Little Rossie Farmer was taken ill very suddenly in church Sunday night, but is better at this writing.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. W. F. Botts, Pastor

Despite the inclement weather last Sunday a goodly number were present to receive the pleasant surprise in store for them in the presence of Dr. J. H. McDonald of Pittsburg, Pa., who preached two soul-tiring sermons during the day. Aside from a pleasure to the members it was a rest to the pastor who had worked so hard in the recent financial drive.

After the sermon in the morning several candidates put on Christ by baptism.

We urge each and every member to attend his respective auxiliary this week as delegates will be chosen to represent each branch of work at the Nebraska Negro Baptist association and auxiliaries, which meets with Bethel Baptist church, June 23 to 29th.

Regular services next Lord's day. A church where everyone is welcome.

PLEASANT GREEN BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. John Costello, Pastor

Sunday at 3 p. m. Rev. John Costello preached at Pilgrim Rest Baptist church for the benefit of Club No. 6. The chairman being Mr. Mills. The total collection, including that raised by the public and the club amounted to $61.10. Rev. William Franklin, the pastor, appreciated and thanked Rev. John Costello for his aid in raising the amount mentioned.

Mother Vaughn, the mother of Pleasant Green Baptist church of St. Louis, Mo., is the house guest of the pastor and church. She is now returning to her home the later part of this week.

The sick are convalescing rapidly. All are out of the hospital.
