NEW YORK HAS ONLY WOMAN'S MOTOR CORPS

Hayward Unit Entertains 100,000 Soldiers; Unexcelled in Service by Any Similar Organization.

New York, Aug. 14.—The only Colored women's motor corps in the world is that of the Hayward unit, a branch of the National League for Women's Service in New York City. If you can imagine the feeling of a man in the desert coming unexpectedly upon an oasis, you will appreciate the surprise and joy of Colored soldiers, lying wounded in New York hospitals, at the sight of women of their own race to comfort and cheer them as they had so often seen their white brothers visited by other members of the league.

While the work of the Hayward unit may not be as extensive as far-reaching as that of other departments, in point of personal service and results accomplished it is excelled by none.

"Lonesome Louisiana," lying on a cot in the big ward at Debarcation Hospital No. 3, brightens visibly at the approach of Sergeant Pearl Murray, and when she mentions that "some of the boys are going up to see a ball game this afternoon" and asks to join the party, his exclamation of pleasure sounds as though he had forgotten all about being sick.

There is no reason why a Colored boy should feel lonely or neglected in New York. And judging by the number who have been entertained by the motor corps, there exists only satisfaction and happy memories for the Colored convalescent when he leaves for his home town.

The Hayward unit maintains headquarters at 200 West 139th street. Comfortable rest rooms for reading, writing and relaxation are provided, and a fine piano, player-piano and victrola are placed at the disposal of visiting soldiers.

HOW SUBSCRIBERS LIKE THE MONITOR

The following are only a few from the many appreciated letters which come to our desk, showing how much our large and growing family of subscribers appreciate The Monitor:

"Should Be In Every Race Home" Omaha, July 23.

Editor The Monitor:
Please find enclosed check for a year's subscription. I think The Monitor a valuable paper to the race, and the race should take great pride to not only see that it gets into every race home, but white homes also.

Yours for success,
MARTHA TAYLOR SMITH.
1920 North Thirty-fourth Street.

Proud of Monitor Omaha, June 30.

Editor The Monitor:
Please find inclosed $2 for renewal of subscription to The Monitor from July 1, 1919, to July 1, 1920. We can only say this, that The Monitor is a weekly paper of which every Negro in Omaha should be proud. Therefore we trust that the Negroes of this community will patronize this worthy enterprise.

Very truly yours,
C. W. WASHINGTON.
2409 Lake Street.

Dr. C. B. Charleton Likes Monitor Beaumont, Tex., Aug. 1.

Editor The Monitor:
Enclosed you will find check for $4 for two years' subscription. I want to be put on your permanent list of subscribers. I cannot do without The Monitor.

Yours for success,
C. B. CHARLETON.
465 Forsythe Street.

Awakens Poetic Fire Within Him Omaha, Aug. 10.

Editor The Monitor:
Enclosed find $2 for a year's subscription to The Monitor.

HOW ABOUT IT?
I would take it, but don't you see I take the Daily News and Bee; And it's a weekly, anyhow— Some other time, but not just now.

Yes, it's a weekly, I'll admit; But nevertheless it does its bit, And looks the questions in the face Of interest to the Negro race.

We learn to crawl before we walk; We gesticulate before we talk; And a year's subscription from me and you Would help to make it a daily, too.

EARL SMITH.
1506 South Twenty-second Street.

An Agreeable Surprise Butte, Mont., June 30.

Rev. John Albert Williams:
Dear Father Williams—Last week I received a very agreeable surprise through an Omaha friend in the form of The Monitor. Straightway I decided to subscribe for it. Was delighted to see how the paper had grown and I must say you have my best wishes. Being an Omaha product and having lived there until marriage moved me away, three years ago, you may know that I found much interesting news in The Monitor.

Race progress here in Butte is very noticeable. If there be any such thing in this United States as democracy for the Colored man, we westerners are at least subjecting the other fellow to the test. If by sending weekly Butte news to you I may help The Monitor to become the foremost of Colored newspapers I shall be delighted to do so. Might add that "our people" of Montana are looking forward to a great revival, to be held in Butte, starting July 6, services to be conducted by the Rev. Thomas Taggart of Omaha. Am soliciting your prayers that great will be the results. Enclosed find six months' subscription.

Respectfully,
MRS. MACK ARNOLD
(Nee Angio Mills).

Resents Statement Louisville, Ky., July 19.

Rev. John A. Williams:
My Dear Sir—I am informed on competent authority that the clipping enclosed herein appeared in The Monitor under date of July 12 and purports to describe certain language used by me. I cannot believe that this advertisement was run knowingly by The Monitor, as it is libelous and plainly malicious. It has been five months since I have been in Omaha and while I lived there I was engaged in several race enterprises and was employed by one of the oldest race firms for several years. I feel sure that you will join with all honest people in condemning the practice of any one who would be so base as to boost their business at the expense of personal slander.

Very respectfully,
HELEN COUNCELLOR GAYLORD.
1717 West Chestnut Street.

(The item referred to was the publication over J. D. Lewis' signature that Miss Councillor had accused him of over-charging and was "knocking" his business. The Monitor will not knowingly allow its columns to be used to misrepresent anybody.)

NEGRO-OWNED DEPARTMENT STORE TO COST $20,000; NEW INDUSTRIAL ENTERPRISE

St. Louis, Aug. 9.—The Colored citizens of St. Louis have subscribed $15,000 for the organization of a general department store to be maintained by and in the interest of the Colored population.

The store is to have a three-fold nature. It is to be a business owned, operated and controlled by Negroes; is to furnish employment for Negroes and operated on a cooperative basis, furnishing staple commodities on advantageous terms.

Homer G. Phillips, a lawyer with offices at 2335 Market street, said the formation of an exclusively Negro enterprise was in line with an industrial movement which had put forty-three Negro workers into positions formerly occupied by white employes in drug, dry goods and grocery stores.

Through the action of the St. Louis Boosters' association, Phillips said, three stores on Laclède avenue, Market and Pine streets and Lawton avenue, which depend entirely on Colored customers, have replaced their white employes with Colored.

"An industrial awakening is taking place among the Negroes," said Phillips. "They want merely what they are entitled to."

Phillips said the 80,000 Negroes in St. Louis had to spend on an average of a dollar a day for living expenses. "It is felt that this money, earned by the Negroes, should be spent and circulated among their own people as a help to their economic life," he explained.

APPLICATION OF GOLDEN RULE WILL MAKE RACE STRIFE IMPOSSIBLE

Chicago, Aug. 10.—There is no higher or clearer statement of our duty toward our dark brothers than the rule laid down in a very ancient decision which has never been overruled—one which we usually refer to as the Golden Rule.

Let us resolve, in view of the conditions obtaining within the last few days, to recognize our Negro neighbors as Americans who have always been loyal to America in the face of bad treatment; let us recognize them as fellow citizens entitled to share fully and equally the boasted opportunity of America; let us do this in a friendly spirit worthy of Christians and of Americans.

In an emergency, such as the present, it is the manifest duty of the churches to bear emphatic testimony to the need of calmness, sanity and sympathy with all of both races who are oppressed by the iniquities of the present social order.

The message of Christianity, as always in the past, is one of brotherhood and aspiration for goodwill and cooperation, which are the basis of the peace and welfare of every community. The efforts of all the people of all the churches are needed at this time to restore order and confidence and to make impossible the recurrence of the violence and lawlessness which are disgracing our city.

CITY WILL LOSE MILLION DOLLARS ACCOUNT OF RIOT
Chicago, Aug. 12.—The city of Chicago will lose much in a financial way on account of the damage done during the riots. Under the law it is responsible to the citizens in the neighborhood of $1,000,000 on account of loss of lives and damage to property.

Growing with Omaha

SIXTY-THREE years ago when the United States National Bank was first organized, Omaha was a town of less than 500 inhabitants.

Today, it is a great financial, commercial and industrial metropolis, the gateway of the entire west, a city with a population of almost 225,000 and with a future altogether bright.

This bank keeps pace with Omaha's growth and makes ready for Omaha's future. We have made every provision for a steady increase in the numbers of our clientele — we invite you to partake of our service.
