Events and Persons

NEGRO BUSINESS LEAGUE

The Negro Business League meets every Friday night at the office of Jones & Reed. All business men and women are invited to attend.

Mrs. Emma A. Hayes of 1811 North 23rd street gave a luncheon last Thursday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. Vaughn of St. Louis, Mo. Covers were laid for six. Those present were Mrs. E. Toddy, Mother Howard, Mother Lewis, Mother Van and Mother Lilly May Larkin. The table was beautifully decorated with roses and carnations, and the menu was real appetizing. All left delighted with having met Mother Vaughn feeling they had spent a very pleasant afternoon with much praise to the hostess.

Mrs. Nellie Harrison of Muskogee Okla., is spending a month in this city visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert Bohannon, 2427 Lake street.

All returned soldiers are requested to send their names and addresses to The Monitor office, 304 Crouse block.

Don't forget the luncheon demonstration given at Zion Baptist church June 20 for the benefit of the N. W. C. A. The leading caterers of the city of Omaha are giving this for the Negro Women's Christian Association.

Mrs. Addie Hopkins of Hopkinsville, Ky., and Mrs. Bronaugh of East St. Louis, Ill., mother and sister of Mrs. G. A. Love, 1824 North 23rd street, are in the city on an extended visit.

Mrs. Rebecca Cuff, 2219 Grace street, left last Saturday for Buffalo, N. Y., stopping en route in Chicago, Ill. Mrs. Cuff goes to spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. B. J. McCurtin.

Smoke John Ruskin cigar.

Miss Iver Byrd of 2916 R street, was quietly married Saturday night, June 7, to Mr. P. McVaughn. Rev. Thos. Taggart officiated.

Mrs. Hannah Helm entertained last Friday afternoon from 2 to 4 in honor of Mrs. Roscoe Ailep of St. Paul, Minn. Covers were laid for eight. Those present were Mrs. Laura Jefferson and husband, Mrs. Ida Riddle and husband and Mrs. Mabel Adkins and husband.

E. F. Morearty, Lawyer, 640 Bee Building. Douglas 3841.—Adv.

Miss Lettie Arvin, 1811 North 23rd street, and Miss Cleopatra Page of Harrisonville, Mo., are learning the Poro system at Jones' Culture college, 1516 North 24th.

Mrs. M. Irwin and Mr. and Mrs. Wycoff, of 5318 South 31st street, gave a house party Friday last in honor of Mrs. Roscoe Ailep of St. Paul, Minn. Covers were laid for 27. The artistic decorations of the dining room were exquisite. After the guests had partaken of a most sumptuous repast, they were entertained by singing and music. Everybody went away happy.

Houses for sale in all parts of the city. Tel. Douglas 2842 or Webster 5519. Guy B. Robbins.

Mrs. Julia Washington of Lawrence, Kas., who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, 2313 North 27th street, left for her home last Thursday night.

The Rev. S. E. Deas, pastor of the Grove M. E. church, left last Tuesday night for Columbus, to attend the World's Centenary meeting of the M. E. church. One million are expected to be present to help raise $180,000,000.

The grand evening picnic given by the Pilgrim Rest Baptist church to Lake Manawa Thursday evening, June 7, was not only a success financially, but in every other way as well. The order and general deportment of those who attended was so commendable that the general superintendent stated it was the best trolley ride that had been in Omaha for ten years.

Archie Bell and Pinky Bell were reunited in holy matrimony Tuesday, June 10. The marriage took place in Judge Crawford's judicial chambers.

MASONIC LODGES WILL OBSERVE ST. JOHN'S DAY

The Masonic lodges A. F. & A. M. of the city will observe the anniversary of St. John on Sunday, June 22, in the auditorium of Zion Baptist at 3 o'clock p. m. There will be an appropriate program rendered by the brethren of the various lodges. The anniversary sermon will be preached by the Rev. W. F. Botts, B. S., Th. D. D., right worshipful grand chaplain of Missouri and its jurisdiction. All regular constituted A. F. and A. M. master Masons visiting in the city are cordially invited to attend. The public is also extended a most cordial invitation to be present.

PUPILS GIVE FINE RECITAL

The recital given by the pupils of Mrs. J. Alice Stewart at Zion Baptist church Tuesday night was one of the most delightful musical events of the season, and was thoroughly enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience. Mrs. Stewart is to be congratulated upon the excellent work she is doing in the line of musical education. Space forbids mentioning all of the individual numbers. Those taking part in the excellent program were the Misses Grace Smith and Simms, Neola Jenkins, Theresa Liverpool, Myrtle Dixon, Aline Bentley, Sybil Merrifield, Ruth Kellogg and Noretta Moss; Mesdames Harrold Roulett, Woodson, Thompson, Miller, Stewart, and Messrs. Saunders and Stewart. The Ladies' Taborean band furnished several selections. The program closed with "Living Pictures," depicting the following well-known scenes "Rock of Ages," Miss Ruth Washington; "Goddess of Liberty," Miss Madeline Roberts; "A Child's Prayer," the Misses Dolly Mann, Hortense Johnson and Noretta Moss; "Dawn," Miss Alice Jones; "Hopeful Love," Miss Ailene Bentley; "The Awakening," Mrs. J. D. Lewis; "The Red Cross," Mesdames Nate Hunter and E. R. West; "At Peace," the entire group.

KNIGHTS AND DAUGHTERS OF TABOR MAKE GOOD SHOWING

The Knights and Daughters of Tabor made a good showing last Sunday afternoon, when they turned out in the full strength of their large and influential organization and marched to the City Auditorium, where their annual sermon was preached by the Rev. W. C. Williams. The Rev. W. F. Botts was master of ceremonies. A thoughtful address was delivered by District Deputy Grand Mentor Harrold; an interesting paper was read by Dtr. Lenora Gray, vice grand preceptress; a vocal number was given by Dtr. Vinie Jones and an instrumental number by Dtr. C. E. Guyes. Music was furnished by Desdunes' band and the Ladies' Taborean band. About 1,000 persons attended the ceremonies. Ailey W. Lewis made a stirring appeal for memberships in the N. A. A. C. P. As a token of appreciation A. M. Harrold was presented with a purse of $26 at the conclusion of the exercises.

COLORED BOY BEST WRITER IN OMAHA SCHOOLS

Again the honor of being the best writer in the Omaha public schools has fallen to a member of the Colored race. This honor last year fell to Miss Watson. This year, George Goff, aged fourteen, a former pupil of the Lincoln school, and a freshman in the High, carries off this coveted honor. It is the first time the prize has been won by a boy. Among those receiving the gold seal for excellence in penmanship are several Colored pupils. Miss Bobbie Jones of Cass school being among the number. The Monitor wishes to receive the names of all Colored pupils who have won distinction in their studies.

THE N. A. A. C. P.

Sunday afternoon the N. A. A. C. P. held an interesting meeting at St. John's A. M. E. church, where the meetings have been held during the membership campaign. After next Sunday the plan of meeting at other churches is not a denominational institution, but embraces all the people. Much important business was transacted. The usual meeting will be held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. John Gardner left for Macon City, Mo., her former home, for an extended visit with relatives and friends.

The second annual session of the Negro Baptist association and auxiliaries of Nebraska will meet June 23 to 29 with Bethel Baptist church, South Side, Omaha, Neb. All delegates and officers are asked to be on time for the opening session Monday.

Miss Cerele Tucker has again merited extraordinary honors in the South High. She was exempted from all final examinations by receiving an average of over 90 per cent in each subject.

A SPLENDID BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY

Wanted one hundred race men that are truly race men with one hundred dollars ($100.00) to invest in a proposition that will be a money maker for all concerned. Said money to be handled by the one hundred men and said proposition to be decided by said one hundred men. Now this is not a talking proposition it is a money making one. Now if there are one hundred men that are interested let me hear from you.

Business opportunity is knocking at your door here in Omaha as never before. You will never be respected as a race until you began to do business on a large scale. This proposition means a ten thousand dollar business. Those who are interested write
