be convinced in your own mind. We cut, trim, make a suit with extra trousers, $45.00. It is true old Solomon says: "There is nothing new under the sun," but the economy tailor always finds a way of improving his work. We accomplish what others promise. The smartness that satisfies cannot be pressed on a suit with a tailor's iron—it must be built into the suit from the first clip-clip of the cutter's shears. The canvas is the structure that the front shoulders of a coat depend on—it is unseen to you from the way it is molded. The qualities of leadership remain under all conditions, so call and see our new store.
