ORGANIZE CAMP FIRE GIRLS

Omaha now has its first group of Colored Camp Fire Girls. The idea urged for several months by Ruth Jones and Dorothy Williams, that the members of the Quinzaine club form a group has been finally carried out.

A meeting was held Friday, March 21, at the home of Grace Dorsey, and ten girls were present.

The group is to be congratulated upon its success in securing as guardians two of our most prominent and energetic young women, Miss Madre Penn and Mrs. Frances Peoples.

The other officers elected are: Dorothy Williams, treasurer; Gladys Brown, secretary, and Ruth Jones, reporter.

On Saturday, March 29, the Camp Fire Girls met at noon at 40th and Cuming and hiked to Elmwood park. The girls spent a pleasant afternoon playing and taking snap shots.

Pauline Black, Gladys Brown, Grace Dorsey and Audra Truehart were kitchen police. In the evening a short meeting was held. After organizing several committees and making plans for next week, the girls returned home.

THE HELPERS' CLUB

On Monday afternoon the Helpers' club held a very delightful and well attended tea at the residence of Mrs. J. D. Lewis, 2414 Binney street. This charitable organization, though not well known, has been in existence for more than three years.

The meetings are held monthly at the homes of the members. After the usual routine business a program is rendered. At the regular monthly meeting held recently at the home of Mrs. T. P. Mahamitt the following program was given: Reading, "Smiles," Mrs. Dan Desdunes; an address, "Opportunity," Mrs. J. D. Lewis; selections from Paul Laurence Dunbar, read by Mrs. R. T. Walker, Mrs. J. A. Williams and Mrs. S. B. Canty.

PURCHASES LATEST STYLIE COUPE

THE N. A. A. C. P.

The Omaha branch of the N. A. A. C. P., which now has a membership of nearly 400, which it is hoped to increase to 1,000 within the year, held an enthusiastic meeting at St. John's A. M. E. church Sunday afternoon. An interesting address on Hoke Smith's bill for a large appropriation for education was given by Mr. Thos. Reese. He stated that Germany's efficiency, due to education, had shown the United States the need of reducing illiteracy, which the draft had disclosed. This illiteracy was not confined to the Negro. The enlarged educational program would be beneficial to all Americans. Several other speakers emphasized special points.

There will be no meeting of the forum next Sunday because of Easter services.
