

Among the Churches

ST. BENEDICT THE MOOR

Rev. Francis Cassilly, S. J., Pastor

Owing to the absence of Fr. Cassilly no mass was said last Sunday. A special mass will be said next Sunday, June 8; the Feast of Pentecost at 8 a. m. in the Sacred Heart chapel. There will be several baptisms and first communions.

ALLEN CHAPEL, A. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. J. A. Broadnax, Pastor.

The pastor has just returned from the conference at Bonner Springs. It was a great gathering. Many able divines and visitors were present and the papers and discussions were very helpful and interesting. Among those present were: Dr. Griffin, First A. M. E. church, Kansas City; Presiding Elder Harris, Topeka district; Rev. T. Green, Parsons, Kan.; Prof. Kennedy, editor of the Advocate, Kansas City.

The Aid society meets Friday with Mrs. Robert Severs.

Children's Day will be deferred until the third Sunday.

Sunday night Allen chapel will be at St. John's A. M. E. church.

PILGRIM REST BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. William Franklin, Pastor.

Despite the threatening weather Sunday the services were largely attended. Sunday morning Rev. William Young preached a strong and able sermon.

Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock Rev. Mr. Fant spoke in interest of Mr. Golden's club. The sum of $40 was raised.

Sunday night Rev. John Union spoke on the subject, "Who Saved the People that I Am?"

The pastor has been on the sick list the past two weeks, but all are glad to know he is improving. He wishes to thank the many friends for their kindness shown him during his illness.

CHURCH OF ST. PHILIP THE DEACON

Rev. John Albert Williams, Pastor

Sunday being Whit Sunday or the Feast of Pentecost, the birthday anniversary of the founding of the Christian church, the members of the congregation are reminded that it is a day of obligation. The customary services will be held at 7:30, 10 and 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Everybody is welcome to all services.

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. W. C. Williams, Pastor.

Sunday will mark the close of the big spring effort. Bishop H. B. Parks will preach at the morning service.

The L. E. W. board will meet Friday evening at the church. All members are urged to be present.

St. John's Sunday school was well represented by Russell Reese at the convention which met at Bonner Springs last week.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IA.

Sunday was a gloomy day at the Tabernacle church at the nail-driving rally. Attendance at all the services was light. Sunday school was about as usual. Covenant meeting was spiritually warm. Collection fair. In the afternoon the threatening weather made almost a blank in our services; about $16 was raised at this time. At the evening service it was some better. The pastor preached a splendid sermon and administered the Lord's Supper.

The Drilling class will meet every evening this week.

The Pastor's Aid, or Coronation club, will meet with Miss Robinson on Twelfth street and Avenue A.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at the church.

There was a beautiful wedding at the parsonage of the Baptist church Saturday evening, when Mr. Henry Lavelle of Omaha married Miss Lucy Wheeler of Topeka, Kan. The ring ceremony was used. Rev. J. P. Jackson officiated.

Carpenters have put the windows in the new church. They are planning to have the opening about June 22.

Mr. Anderson passed away at his home on South Twelfth street early Sunday morning, June 1.

Mrs. Holly Preston, who was called to Muskogee, Okla., to the bedside of her brother, reports him on the way to recovery, and she expects to leave there Saturday, June 7, for Council Bluffs.

Mrs. Griffin Carter and Mr. Stroter were called to Moberly, Mo., to their sister and cousin's funeral last Wednesday.

Mrs. Emmaline Walker and Mrs. Willie Hill and little son Lawrence went to St. Joseph to visit Mrs. Lottie Smith. They left Saturday night.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH

Avenue A and Sixteenth Street; Rev. Matthew Roscoe Rhonence, Pastor.

At 11 a. m. Sunday Rev. R. E. Ewing of Denver preached. Sunday school and Christian Endeavor attendance were good. At night the Rev. Melrose Goda Sishuba, a native of South Africa, preached. He has just returned from overseas, where he has been serving in the British army, and has traveled extensively in Europe.

He is now visiting his own countryman, Rev. M. R. Rhonence. Sergeant Sishuba is now traveling in the west preaching and lecturing on his experience overseas with the boys.

The entertainment given by the stewardess boards for the trustees Friday night proved to be a success.

There will be a feast in the wilderness given at the Bethel A. M. E. church, June 9, by Iowa Club No. 5.

The Eastern Star will have their entertainment June 11 at the Masonic hall, 18 South Pearl street.

Rev. Mr. Rhonence preached at St. John's A. M. E. church, Omaha, Monday night for Rev. W. C. Williams in his campaign, on the subject, "They Had a Mind to Work."

Bethel church is still working and raising money to make their church building what it ought to be. Some of the people have paid their pledges and are asking all to pay so that work can start.

Mrs. Gertrude E. Rhonence and little son Charles were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Innis Smith, 2425 Sixth avenue, Tuesday evening.

Mr. R. V. Robertson is just about the same at this writing.

PALESTINE, TEXAS

Good services at all the churches. The U. B. F. and S. M. T. held their annual Thanksgiving services on last Sunday at Grant chapel, A. M. E. church, with a collection of $54.

June has brought forth many new creations in

$5 CORONET HATS $5

Values that eclipse all others

—Most every woman in Lincoln knows the wonderful amount of style and value that is always to be found in CORONET Hats.

—It is a standard of value that the designers of these remarkable hats have striven to maintain, even in the face of conditions that were diametrically opposed to it.

—But the styles that just put in appearance for June are far superior to any yet produced by their maker, and are far above any hats on the market selling for so little money—in style—in variety—in quality—and in real value.

—Included in the collection are New White Hats, trimmed with maline ribbon and flowers—New Black Hats, with colored facings and hair braid edges—Dainty Poke Hats, faced with Georgette—New Sailors and Sport Hats—and others—all characterful and delightful creations, $5.00 each
