The church is divided into tribes known as the twelve tribes of Israel. They are working nicely and making good financial reports every Sunday. The Silver Leaf club met with Mr.

and Mrs. J. L. Betts, 2526 Lake street, last Tuesday night. Many were present and a delightful evening was spent. Mr. Kelly and Miss Mary Howell were quietly married Thursday night, June 19, by the Rev. M. H. Wilkerson. The sick are: Mrs. M. Gains, at Lord Lister; Miss E. Hill, University hospital. J. C. Rev. W. C. Williams, Pastor

Large and enthusiastic crowds worshipped at the usual services on Sunday past. There were six persons added to the church. The Ladies' Aid society met on Thursday in the lecture room. The Willing Workers met Friday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Carr, 2411 Lake street. On last Friday evening St. John's gave to the June graduates of the Central High school a delightful reception. A splendid program was rendered just before going down stairs where every place was gaily arrayed with flowers and ribbons. While at the tables many good and encouraging remarks were made by many.

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. J. A. Broadnax, Pastor
Sunday's services were a pronounced success. Spiritually and financially did Allen Chapel go over the top. Four infants were baptized at 8 o'clock services, and one individual came into full membership. Everybody votes that the painters have completed the job giving full satisfaction. The daughters of Mrs. Stapleton and Mrs. C. J. Goode are on the sick list. The Monitor should be in every home. Why not subscribe to it now, and read the news from all over the country.

PILGRIM REST BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. W. M. Franklin, Pastor
Sunday was a beautiful day and everyone who was present seemed to have enjoyed both sermons. Sunday morning the pastor delivered a very able sermon. He spoke from the subject: "The Action of the Holy Spirit Upon Jesus." Sunday afternoon at 4 p. m. a sermon was preached in behalf of Mr. Ben Harris' club. The sum of $25 was raised. Sunday night the church was packed to its utmost. The pastor preached from the subject: "Our Attachment to the Christian Church." Several members were added to the church. We are having quite a few visitors. They are always welcome.

OMAHA, THE MAGNET THAT ATTRACTS

Mr. D. H. Harris, late of Billings, Mont., was one of the many thousand enthusiasts who welcomed the Omaha trade boosters of the local Chamber of Commerce on their last western tour, accompanied by Dan Desdunes famous band, Mr. Harris heard the boosters talk and was much impressed, and his decision finally to follow one of the trails that lead to Omaha after hearing the band play. A musician himself, formerly a clarinetist in the old U. S. 24th infantry band, he sold his business, a prosperous and profitable barber shop and said "Omaha and that band for me." Mr. Harris has the journalistic bug. That's what brought him to the Monitor office. He was formerly the Billings correspondent for the Chicago Defender and the Indianapolis Freeman, and the many pleasing reports in those
