Mr. James Martin and wife of Sioux Falls, S. D., were here visiting relatives last week.

Mr. Richard Craig has gone to Kansas City to work in the harvest fields.

BUTTE, MONT., NEWS By Angie Mills-Arnold

Miss Hallie Q. Brown is visiting at the home of Mrs. M. E. Davis, and gave a recital Friday evening, July 18, before the Woman's club.

Bethel Baptist church has purchased a beautiful $4,200 parsonage at 604 W. Broadway, and will move their pastor in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rives entertained at their residence Thursday evening from 5:30 to 8 o'clock in honor of the Rev. Thomas A. Taggart. The host and hostess are among Butte's most gracious entertainers. The house was beautifully decorated and a very elaborate repast was served.

Rev. Thomas A. Taggart of Omaha, Neb., is in the city, conducting a series of evangelistic services for the Rev. E. B. Reed, pastor of Bethel Baptist church. In attendance and from a spiritual viewpoint, the meetings have been mammoth. Mr. Taggart delivered his masterpiece Sunday night, "The Second Coming of Christ," holding an enthusiastic audience of colored and white spellbound for more than an hour. His wonderful sermons have had far reaching effect.

Rev. and Mrs. E. B. Reed entertained at the parsonage Saturday evening in honor of Rev. Thomas A. Taggart of Omaha, Neb., who is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Arnold of 12 W. Aluminum street. A four-course dinner was served. Those present were: The Rev. Mr. Taggart, Mrs. Smith of Alabama; Mr. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Arnold, the host and hostess.

PALESTINE, TEXAS

It is raining here and the crops are doing fine as a result of it.

All of the churches had appropriate services last Sunday. Several are holding revivals and all are doing well.

Rev. J. E. Ellis went to Rockdale last week to attend the Lincoln Baptist Association. The Rev. Mr. Ellis holds an important office. He reported a good meeting both spiritually and financially.

The banquet given at St. Paul's A. M. E. church this week in honor of the winner of the big rally was all that one could expect. Mrs. H. E. Williams was leader of the Blues and she led the whole affair.

The summer normal has been moved here from Loveview because of some trouble in that place. The town is full of teachers.

Mrs. Lulu Harris died on the Sixteenth and she was buried on the eighteenth. She leaves a household of small children, a husband, mother, father and a host of friends to mourn her loss. She was a member of the Antioch Baptist church.

The Tuskegee, Okla., Jubilee singers entertained Hastings people last week. They rendered some very popular songs. It was greatly enjoyed by all who went to hear them.

WOMEN SUCCEED AS POSTAL CLERKS

Philadelphia, July 23.—That the colored women can measure up in any given line of work, especially in the postal department has been proven by the efficient work of two young women of Philadelphia.

Miss Alice Jordan and Miss Blissee Jones, both of Philadelphia, who have been working at the terminal in that city, were recently transferred to this district of the Fifteenth division as clerks. These two ladies are the first colored ones to work in this department in the whole Fifteenth division. They were former school teachers in their home town. Their work here is without reproach. They are stationed at the Liberty avenue terminal at present.
