Lincoln News

MRS. SARAH WALKER.

Lieut. and Mrs. Will Johnson arrived in Lincoln last Thursday evening and are the guests of Lieut. Johnson's mother, Mrs. Laura Johnson. He recently returned from overseas. Friday evening a delightful reception was tendered them by Mrs. Johnson at her home, 2010 South 14th street. A splendid program was rendered, which was followed by remarks by Lieut. Johnson, which were greatly appreciated by all present. During his interesting talk he touched upon the genial hospitality of the French people, relating that no color line is drawn in France. That character and no color is regarded by them as being the most essential factor to be looked upon by mankind, when striving for a democratic government. Following these remarks refreshments were served. About seventy-five guests were present and a most enjoyable time was reported by all.

Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall had the misfortune of having their home at 820 South 8th street, set on fire last Wednesday morning by sparks from the chimney. But little damage was done to the outside, while the inside was unharmed.

Funeral services for Mr. Eugene Brown, brother of Mrs. Will Lewis, were held Saturday at 2 p. m. from Brown's undertaking parlors. Burial being at Wyuka. Rev. O. J. Burkhardt officiated.

Funeral services for Mr. William Nelson, who died Tuesday at 4 p. m. were held Friday afternoon from the A. M. E. church, Rev. J. S. Payne officiating. Interment being in Wyuka.

A reception was given by Miss Mary Burdon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce last Friday evening, in honor of her brother Frank, who has just returned from France. Judge Hastings of Crete was an out-of-town guest and gave a very interesting talk, which was enjoyed by all. Sgt. Burdon also related a few of his exciting experiences overseas. At the conclusion of which light refreshments were served.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH NEWS
Rev. W. C. Williams, Pastor

Sunday marks the close of the three weeks' revival, which has been very successfully conducted by Rev. J. A.

Broadnax of South Omaha and Mrs. Taylor, of Tpeka, Kas. There were 64 additions during this time.

The collections for the week were $232.82.

The entertainment given on last Monday evening was a grand success. The beautiful bedspread was won by Mrs. A. Smith, who sold the highest number of tickets.

PALESTINE, TEXAS

We are having some good weather to farm and things are looking good. All the churches had their regular services on Sunday and it was a fine day.

The Pilgrim Rest Baptist church had an election last week to elect a pastor and the Rev. Mr. Ellis was the choice.

The West Union Baptist church gave the soldiers a banquet on last Monday night and it was a swell affair. All the boys enjoyed themselves to the highest.

Mrs. Birdie Massey was in this week to visit her husband, Dr. E. O. Massey. Mrs. Lizzie Tippit and Mr. Alex Milton were married on Sunday night and we hope the contracting parties a happy and prosperous life.

The K. of P.'s band had their annual thanksgiving service at Mt. Vernon A. M. E. church yesterday and it was largely attended.

The Rev. William Keith was billed on the program to preach the sermon, but he was sick in bed and not able to do so and the Rev. F. F. Washington preached in his stead.

Little Allie Mae Stell died on last Tuesday and was buried on Wednesday.

Mrs. Florence Johnson died last Friday with the smallpox and was buried on Saturday.

There are a few cases of smallpox in the city, although the health officer thinks it under control and is confined to the I. & G. N. hospital.

Mrs. C. A. Dials died last week after a short illness.

The influenza is still round here. L. H. Bland was made to ride the goat at the K. of P. hall last Friday night. He made a good rider.

LECTURE PLEASES AUDIENCE

The audience which attended the lecture given by Ailey W. Lewis at Grove Methodist Episcopal church, Tuesday evening, March 25, was well repaid. Mr. Lewis' subject was "The Democracy of Patriotism." He demonstrated his ability as an instructive, logical, clear-headed thinker and forceful speaker and captivated his audience by his eloquence. His lecture was an intellectual treat. It was preceded by congregational singing of hymns and patriotic airs led by the Cirpus Attucks chapter of the Red Cross; a violin solo by Maceo T. Williams; a contralto solo by Mrs.

James G. Jewell and a brief address by Lieut. Edward Turner. The Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, pastor of Mt. Moriah Baptist church, wittily announced the program and introduced the speaker. The Rev. M. Rhonene of Council Bluffs pronounced the benediction.
